

Pruyn-Currin Wedding Vows Spoken This Afternoon In Raleigh Church

MRS. HAROLD ANDREW PRUYN before her marriage was Miss Billie Ruth Currin of Raleigh, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Benjamin Currin of Angier. Mr. Pruyne is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Merion Pruyne of Sidney, New York. The wedding took place today in the First Baptist Church of Raleigh.

Miss Billie Ruth Currin of Raleigh, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Benjamin Currin of Angier, became the bride of Harold Andrew Pruyne of Durham, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Merion Pruyne of Sidney, New York, in a ceremony at 4:00 o'clock today in the First Baptist Church in Raleigh. Dr. Broadus Jones, pastor of the church, officiated.

Dr. Harry E. Cooper, organist, presented the program of wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Alvin Benjamin Currin of Dunn, wore an original wedding gown of ivory satin designed by Maurer. The bodice had a yoke of illusion and bordered in seed pearls. The flared full skirt ended in a long circular train. Her imported illusion veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a "New Testament" covered with Amazon lilies and "Tudor" roses.

Mrs. Robert A. Currin of Broadway, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of royal velvet with a strapless bodice and shoulder capelet. The softly flared skirt fell from a pointed empire waist. She wore matching velvet gauntlets with gold tips at the wrists. Her train of velvet was fashioned into a wide bandeau with a tiny lace veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias, white roses and gypsophila, tied with white satin ribbons.

Miss Barbara Darlene Currin of Dunn and Hollins College, Virginia, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of royal-velvet like that of the maid of honor and carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias, white roses, and gypsophila.

The flower girl was Miss Martha Donald Currin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Currin of Angier, sister of the bride. Her dress of royal velvet was made with short puffed sleeves, boat neckline, and long-gathered skirt. She wore a headpiece similar to those of the other attendants and carried a cascade of small white flowers.

Dr. W. Mashburn of High Falls acted as best man. Others were William L. Bennett of Shelby, Chester D. Brown of High Falls, L. Gullford Daugherty of New Bern and Albert E. Williams of Durham. Miss Currin is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She received the degree of Master of Arts in Christian Education at Columbia University, New York City. She has also done graduate work at the Divinity School of Duke University. She was formerly campus student secretary at Duke University. Telephone...
