

COATS HAPPENINGS

By CLYDE BRYAN

The annual Christmas party of the Adult classes of the Coats Baptist Sunday School, which includes the Fidels, the Ruth Eller Class, and the Baraca class gave held at the Community House on Tuesday evening Dec. 13. The members of these classes and their husbands or wives as the case may be were invited to unite in an hour of Christian fellowship.

On Wednesday evening at seven thirty the Coats Baptist Sunday School gave its regular Christmas program. All members of the Sunday School were urged to attend.

Sunday December 23rd. at 7:30 P. M. the Baptist Church choir will give a program of Christmas music. This should be a much inspiring program. Make your plans to be present and invite your friends.

Friends of Mrs. M. O. Phillips were glad to see her at Sunday School Sunday after having been absent for some time on account of illness.

Miss Mattie Bain who has been recuperating from a broken shoulder at the home of her brother Dr. C. D. Bain in Dunn was the guest of Mrs. J. R. Butler at a luncheon Wednesday, after which she was the recipient of many lovely presents at a surprise birthday party at her home. A host of her friends gathered to wish her a happy birthday and welcome her back to her home in Coats after being away for several weeks.

The Coats School closed for the holidays on Dec. 19, at one o'clock. It will open for classes again on December 31st.

Several of the Coats teachers are going to spend their Christmas holidays touring Florida. Among them are Miss Phyllis Buckner, Miss Bertha Westbrook, Mr. James Valsame, and Mr. Coyte Lanier.

Mrs. Nell Williams, of the Coats faculty will spend the holidays with friends in Atlanta Ga.

Mr. Cecil Fuquay, who is making his home at Carolina Beach, is spending a few days at Coats.

The Coats P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium on Thursday evening Dec. 13, at seven thirty o'clock. A program of Christmas music was rendered by the members of the eight grade classes, sponsored by Mrs. Mattie Highwill and Mrs. Ray Coon. The High School Band played several numbers. An unusually large number of parents attended. During the social hour refreshments were served. Mrs. Mary Stephenson and Mrs. Nell Williams were hostesses. An Art exhibit was displayed in the main entrance hall from throughout the school.

TWO SETS OF TWINS IN THIS FAMILY—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Tart, who reside near Lillington, are the proud parents of two sets of twins. Mr. and Mrs. Tart are pictured here with the twins. The oldest are Ronald and Brenda, age 16, and the youngest are Gwin and Quinn, who are one-year-old. As you can see, it's a mighty fine looking family. (Daily Record Photo by T. M. Stewart.)

Most of the work was related to the Christmas Season. Much interest was shown by the parents in this very fine exhibit.

Mr. Kelly, County Coordinator of Education spent Friday visiting the different classrooms in the Coats School.

Miss Eva Bateman spent Friday night and Saturday in Raleigh. Miss Lucille Allen and Mr. Maton Upchurch Sr. visited friends in Middlesex Sunday.

Outstanding Quality
one more reason why John Deere is first choice of the tractor-wise!
Only after meeting exacting standards in all phases of production is the name John Deere attached to a John Deere product. Because of this, the name John Deere has become synonymous with quality the country over.
All the way through, quality controls production. Raw materials are tested thoroughly and analyzed completely to assure uniformly high quality throughout. Proved manufacturing methods are used by experienced workmen, but that's not enough. In every phase of construction, quality inspections and tests are frequent and many. Tolerances are checked constantly; parts are inspected carefully. Even after the final assembly, every tractor is tested thoroughly before it is shipped.
What does this mean to you? Just this—every John Deere Tractor is quality-built through and through, assuring more dependable performance, greater economy, and longer life.
In addition, John Deere Tractors offer:
OUTSTANDING ECONOMY
GREATER DEPENDABILITY
LONGER LIFE
GREATER COMFORT
EASIER HANDLING
EASIER MAINTENANCE
COMPLETE INTEGRAL EQUIPMENT
UNEXCELLED VIEW
GREATER ADAPTABILITY
