By RACHEL JACKSON

Lots of folks went visiting over the holidays and lots of folks came back and all it seemed mighty good to have them around again but could some one please tell how our attendance fell off with so many visitors in the congregation, Oh well, we'll say it was the rainy weather and look for more than 144 next time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lee took a trip down to Wilmington today to see Mrs. Lee's brother and his family. They went over to Sunset Park Baptist church for services and they report that the church was simply beautiful and carries the name of being the most beautiful church in Wilmington.

Jane Gainey and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rickman were visiting Jane's and Mrs. Rickman's mother, Mrs. Lula Gainey for the Thanksgiving holidays and Jane tells us she has 32 pupils in her first grade and that so far she likes teaching school very much. Jane, you tell those kids that it is very proper to say "youall" even up there in Maryland!

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Core went visiting the sick this afternoon and say that Miss Delphia Strickland was getting along very well and also his sister Mrs. Ellen Core. Good news like this is always welcomed.

The Young Married Women's class (even if some have been married for quiet a long while now) were very fortunate to have Miss Evelyn Snider from Conway, S. C. here to lead and teach their Sunday School Class. Since she is a college teacher visiting Mrs. Viola Strickland and she knew how to teach and everyone enjoyed it. Miss Snider was Gladys. Their teacher, Mary Jackson, was still suffering from laryngitis some. Mrs. Therodre Jernigan visited Mrs. Annie C. Glover Sunday afternoon.

There will be a Deacons meeting Saturday night at the church at 7:00 P. M. All you Deacons be there and plan some more for our party because seeing that big pile of brick just makes us feel like things are going to go to work now.

Most of you know that Clarence, Myrtle, and Clarence Jr. Edwards had now moved down to Cherry Point now but did you know that they came back visiting Mr. Louis N. Godwin for the past holidays. They visited around right much while back.

Donald comes back with news on College life in Tennessee and says he found out that he didn't know anything. To us though it seems like B-plus is a pretty good grade to make on a Theme for a Freshman. Keep the good work up "Duck". Elbert Wade was also home Thursday and Friday from Winston-Salem to see his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Wade.

The Superintendent of Kennedy Home wrote a long letter of Thanks for Thanksgiving dinner Springs Branch furnished for the Orphans. They report that there was a total of 234 lbs. of chicken carried and 48 lbs. of sweet potatoes plus $11 in cash. It just makes us feel good to be helping out doesn't it?

Anybody wants ride? With Mr.

and Mrs. Eric Tart sporting a new Dodge about, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Wise with a new Pontiac, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Jackson with a new Mercury, Henry and Avis Willford and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gainey both driving new cars in beginning to look as if the junk dealers are having a lot of trades these days.

Miss Janet Stones spent Saturday night and came to Sunday School with her Grandfather Mr. John Stones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gorrell came down last week to visit Mrs. Viola Strickland and if anyone doesn't recognize the name Gorrell, well its none other than Jessie Besse and her husband.

Mrs. Archie Lee Sr. as we all know hasn't been well lately but we were glad to learn that she has been feeling better the past week and hopes she will continue to do so.

Mrs. Gilbert, what's this we hear about a trip to Florida? So you are going to St. Petersburg with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Campbell to a Conference of Southern Colleges! How nice and how lucky for you, just have a big time and bring us back a souvenir.

The Y. W. A. met Sunday afternoon at 2:00 P. M. with Misses Lillian and Loreta Bowman. The meeting was called to order by the vice-President in the absence of the president. The Business was discussed which included plans for Christmas and also for the Study-course and The Week Of Prayer. The program was then presented by Joyce Lee on Missions and Y. W. A. Book Club. The meeting was dismissed to meet again on Monday night after the second Sunday in December with Misses Mary Jackson and Vivian Tart at their apartment on S. Wilson Avenue in Dunn. The hostesses served de-

NAVY PREFERRED
CORUNNA, Mich. — (AP) — The Shiawassee County draft board has located a missing 19-year-old draftee but to no avail. Arthur Woodward, sought by the board for induction since last December, is in the Navy. He has been stationed at Guam for the last six months.

ABE USUALLY RIGHT
PORTLAND, Me. — (AP) — Police here are firm believers in psychology. In the headquarters room where prisoners are questioned hangs a sign reading: "No man has a good enough memory to be a successful liar—Lincoln."

NOT GOOD ENOUGH
GAFFNEY, S. C. — (AP) — Magistrate James M. Bridges says he has now heard them all. A 25-year-old defendant told Bridges he got intoxicated eating banana pudding.

Delicious banana sandwiches, variety cookies, candy and Pepsi cola to 8 old members and 1 new member, Ann Dixon.

Mary Lou and Shirley Marie were very fortunate to get to go to the Kennedy Home and spend the day. They saw and chatted with the girl whom the Intermediate G. A. correspond with, Lois Besse. They had dinner at the Orphanage and looked over the grounds and just wonder how they would like milking that cow that gave 11 gallons of milk a day!

It still seems good to see Frank around and Corby home for the weekends and also Stanley too.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stones went up to Oxford this weekend to visit Della and Troy Carter. Since Troy has become a highway patrolman and they have moved to Oxford we bet that Jerry has to get him another girl friend now?

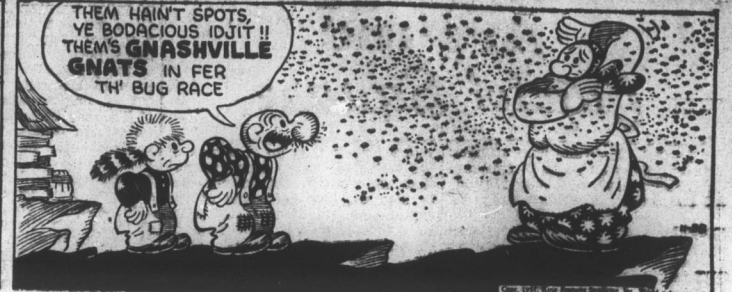

Both Intermediate and Jr. G. A. met this morning and so did the R. A. and the Sun Beams so that takes in where the children were during the last phase of Sunday School this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Seawell and Miss Louise Wester of Durham were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Glover last Wednesday. Miss Lola Glover and Miss Daffney Clark of Raleigh and Tarboro, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Glover of Dunn spent Thanksgiving day with Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Glover. We hear that Ervin and Geridine found they had to much turkey for just 3 and so they shared it. Wouldn't mind sampling it myself.

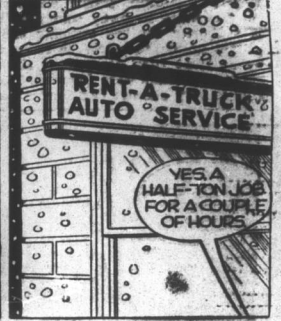

Don't forget Preaching Sunday and till then, I'll be seeing you.
