STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT OF STATE

PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the DUNN PRODUCE AUCTION MARKET, INC., a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the Town of Dunn, county of Harnett, State of North Carolina (E. E. Godwin, being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 53, General Statutes, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of Dissolution;

Now Therefore, I, Thad Eure, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 18th day of November, 1951, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 18th day of November, A. D. 1951.

THAD EURE

Connie 'Legend' Mack Celebrates Birthday; Daily Worker Is 89

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Connie Mack will be 89 years old tomorrow, but it wouldn't seem like a birthday without his annual get-together with the press.

The silver-haired Connie invited reporters to the Elephant Room at Shibe Park today and, true to pre-birthday tradition, sliced a big cake, posed for pictures and answered a multitude of questions.

Connie retired as manager 14 months ago after guiding his beloved white elephants to nine American League pennants and five world's championships. But as club president, his interest in baseball and particularly his Athletics, remains undimmed.

A picture of health and abounding in spirit and energy, Connie virtually ignores his age. He attends many social functions and doesn't miss a day at his office in the tower of Shibe Park.

CHRISTMAS TREE PARTY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Annual Christmas tree for the children of the Presbyterian Church was held last night at the Church.

Christmas carols were sung and the group enjoyed a beautiful Christmas story told by Mrs. Kenneth Royal, religious education director at the Church.

Santa Claus made his appearance at the end of the program and gave out bags of goodies in exchange for presents which the children gave him to distribute to needy children at Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Whittenton attended a dinner party in Raleigh last night.

Ezz Charles Gets Win Over Unknown

FORLAND, Ore. — (AP) — A smiling left hook by former heavyweight champion Ezz Charles knocked out farm boy Joe Kahn in the eighth round here last night.

Approximately 7,000 fans paid $21.50 to see the 138-pound Charles with the Western, Ore., veteran in a three-up fight in his campaign for a shot at heavyweight champ Jersey Joe Walcott.

Charles displayed a wealth of boxing skill, but Kahn landed the most solid blow.

The new satisfied Kahn was a tough guy to fight, but I did my best, Charles said in his dressing room.

Wellons Staff Hears Address By Attorney

After entertaining the employees of the Wellons Candy Company with humorous stories and anecdotes, attorney H. F. Seawell of Carthage, used the last few minutes of his time for a serious message.

At Christmas time in particular he said, the true American way of life concerns itself with going to church, and the worship of God. This, he said, is the hope of the nation.

Approximately 225 were present for the Christmas party held in the High School Cafeteria. They were served barbecued chicken, barbecued pork and fried chicken, by Griffin's of Goldsboro.

Employees who had been with the firm for three months or more were presented with bonus checks, the amount depending on their wage and length of employment.

Employees of the Wellons Mercantile Company were guests of the candy company at the event.

BROTHERS RECEIVE GIFTS

Employees of the Wellons Candy Company presented their employer with a new dictascraper, and the employees of Wellons Mercantile Company gave Billy Wellons a top hat.

The party concluded with an exchange of gifts among the employees. Each employee had drawn the name of a fellow-employee and these gifts were distributed.

Bill Marshburn acted as Master of Ceremonies, and the speaker for the occasion was introduced by a fellow-attorney, E. R. Williams. Johnny Wellons, in a few well chosen phrases, thanked his employees for their cooperation and loyalty during the year which is closing.

Holiday Weekend Has Quiet Start

The long holiday weekend is off to a good start if reports from law enforcement officers in the area are any indication. They express satisfaction over the fact that the season is starting quietly.

In Dunn, Chief of Police George Arthur Jackson reports that, except for the crowds in the Dunn shopping center, everything is remarkably quiet and arrests have been no more than for a normal Saturday.

Sheriff W. E. Salmon, also expressed himself as pleased with the situation today. He too reports crowds of shoppers in Lillington, but says that everyone is in good humor and inclined to give the other fellow a "break."

The Sheriff mentioned a conversation with one of the Highway Patrolmen stationed in Lillington and quoted the Patrolman as saying that, although there was a heavy amount of vacation traffic passing through Lillington, everyone seemed inclined to "take it easy."
