GREENSBORO — The Guilford County tax department carefully filed a receipt today made out to "Man, A Honest."

"A Honest Man" sent the department two one-dollar bills with a pencilled note explaining he did not pay his one-dollar poll tax when he was 21 and forgot it again when he was 50.

NEW TYPE LANDING STRIP—Sitting snugly in the Cape Fear River is this Aerocor sedan plane which had to make a forced landing Thursday morning due to the heavy ice on its wings. Occupants of the plane, Dick Stroup and Leon Stinson of Marysville, Washington, were enroute home from the New Jersey factory where they purchased the aircraft. Neither the plane nor its occupants were any the worse for the forced landing. (Daily Record Photo by T. M. Stewart.)

Godwin Social Happenings

The Young Ladies' Class of the Presbyterian Church gave a birthday party last week honoring Miss Barbara Graham on her 17th birthday. She received a lot of nice gifts. Ice cream and devil food cake was served.

Mr. Charlie Thornton is spending about two weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Collier were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Betty Ward is home after an emergency operation at the Dunn Hospital last Thursday. Betty's friends are happy that she is recovering so rapidly. Santa Claus visited Betty on his way back from the church program Sunday night and took her presents to her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bernstein of Goldsboro visited Mrs. Clyde McLellan Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Bernstein is the former Miss Daisy Culbreth.

Mr. T. C. Pate of Raleigh, N. C. visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Wilbur Thornton and baby daughter are home from Highsmith hospital, and both are doing nicely.

The W. S. C. S. met at Black's Chapel Church on Monday evening for their Christmas program. Mrs. Clyde McLellan presided. Mrs. G. R. Washburn had charge of the program. Mrs. Roger Collier and Mrs. Woodrow Starling made talks. Everyone received gifts from the Church presented a program of "Christmas in Song" with Rev. S. G. Dodson reading the scriptures at the regular third Sunday Service on last Sunday evening. Miss Joy McLellan and Mrs. S. G. Dodson sang "O Holy Night." Mrs. Dodson sang a solo, "Adore and Be Still." After the program Miss Eloise Connelly led the children in Christmas songs as Santa Claus entered the church to give out the gifts. He had fruit for all the children. A number of visitors were present.
