The Dunn Chapter No. 59, Order of the Eastern Star, held a regular meeting in the Masonic Temple Monday night, December 10th with the following officers present: Worthy Matron, Inez Strickland, Worthy Patron, O. M. Leslie; Associate Matron, Elizabeth O'Connell; Associate Patron, H. Paul Strickland; Secretary, Sarah Wilson; Treasurer, Louise Alabaster; Conductress, Sarah Andrews; Associate Conductress, Grace Hodges; Chaplain, Lillian Lee; Marshals, Frances Surles; Organist, Sally Jernigan; Adah, Margaret Doffermyre; Margaret Chaulk; Esther Ebel Wade; Martha, Cleon Jackson Electa; Thetis Duncan; Wardens, Irene Tart; Sentinel, Annie Mae Rice, P. T.

The Worthy Matron, Mrs. Inez Strickland, opened the meeting in regular form. The flags were presented, the pledge given and prayer sung.

Minutes were read for information by Mrs. Sarah Wilson, Secretary. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Louise Alabaster.

An announcement was made that our District Deputy Matron will make her official visit to us on the first regular meeting night in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drew were initiated into Dunn Chapter in a beautiful and expressive ceremony which was concluded by the inspiring Worthy Patron's address, presented by Mr. Hugh Prince, Associate Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina, O. E. S. and Past Patron of Dunn Chapter.

The Chapter room was beautifully decorated with flowers and Christmas motifs. Mr. Joe Leslie, Worthy Patron, beautifully presented the new members with Bibles as gifts from the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, after which Mr. and Mrs. Drew were warmly welcomed into the chapter.

Correspondence was read and reports were given by committee chairmen.

The chapter gave Mrs. Annie Mae Rice a raising vote of thanks for all the good work she has done as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Mrs. Frances Surles, Marshall, called the chapter from labor to ease. Then all members gathered around the piano and sang Christmas carols. Mrs. Cleon Jackson entertained everyone with an original skit about Christmas shopping.

Mr. H. Paul Strickland, Associate Patron reported on his visit to the institution of the Red Springs Chapter. Mrs. Thetis Duncan reported on her visit to Fayetteville Chapter and Mr. Hugh Prince reported on his visit to Southgate Chapter.

The meeting was closed in regular form.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Jr. Women Hear Mrs. Mintz On Christmas Ideas

The Junior Womens Club held their monthly meeting in the Home Economics Department of the High School Tuesday night at 8:00.

Mrs. Paul White, Club president presided over a short business session after which the meeting was turned over to Mrs. C. M. Watson chairman of the fine arts committee who had charge of the program. Mrs. Watson introduced Mrs. Aileen Mintz representative of T. E. & L. Co. who gave demonstrations on the many attractive ways to make Christmas decorations for the home, to add a gay touch to packages and for the outdoors.

Mrs. C. I. Thompson served delicious refreshments of punch and cookies that were made by the home economic students. Mrs. L. Stephens assisted Mrs. Thompson in serving.

Around twenty-six members were present for the affair.

Miss Coats Feted At Dinner Party At Reinlyn House

A beautifully appointed dinner party was given at the Reinlyn House in Raleigh last night in honor of Miss Adelaide Coats, bride-elect, of Richard Monds.

Hostesses for the affair were Miss Patsy Cromartie of Dunn and Meredith College and her mother Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr.

Upon arrival the honoree was presented a lovely corsage of white carnations and a silver percolator from the hostesses.

Guests found their places at the table with bridal placecards, the table was beautifully arranged with a Christmas note being carried out, red burning tapers tied with tinsel and decked with bells was used.

At the head of the table angel hair, candles and Christmas balls in gay colors made a lovely arrangement.

The delicious dinner consisted of orange juice cocktail with lime sherbert, tossed salad, sugar cured ham, raisin sauce, garden peas, candied yams, hot rolls, coffee and a dessert of spice cake with egg-nog ice cream and chocolate syrup.

Those attending the delightful affair were Miss Coats, Miss Cromartie, Mrs. Cromartie, Miss Pat Johnson, Miss Nancy Abernathy, Miss Rita Fleishman, Mrs. Charles Levinson of Durham, Miss Isabel Naylor, Miss Betty Lou Bell of Benson, Mrs. Leonard Monds, mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. L. FFA Chapter Has Banquet

The Lillington chapter of the Future Farmers of America entertained fathers of the members at a father-son banquet on Wednesday night at the Lillington Community House, which attracted around 90 guests.

County Superintendent of Schools G. T. Proffitt who was the guest speaker praised the improvement in farm practices that have come as a result of instruction in the school-sponsored classes in vocational agriculture. He was introduced by John H. Blackman, Lillington vocational agriculture teacher, who was in charge of the dinner arrangements.

The Rev. T. W. Williams pastor of the Lillington Baptist Church gave the invocation and special guests recognized included Dr. A. W. Peede, Carl Kelly, members of the Lillington school board, D. B. Dean, veterans farming instructor, H. H. Hamilton, Lillington school principal and Bob Bowder of Sanford, N. C. State College student who practice teaching this fall in the Lillington vocational training department.

A barbecued chicken and pork supper was served and dinner music was rendered by Mrs. W. E. Moore, organist.

BROCK TOASTMASTER

Roy Brock, president of the Lillington chapter of the Future Farmers of America, served as toastmaster and the welcome address was given by Hill Murchison, chapter vice-president. Floyd Allen of Bunnlevel responded for the fathers who were guests of the chapter.

Other chapter officers include Bennie Coats, secretary; Billy Allen, reporter; Jimmy McDonald, treasurer, and Junior Smith, sentinel.

Music was rendered by a string trio composed of Stacy Raeford and George Whittington.

An added feature was the showing of colored slides of crop scenes made this summer by Blackman who explained the improved practices represented. He was assisted in the showing by Billy Allen.

SUFFERS ATTACK

Mrs. Obie L. Surles, a former resident of Dunn who makes her home with her daughter, Dr. Doris Surles Woodbury in St. Louis, Mo., recently suffered a severe heart attack and is now a patient at the Deaconess Hospital in St. Louis.
