even consulting McGrath. "DEFENDED CAUDLE Even after Caudle was rapped publicly by the President for "out-side" activities and raked over, the coals by a House Ways and Means subcommittee looking into tax scandals, McGrath still defended his former assistant. Against this background, the President was asked yesterday at a pews conference about a report that he had received written word from McGrath that the Attorney General wanted to quit. The President, speaking from a prepared memorandum, said he was not going to answer the ques-tion because there had been so many rumors that he could not pos-subly answer all of them. ## PANMUNJOM, Korea --(8- The Communists again rejected all United Nations proposals in both armistice subcommittees today and an Alied negotiator said that is "looks as if we are in for quite a struggle." The only agreement reached in either subcommittee was to meet again tomorrow. The Reds tagitly admitted during the day's fruitless debates that Chinese - trained Korean doops were sent into Korea before the war, but said there was "mothing wrong with that." were sent into Korea belore use war, but said there was "nothing wrong with that." DENY IMPORTED PLANES They denied, however, a U-* N. charge that they were bringing warplanes into Korea in crates, presumably for assembly on all-fields during an armistice. The Communists also: 1. Rejected for the third straight day a U. N. compromise plan for the voluntary repatriation of all war prisoners, civilians during in armistice. 2. Turned down for the second-time a U. N. offer to exchange set and wounded prisoners immediate-ly. The Reds claimed the plan "would hamper warfare." 3. Refused for the sixth straight day to yield to the U. N. demand for a ban on airfield construction and repair during a truce. NO PROGRESS After four hours and 20 minutes
