These three boys played big parts in the winning of the county championship last year, and they will be cagers that the opposition will have plenty of trouble stopping this year. "Shoeless" Joe Jackson Dies At The Age Of 62

GREENVILLE, S. C. — "Shoeless" Joe Jackson, 62, key figure in baseball's 1919 "Black Sox" scandal and the man called "the greatest hitter that ever lived" by Ty Cobb, died last night of a heart attack.

Banished from baseball for life as an outgrowth of the scandal, Jackson insisted until the last day of his life that "deep down in my heart I know I'm innocent."

Jackson and six other Chicago White Sox teammates were placed on baseball's ineligible list after the 1919 World Series with Cincinnati. Their banishment followed a famous trial in which it was charged the White Sox "threw" the series.

Jackson's family said he died about 45 minutes after he became ill. His last words were "This is it, Goddy."

Mrs. Gertrude McKenzie, Jackson's sister, said the scandal was never discussed by members of the family because "we had faith in Joe and we knew he had done nothing wrong."

He is survived by his widow, Katie; two sisters, Mrs. McKenzie and Mrs. R. W. Ellis of Savannah, Ga.; and five brothers, Dave, Jerry, Earl, Ernest and Luther, all of Greenville.

Although acquitted of conspiracy, Jackson, a slugging outfielder who had a lifetime batting average of

.356 for 10 years in the big league never was reinstated.

Deacons Entertain State In Gore Gym

WAKE FOREST. — North Carolina State invades Gore Gymnasium; one of the few basketball courts where the Wolfpack has lost more games than it has won, here tonight.

While undefeated State, winner of five Southern Conference titles in a row, will be heavily favored, Coach Everett Case fears a possible upset at the hands of Wake Forest's young squad. Chase said he is "far from satisfied" with the showing of the Wolfpack in its games to date.

It will be the first time since 1949 that State has played here. In 1947 and again in 1949, the Deacons upset the Wolfpack on the Gore hardwood. State won the only other game it has played here, in 1948.

State, victor over Furman and Davidson by impressive scores, will be out for its third conference victory. But Case said "we can't expect to keep winning unless we improve."

Harry Matthews Wins Over Nardico In Cleveland Bout

CLEVELAND. — In an eight heavyweight contender Harry Matthews, fresh from victory over Danico Nardico in Cleveland's best-attended "Topshop" boxing show, announced today he would campaign for the heavyweight crown.

Matthews of Seattle, 175 pounds, used smart boxing and terrific body blows to win the unanimous 10-round decision over slugger Nardico of Tampa, Fla., 176, before 13,413 at the Cleveland Arena last night.

Despite this victory, Matthews and his manager, Jack Hurley declared they had given up hope of getting a title shot at light heavyweight champion Joey Maxim and they would go gunning for Jersey Joe Walcott's heavy crown.

At Santa Rosa, Calif., Maxim's manager, Jack Kearns, denied today that the champion was running away from Matthews.

Matthews, 29, achieved his 66th consecutive victory; but as a 4-1 favorite, he had more difficulty than was expected. He made the mistake of trying to slug with explosive Danny in the early rounds. As a result Matthews was rocked several times in the third session.

Shrewd Hurley advised him to concentrate on boxing at long range after the third, and by the ninth round, Nardico was so well beaten that two right smashes to the body almost crumpled him.

Kentucky Gets Pre-Season Vote

UP Board Of Coaches Place Illinois 2nd, N. C. State Gets 7th

BY EARL WRIGHT (UP Sports Writer)

NEW YORK (AP) — The University of Kentucky basketball team today was voted most likely to win the 1951-52 national championship by the leading college coaches who make up the United Press rating board.

In their preseason estimate, 32 of the coaches chose Adolph Rupp's NCAA champions to wind up the coming season just where they finished in the final 1950-51 balloting — on top.

Kentucky received 345 out of a possible 500 points after collecting 30 first-place votes, two second-place and one fourth-place ballot. Under the ranking system, a first-place vote is worth 10 points, a second-place vote nine, and so on down to one point for a 10th place ballot.

Illinois, which finished fourth in the final ratings last spring, was picked to take runner-up honors. The defending Big Ten champions received two first-place votes but scored heavily on second and third-place votes for a total of 167 points.

TEAM FROM FAR & WIDE — Coach Tippy Dye's University of Washington team was ranked third, receiving 165 points; Oklahoma A & M, the defending Missouri Valley Conference champion, which wound up second in the final ratings last season, was placed fourth with 151 points; and

St. John's University of Brooklyn was given fifth place ranking with 152 points. St. Louis, other first-place vote, is ranked sixth with 113 points, and Carolina State was close behind with 111 and Kansas took eighth place with 95.

Wyoming received 72 points for sixth place, and Kansas State, the defending Big Seven champion, slipped to seventh with 68 points. Kentucky in the NAA final, rounded out the top 10 choices with 55 points. Coaches who make up the 1951-52 United Press basketball rating board include Everett N. Case, North Carolina State; E. A. Diddle, Western Kentucky; Adolph Rupp, Kentucky; Tom Scott, North Carolina; and Cliff Wells, Tulane.

Yankees And Cards Agree To Ban Widespread Broadcasts Next Year

Other Major Teams Expected To Comply With Minor Demand

BY LEO H. PETERSEN (UP Sports Editor)

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — The relief which the minor baseball leagues claim they need for survival appeared to be forthcoming today. They seemed to have convinced the major leagues that without their help they were doomed.

The first to fall in line with what the minors want were the New York Yankees, who announced restrictions in the radio broadcasting and telecasting of their home games next season. The St. Louis Cardinals quickly followed suits, announcing they again would restrict the broadcasting of their games within their trade area and home network.

It meant that the Yankees no longer would sell broadcasting rights for national hookups. There were indications that other clubs would follow the policy of the Yankees and Cardinals.

Only one club, the Chicago White Sox, appeared to be committed to broadcasting their games on national networks. Gordon McLendon, president of the Liberty Broadcasting System, said Liberty had contracted with the White Sox to broadcast their games for the next three years.

MORE MINOR MOVES — This minors were expected to adopt today an amendment which would abolish the 24-hour recall of players, contending that it is a que teams to have their star players recalled in mid-season. But even if the minors adopt it and passage appeared to be assured, the majors must ratify the action. The minors also were expected to adopt amendments:

1. Providing for an "open" classification minor league, which eventually would permit the Pacific Coast League to become a major league.

2. Granting professional baseball the right to approach high school players before they are graduated so they will be able to compete for the services of high school athletes on the same basis as other professional sports.

3. Condemning the major league clubs which run excursions from minor league territory to their home games.

Dunn Cagers Working Hard For Opener

Coach Paul Wagoner is working the Dunn High boys daily at 4 p.m. at a rapid pace in an effort to whip-up a ball club that will uphold the honor of the local school on the hardwood. The rapid pace is most necessary since the coach is working with a group of boys who want to be cage stars, but they are new boys on the case and who are far from stars as of now.

There are only thirteen boys out for the squad, as compared to 40 girls who are trying out for the local soccer, and that doesn't give the coach many boys to choose from. Most of these boys have good natural ability, although there is a lack of speedsters, and even though the coach is not too optimistic, the Greenways may develop into a scrappy bunch who will give all comers trouble.

The only experienced player on the squad is the coach's son Tommy who has just finished carrying the load through the grid season. Tommy played out the '50 season as a top-notch reserve, but as the service breath got hot on the heels of some of the star Greenies and they joined the service early in the season, Tommy moved into the lineup and played outstanding ball for the remainder of the season. He was the leading scorer during the final games.

Claude Pope was on the varsity last season, but Claude didn't see much action. Some of the boys played in the 1950 season help considerably, but about half of the boys are really green at the game.

With the opening game only a week away, there'll be no let-up for Greenways from now on. The coach says the boys don't even know the fundamentals yet, but they'll know them by next Thursday night.

THE FOOTBALL CORNER

Dick Dunkel's COLLEGE FOOTBALL POWER INDEX EXPLANATION — The Power Index provides a direct comparison of the relative strength of any two teams for this season to date. It is a 50-point scale in which average season margin has been weighed against strength of opposition. However, this does not mean that a 50-0 team should defeat a 0-10 team by 10 points in the future, because the relative loss has been adjusted for such. Inevitable favoring factors as home team advantage, injuries, lineup changes, etc. Therefore, they are not to be construed in any way as gambling information. The Dunkel system correlates records of all college teams and was started in 1937.
