DONNIE DYER
This young fellow who is so interested in his book is Donnie Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dyer. He has been in our school since last January. He didn't start until after Christmas because Mrs. Marks had no place for him to sit. Donnie is a handsome blonde with big blue eyes, and whatever he does, he tries to do very well. He is a hard worker, honest, sincere, and interested. He likes to read, which he does very well, too. His sister Judith Faye came to school over here for First Grade, and from reports we get, she is doing mighty fine in Grammar School, which makes us very happy.

Donnie likes picture shows, and he and his family go to see all the good ones. But Donnie told Mrs. Marks that he liked the shows we have over here every Friday, just as much as he did those at the regular shows. Thanks, Donnie, but we can't offer quite as much variety.

Donnie wanted a pony for Christmas, and we are waiting for school to begin on January 7, to find out if he got one. If he did, he has promised Mrs. Marks a ride — if the pony is big enough!

Everybody at school likes to play with Donnie, because he is unselfish and kind. He is a mighty good Lotto player, and makes nice buildings out of blocks, too.

Dance Is Given At Lillington

A formal dance was given on Christmas Eve night at the Lillington Community House by mothers of the Lillington students who are home from college for the holidays. Homecoming boys in the armed service who were in town for Christmas furloughs were special guests.

Approximately a dozen families cooperated in sharing expenses for the social function. A committee in charge of party arrangements was composed of Mrs. T. D. O'Quinn, Mrs. E. C. Gastineau, and Mrs. N. F. Lewis.

Dancing was by candlelight in the club lounge decorated with red tapers, greenery and varied holiday trimmings. Around 40 guests attended. Each college student had the privilege of inviting one guest.

A second dance patterned on the same plan will be given on Saturday night in the same place by the college boys and girls.

New Patrolmen Get Assignments
L. E. Daniels assigned to Fuquay Springs and Herman Ward assigned to Lillington were among the 26 graduates of the Highway Patrol's Training School in Chapel Hill who received their commissions at swearing-in ceremonies Friday. The rookie patrolmen were sworn in by Secretary of State Thad Eure.

The 26 new officers completed an intensive eight-week training course conducted by the Institute of Government for the Highway Patrol. They reported to their duty stations immediately after the ceremonies.

Two and one half hours of work a week are necessary to care for every 400 square feet of lawn, according to the University of California agricultural extension service.

Addition of the new brought the patrol strength to 520.

Heinz Adman Says DAILIES "INDISPENSABLE"

PHILADELPHIA — Food advertisers can do without radio or television, but they cannot exist without newspapers as their basic medium, Franklin A. Bell, advertising and public relations director of the H. J. Heinz Co., said here Nov. 1 at a meeting of the Philadelphia chapter, American Association of Newspaper Representatives.

"We have been combatting salesmen's pressure for use of radio and television," he stated. "They have been affected by the glamor of these media, but we told them a newspaper ad is more effective than 15 minutes of entertainment on television."

"We also told them that you can throw away all the other media, but you can't throw away the newspaper as the basic medium of communication. A newspaper ad about Heinz products is an invitation for the housewife to come in to see our goods."

Mr. Bell said the campaign is producing outstanding results, citing as one example the fact the American States in Philadelphia bought 11 carloads of Heinz products through the impact of the current newspaper ads. He also said one Heinz salesman sold nine independent grocers more than they had purchased in the previous nine months on one call explaining the newspaper campaign.

"Our volume is up," Mr. Bell said, "not just in dollars, but sale of units. You fellows did a fine job for us. You can do a similar job for yourselves by merchandising your own product. I do rate newspapers as the number one medium. They are indispensable to the grocer."
