Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr. vice-president and chairman of the Program Committee was then presented against a background of maroon draperies was a long table draped in light blue satin on which was a lighted cross flanked on either side by seven branch brass candelabras holding white lighted tapers. "Think of Jesus and the women who called him: My Son, My Teacher, My Friend, My Saviour." Mary of Nazareth GAVE a son, GAVE him care, GAVE him sheltering arms in danger, GAVE him in loyalty in death. A Mary in Bethany though criticized, sat at the feet of the Master, QUESTIONING, LISTENING, LEARNING, RECRUITING. Mary of Jerusalem gave her upper room to be used by Jesus and his friends, and there was Mary Magdalene, first member and first messenger of the church of the Living Christ. Four women, who gave, who learned, who won others, who belonged to the four Marys.

The parts of the four Marys were most effectively presented by four members of the Youth Division dressed in biblical costumes.
