LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl 8 years old. I help my mother do the house work. I want you to bring a tea-set and a sewing machine, a baby book and some crayons. Please bring my sister a paint book and some crayons. I help my mother with the house work. I love you dear Santa.

With love, Mary Smith Rt. 2, Box 41 Lillington.

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl 7 years old. I want you to bring me a baby doll, tea-set, and a sewing machine, baby book and some crayons. Please bring my sister a paint book and some crayons. I help my mother with the house work. I love you dear Santa.

With love, Lillie Mae Smith Rt. 2, Box 41 Lillington, N. C.

2. Bunnlevel, Rt 1 and Linden, N. C. In most localities the names Bunnlevel and Linden are common. On the Daily Record subscription list there are only 8 Bunnlevels and the same number of Lindens.

This will probably be the last column I shall write before Christmas. I want to take this opportunity to thank the men and women and children "Along the Routes" and everywhere else in the four counties who have helped me in my un-pleasant but very happy way they have been receiving me. I wish you and yours a very merry and blessed Christmas.

Dear Santa Claus, Would you please bring me a bride doll, a doctor set, rain coat and boots, and if you have any thing else extra, you may leave it too. I'm trying to be good. Thank you for what you brought me last year.

With love, Jeanette Rowles 307 E. Cleveland St. Dunn, N. C.

P. S. Please don't forget my little sister, Kay. (She wants a talking doll).

Dear Santa Claus, For Christmas I want a bicycle and I want it blue and white.

And I want a record player and some records. And I want a "baby carriage" and a "baby doll. And a surprise. I want my grandmother to have a watch. And I want some fruit. P. S. You will have a gift, too.

With Love, Pamela Jo Griffith 506 S. Orange Ave. Dunn, N. C.

*If you think I need another one.

Hello Santa, I am a girl 14 years old and I go to Bunnlevel School. I like to go to school. I have not been to school in about 4 weeks because I have been in the hospital. Santa I want you to bring me a billfold, beads, suit and dress and I have a sister 7 years old. She wants a doll, a tea-set, doll clothes. Please don't forget the other boys and girls in my room at school and hope they have a happy Christmas.

Dear Santa, Please bring a nurse set, a wash register, and a typewriter to Lillian. Alene wants a doll and a Toni set for the doll. Shelley wants a didie doll and a bottle to go with it. Please, Santa, bring all of this to us if you can. We will be looking for you.

Dear Santa Claus, Please bring me a doll and a doll carriage and a bicycle. Love, Snooks Pruitt

Along The Routes By John Fallett

Last week one man who lives along RR 3 told me that, although he has a bathroom in his house and an electric pump to keep it in operation, his well is so low that he cannot use his modern plumbing. I felt sorry for him and a little smug over the fact that there was plenty of water in my bathroom in Bules Creek.

Well, this column almost didn't get itself written because I had to thaw out one of the pipes just when I was settling down to a session with the typewriter. My wife says she is going to get a big kick out of writing her family up North about her husband using an electric heating pad to thaw out a frozen pipe in sunny Carolina.

So the weather is cold. At least we haven't had any of the snow they talk about on the radio. And I've been invited into a lot of warm kitchens and received a lot of warm and friendly courtesies from Harnett County people to make up for the cold outside.

For friendly baby of the week I nominate George Francis Glover, Jr., aged two, who lives with his parents on the old Fair Ground Road. I thank him for the Donald Duck book he insisted on giving me, but I had read it before and so left it at his house.

I also want to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Wood, who live along that same road, upon their first wedding anniversary on December 20. I celebrated my first anniversary less than a month ago. The Wood's rambling farmhouse with its shrubby covered with bright red berries and its lordly turkeys strutting about would make a perfect Christmas card picture even without snow.

They told me along RD 3 that the Howard Williams pig which was pictured last week in The Daily Record furnished 6 1/2 pounds of lard and 150 pounds of sausage. The Williams family should live high this winter. I wonder if I could claim any of that good sausage on the strength of my having a cousin in West Virginia who is also named Howard Williams?

Speaking of similarity of names, I met so many Lees and Butlers near Lee's Grove Church that I decided to check recurring family names in the Daily Record subscription file. Here is what I found. The Johnsons are by far the most numerous of all with 43 representatives. The Byrds and Godwins come next with 28 each. After them are the Tarts with 27, followed by the Lees and the Jacksons, both good Confederate names, with 25 each. The Smiths usually near the top of such a list trail the above with 22. After them are the Barbs with 20, the Ferrissans, the Stewarts, and the Turletons, with 19 each, and the Williams with 18. ALL IN THIS ONE COMMUNITY. The Parkers, who fall behind the Matthews, the Pops, and the Warrens, nevertheless offer one oddity, three Parkers with the same initials: A. B. Parkers of Benson, R.
