Kid Gavilan Gets K.O. Over Cartier; May Battle Turpin

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba was in line today for a middleweight challenger's battle with Randy Turpin of England in March because of his Caribbean-hurricane finish Friday night as he stopped Walter Cartier in the 10th round at Madison Square Garden.

His terrific finish in the last scheduled round against the heavier New Yorker apparently saved dusky Gavilan from defeat; for he was behind in the official scoring before he achieved his technical knockout at 1:31 of the tenth session.

Referee Ruby Goldstein stopped the bout as brown-haired Cartier tried to rise from the canvas, where a right to the chin had sprawled him sideways. Cartier—with blood seeping from his nose, mouth and left brow—had taken such a battering that he was befuddled and helpless before he went down for the lone knockdown of the bout.

Shortly before the knockdown Cartier had tried to walk away to the ropes, as if seeking safety from Gavilan's machine-gun attack.

CAME FROM BEHIND
 The Cuban "Keed" was well behind in the scoring when he started his magnificent rally in the eighth round and increased its pace in the ninth and 10th sessions.

Cartier, taking advantage of his weight margin—150½ pounds to Gavilan's 151—forced the fighting in nearly every session and threw straight right body smashes followed by left hooks to the head that slowed Gavilan and caused him to bend low to escape punishment from the fourth to eighth round.

The sleety-night crowd of 6,253 that was booing Gavilan's bending tactics in the middle going gave him an enthusiastic ovation as he ended Cartier's winning streak at 20 straight and tagged him with the fifth kayo and the sixth defeat in his career of 44 fights. For Gavilan, it was the 15th consecutive bout in which he was unbeaten although he had been held to a draw by Johnny Bratton Nov. 28.

AMERICANS TURN AGAINST SOCIALIZED ELECTRICITY

A RECENT NATIONWIDE POLL BY OPINION RESEARCH CORPORATION SHOWS THAT MOST AMERICANS TODAY WANT THEIR ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER TO COME FROM LOCAL BUSINESS-MANAGED COMPANIES — NOT FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT. HERE ARE SOME REASONS WHY AMERICANS FEEL THAT WAY.

DEFENSE NEEDS FIRST! PEOPLE WANT UNNECESSARY GOVERNMENT SPENDING STOPPED TO SAVE THEIR TAX DOLLARS FOR AMERICA'S DEFENSES.

GREAT WASTE
 THE FEDERAL POWER PROGRAM INCLUDES BUILDING COSTLY TRANSMISSION LINES THAT WOULD DUPLICATE THE LINES OF BUSINESS-MANAGED COMPANIES. AMERICANS SAY, "LET'S NOT WASTE MANPOWER, MONEY AND MATERIAL ON SOCIALISTIC POWER PROJECTS."

IT'S SOCIALISM! THAT'S WHAT PEOPLE SAY ABOUT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OWNING AND OPERATING THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER BUSINESS.

DOUBLED IN 10 YEARS!
 IN PEACE AND WAR, AMERICA'S VAST ELECTRIC POWER NEEDS HAVE BEEN WELL FILLED BY THE NATION'S BUSINESS-MANAGED COMPANIES. THEY'VE MORE THAN DOUBLED THE SUPPLY SINCE 1941 AND THEY'RE BUILDING A LOT MORE THAT ONLY A SHORTAGE OF MATERIALS CAN HOLD UP.
