Tea And Topics Club Meets With Mrs. Byrd

An illustrated talk on "Favorite Madonnas" highlighted the December meeting of the Lillington Tea and Topics study club which met on Friday night with Mrs. W. P. Byrd.

Mrs. A. M. Shaw spoke briefly on how the adoration of the Virgin Mary, the Mother of Christ, grew in the first century of the Christian Church and how the likeness of Mary, or the Madonna, has been the inspiration of some of the world's finest paintings.

From 30 of the world's favorite madonnas, Mrs. Shaw selected 18 from almost as many different countries for presentation to the club. The fact that in every century and in almost every country artists have painted the Virgin and Her Child in settings and with physical characteristics similar to the artist's own nationality serves but to emphasize, the speaker said, "the universal appeal of the Christian faith."

Mrs. W. R. Cranford, the president, presided and Mrs. W. B. Hunter served as secretary. At the social hour, ambrosia, cake and coffee were served.

The coffee table, arranged in the hall, was decorated with twin arrangements of holly in brass containers and lighted by green candles. A lighted madonna candle burned on the mantel in the living room and holly, candles and other holiday decorations were used throughout the home.

Mrs. Ralph Izard, Mrs. W. A. Johnson and Miss Adelaide and Margaret Shaw were guests and members present were Mrs. Cranford, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. John W. Spears, Mrs. J. N. Fuquay, Mrs. B. Gentry, Mrs. Neill McLaughlin, Mrs. Joel G. Layton, Mrs. S. R. McKay and the hostess.

$100 is paid, $75 restitution made to the owner of the car Williams struck, and court costs cleared.

"Let the first payment start on February 15," suggested Roks. The judge compromised. "Let them begin in January," he ordered.

Ernest McLeod, Harnett county Negro, had testified that as he stopped at a stop light on his way to Dunn, Williams, driving a pickup truck jammed him from the rear and kept on going. McLeod said he notified the highway patrol. Williams, a former Harnett County resident, offered the judge a few words about the cause of it all. He was on a visit to relatives end of the 30-day trial (one-year trial period) Dec. 31.

The primitive subcommittee trying to arrange an exchange of prisoners recessed indefinitely Tuesday after exchanging lists of prisoners held by both sides. The Communists listed 11,500 names, including 2,198 Americans, and said the prisoners were held in 11 North Korean camps.

It was agreed that the subcommittee would meet again after both sides had an opportunity to study the two lists. A meeting was arranged tentatively for 11 a. m. Thursday (6 p. m. Wednesday EST).

Dunn's Fluoride Program Gets OK

City Manager Oliver O. Manning announced this morning that the State Board of Health has given the Town of Dunn permission to go ahead with its program to add fluoride to the city water supply.

Several adjustments will have to be made, however, and it will probably be about six months before the change takes place, the official said.

Manning and Water Plant Operator Eddice King conferred in Raleigh yesterday with W. J. McKinmon and E. F. Hubbard of the State department.

The amount raised represents only about half of the quota, and those who have received seals are urged to make their returns as soon as possible.
