'Bright Victory' Praised For Tender Love Theme

"Bright Victory," the new Universal-International release which opens at the Dunn Theatre Sunday and plays through Tuesday, unfolds as one of the most tender and moving love stories to reach the screen in the past decade.
A timely and provocative theme that of a blinded war veteran and his heroic fight to return to a normal life, "Bright Victory" is played against a background of quiet courage, hope and the love of a veteran for an understanding girl.
In the leading role, Arthur Kennedy, former Broadway star now winning new fame in Hollywood, offers an emotionally stirring portrayal of a man facing a life of darkness. Wounded in North Africa during the Tunisian campaign of World War II, he returns to society as an embittered man to find, in the end, hope and courage to live a useful and enjoyable life.
Peggy Dow, who played the romantic lead in U-F's "Harvey" unfolds as a full-fledged star in her own right playing the feminine lead opposite Kennedy in "Bright Victory."
