Officials Urge Coffee, No Rum For Road Safety

RALEIGH — That "one for the road" should be coffee or some other hot, non-alcoholic beverage, a motor vehicle official suggested today to holiday-eager citizens. L. S. Harris, executive director of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, explained that records of traffic deaths during holidays has prompted coining of the term "alcohol holidays."

"If those who entertain would feel their responsibilities to their guests and serve coffee as the last round, I am sure more of the guests would stand a better chance of arriving home more safely than if they had one more of

Carols echoing sweet and clear—
Frosty stars that lean to hear;
A parlor-tree all tinsel-shine,
Up in the woods, a star-tipped pine;
Greeting cards in a merry shower—
A sweetly solemn midnight hour
When a simple tale and an age-old hymn
Usher the King of Christmas in;
Rebirth of love—new hope for peace—
And a miracle to make war cease—
Let's all wish this for Christmas!
