

Woman's Club Has Enjoyable Program

The American Home Committee, composed of Mrs. A. B. Johnson, chairman, Mrs. J. R. Denny and Mrs. C. I. Thompson, presented an enjoyable program to members of the Dunn Woman's Club Tuesday afternoon in the Home Economics Department of the Dunn High School.

Mrs. Alene Mintz, Home Service Representative for the Carolina Power and Light Company, spoke to the club on "Christmas Decorations That We Can Use." She pointed out and showed how homes could be decorated in a very inexpensive way through the use of our native shrubs, holly and berries. She stressed the creating of original decorations. In other words she said, "Make Your Own Merry Christmas." She urged that we practice safety with our lighting.

Decorative arrangements for the dining table and other types of tables, mantels, and walls, and nativity scenes were shown. One of the most beautiful and impressive arrangements was a dining table centered with a birthday cake in honor of the birthday of Jesus. This demonstration, sponsored by the Woman's Club, was presented to all of the Home Economics classes of the high school Home Economics teachers throughout the county were invited also. The second year Home Making classes of the Home Economics Department baked the delicious cookies and made the punch which was served at this meeting.

Mrs. Pat Lynch, Jr., president, presided during a brief business meeting. Mrs. Davis Catlett read the minutes. Mrs. H. C. Turlington read a letter from the Office of Defense Mobilization asking that all women help fight inflation by being economical in their spending and to save as much as possible.

Mrs. Willie Moff Hostess To Ace Of Clubs

The Ace of Clubs Bridge Club was graciously entertained last night at the home of Mrs. Willie Moff on N. General Lee Ave. at 8:00.

The spacious Moff home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the Christmas motif being carried out. Lovely arrangements of white and red carnations and red roses were used in the home.

The tables for the dessert bridge were attractively arranged with red burning candles encircled with red berries and holly. A delicious dessert course of ice cream topped with strawberries, green cocoanut balls, nuts and coffee were served members upon arrival. During play cheese biscuits and soft drinks were passed.

Recipient of high score for the evening went to Mrs. Earl Jones who received a set of costume jewelry. Mrs. Earl Jones received trophies for second high. Hostess trays went to Mrs. James Yearby for traveling prize.

Members enjoying the evening were Mrs. Al Wullenwaber, Mrs. James Snipes, Mrs. Joe Ruark, Mrs. Earl Jones, Mrs. James Yearby, Mrs. L. B. Pope, Jr., Mrs. Frank Belote and Mrs. Dwight Mattox.
