

Kentucky Grid Coach Proposes Home Talent Only For Colleges

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The University of Kentucky called on other major athletic powers today to strike at "the evils attendant upon recruiting of players by following the example in banning out-of-state recruiting."

Kentucky, a national power in both football and basketball, announced last night that no longer would it seek out non-Kentucky players for its teams.

"Football Coach Paul 'Bear' Bryant, who made the surprise announcement after his return from Kentucky's 20-7 win over Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl, said the action was taken because Kentucky's out-of-state recruiting had been widely criticized by other colleges.

to-lose with those of neighboring states," said Bryant. "We are confident that if other institutions will follow, the evils attendant upon recruiting will be ended."

Bryant's football squad of 75 men numbers 36 non-Kentuckians, including star passer "Vita Babe" Parrill of Rochester, Pa.

The Wildcat basketball team, currently rated No. 2 in the nation by the United Press Board of Coaches, includes seven non-Kentuckians on its 20-man roster. That figure does not include seven-foot Warner-Robins, Ga., who is under temporary suspension at his own request.

At Owensboro, Ky., where the Wildcat basketball team crushed Mississippi last night 116 to 58, basketball coach Adolph Rupp refused to comment on Bryant's statement.

PROVISION FOR SONS
Despite Kentucky's new policy,

however, a handful of out-of-state players will make Wildcat teams in the future. That's because the school will permit as many as five football scholarships per year to be given to non-Kentuckians.

"This provision is to include sons and brothers of alumni," Bryant explained. "But in all instances, these out-of-state students must seek us out and apply for the scholarships."

Bryant called upon Kentucky alumni and friends in other states "to desist from any recruitment on our behalf." He asked that "our colleagues in our neighboring states notify me if they learn of any such activity."

The coach predicted that had the action continued to recruit non-Kentucky players, "the good relations between the University of Kentucky and her neighbors would deteriorate, and the good name of Kentucky would suffer."

Pro Golfers Wear Topcoats In L. A. "Frosty" Tourney
LOS ANGELES (AP) — A closely knit field of 145 well-bundled golfers opened fire today in the first round of the winter tour's "big money" tournament, the 72-hole $17,500 Los Angeles Open.

Wrapped in sweaters and topcoats, early starters waded over swank Rivera's frost-bathed fairways and greens as early morning temperatures dipped to the mid-30's for the third consecutive day.

Late throsomes to the tee, including defending champ Lloyd Mangrum and the bulk of the name pros, were more fortunate as brisk breezes whipped the greenery dry.

Chief threats to Mangrum were Henry Fanson, Chicago; Cary Middlecoff, Memphis; Johnny Palmer, Charlotte; Jim Ferrier, San Francisco; Julius Boros, Southern Pines; Jackie Burke, Jr., Houston; and Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif.

Rising Chico Vejar Vs. Bolanos Tonight
NEW YORK (AP) — Young Chico Vejar's scramble up the stairway to the stars may be blocked tonight at Madison Square Garden by the descending Enrique Bolanos.

Vejar, university freshman and welterweight rookie, faces the stiffest test of his brief, brilliant fight career in the television 10-rounder with veteran Bolanos, a slick Mexican from Pasadena, Calif.

At 20, Vejar of Stamford, Conn., is rated a "comer" because he won 36 of 37 bouts in less than two years of professional fighting. And his only loss was on a widely disputed split decision to Eddie Compagno, Sept. 21. He knocked out 22.

As 27 Bolanos is regarded as "shipping" because of his spotty record in 1951, when he won but three of nine bouts and had two draws. He lost three decisions and was knocked out in the lightweight Champion Jimmy Carter.

However, the Mexico-born boxer-puncher from Pasadena has been a top-fighter who campaigned very successfully as a lightweight and hopes now to do likewise as a welterweight.

Erwin Teams Take Wins From Benson

Erwin High basketball teams took a doubleheader from Benson earlier in the week when the girls won by a 47 to 40 score and the boys took a 47-29 victory.

Once more the sensational high-scoring freshman paced the Erwin offense. Jerry Mathews, the tall, happy surprise at Erwin High this year, scored 34 points against Benson. The tall redhead has given Erwin a team that is a definite threat to the county crown even though the record up until now doesn't bare this out.

Doris Oldham tossed in 31 points for the winners and Delores Mason did the best job on defense.

Rose Dixon led the Benson girls again and this time with 18 points, and Betty Bell added 12 points to the total. Pat Gregory and Gwen Johnson were the defensive leaders.

Erwin took a six-point lead in the first quarter, and that was just about the difference.

ERWIN 14 10 11 12—47
BENSON 8 14 10 8—40

The sharp-shooting Erwin boys were impressive in their win over the Johnston County team. During one portion of the game, the boys in red and white hit 8 of 10 field goal attempts which is remarkable shooting for any basketball team.

George "Dead-Eye" Earnshaw led the scoring with 17 points, and George Lucas popped in 12. The two Georges give Erwin a strong outside attack. Devon Stewart gave the opponents a difficult time with his guarding.

Jack Lyles was the big gun for Benson, with 15 points, and Robert Smith was the defensive leader.

"The Erwin boys are in the thick of the Harnett Conference race with a 4-1 record. The only loss was to undefeated LaFayette.

College Basketball Make Comeback In SE Conference

By JOHN GRIFFIN (United Press Sports Write)
NEW YORK (AP) — A raging, angry pack of Kentucky Wildcats clawed its way back toward the basketball heights today with the greatest scoring spree in its colorful history.

Starting from their one-point upset at the hands of St. Louis in the final round of the Sugar Bowl tournament last week, the Wildcats made their "comeback appearance" at Owensboro, Ky., a rousing success last night by crushing Mississippi, 116 to 58, in a Southeastern Conference game.

In addition to setting a Kentucky scoring record, the barrage also set a new record for the conference.

THRILL THE HOME-TOWNERS
Cliff "The Cat" Hagan, who is filling in at center in the absence of seven-foot Bill Spivey, led the assault with 37 points on 10 field goals and 17 free throws. Bobby Watson was next high scorer with 18, and that was fitting, for the mayor of Owensboro had declared yesterday "Hagan-Watson day" to honor the two local athletes.

Mississippi, which had the misfortune to catch Kentucky in its angriest mood, found itself behind by 30-17 at the end of the first period. And then it was 68-23 at the half. Wildcat subs started appearing in the second half but still Ole Miss couldn't stem the tide.

SOU. CONFERENCE POWER
The amazing Wildcats win stole last night's show from a thundering upset, West Virginia's 100 to 75 conquest of previously unbeaten New York U. at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU went into the game with a 12-game winning streak, longest in the nation, and a ranking as the No. 7 team. But West Virginia which hit on 50 per cent of its shots in the first half, was led by Harry Moore with 25 points and Markorkman with 24.

Other high-ranked teams came through in fine fashion, however. Utah, ranked No. 11, opened its Border Conference campaign with a 59-47 win over New Mexico; Seton Hall, ranked No. 14, drubbed Western Kentucky 77-65; Duquesne, No. 19, crushed Cincinnati 71 to 41; while in a mild upset, Louisville tied for No. 18, downed Villanova, ranked No. 12, 90 to 68.

Florida edged Auburn 64-63, in the Southeastern Conference; Oklahoma downed Colorado 61 to 52, in the Big Seven; Hampden-Sydney beat Virginia 67 to 58; and North Carolina downed Maryland 51-47, in the Southern Conference.

TONIGHT'S GAME LINEUP
Washington, the nation's fifth-ranked team, faces Idaho tonight in a Pacific Coast Conference game. The Oklahoma Aggies, the nation's top defensive team and ranked 17th by the board of coaches, meets DePaul, the sixth best offensive team, in an interesting clash of the "irresistible force and the immovable wall."

Other leading games include: South Carolina-Davidson in the Southern Conference, Furman vs Miami, and Presbyterian-Citadel.

Lafayette Boys Take Another Win; Fading Girls Fall To B'dway
In a double-header played at Broadway on Tuesday night, the Broadway girls held one of Harnett's top girls teams, LaFayette, to 25 points in taking an eighteen-point victory over the visitors. In the second game of the Lee County twin-bill, the visiting LaFayette boys trounced the home teams by a score of 64-24.

Faded Whitfield led the offense for the winning girls with 23 points. Teammates Spivey, Thomas, and Sarah Buchanan scored 12 and 8 points. All of the Broadway guards played an excellent game.

Playnie Clay, who usually scores around 25 points alone, got 14 points to lead the visitors, and Bobbie Lewis got 8.

The LaFayette boys so impressed

CHRISLER DEFENDS FOOTBALL
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fritz Crisler, director of athletics at the University of Michigan, came to the support of college football today with a withering attack on "self-appointed reformers" who want to de-emphasize the sport.

"There is nothing wrong with college football today," said Crisler. "The only place where there should be any de-emphasizing is in prospecting. I believe that could be curbed if the college presidents would take a hand at it. The only trouble in college football comes from too many self-appointed reformers who do some hysterical thinking."

CUB-RED TRADE
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs swapped righthanded pitcher Frank Hiller yesterday for righthander Willard Ramsdell of the Cincinnati Reds.

Hiller won six and lost 12 for the Cubs last season while Ramsdell was winning nine and losing 17. Hiller's earned run average was 4.85 and Ramsdell's 4.04.

Angler-Benhaven Games Lead Harnett Tonight

A full schedule is slated for tonight in the Harnett Conference. High School teams will meet in gyms at Boone Trail, Benhaven, Erwin, and Lillington.

The top contests should result at the Benhaven gym with teams from Angler as the opponents. The girls and boys could have good, close ball games. The Benhaven girls' team gets the nod in what may be an easy win, but if the Angler girls can hit the basket, the game will be a tight battle. The boys game rates a toss-up.

COULD BE BATTLE
The two games at Boone Trail should end with each school taking a win. The Lillington girls will be favored, and the Boone Trail boys get the favored role. The visiting girls have hot and cold nights, however, and they must have a good night to win. The home team boys have been hot and cold also, but they still get the nod over a team with one conference win in five games.

Bules Creek and Anderson Creek will undoubtedly split their twin-bill. The B. C. boys are heavy favorites over the cellar dweller, and the up-and-coming Anderson Creek lasses shouldn't have too much trouble with the Bules Creek who have yet to get a win.

Senior Game Tomorrow

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The North and South squads went through their final workouts today for the third annual "pay-for-play" Senior Bowl game here tomorrow.

This is the only bowl game in which the competing players are paid for their services, with members of the winning team each receiving $500 and the losers $400 each.

A crowd of 20,000 is expected for the game, and the most interested spectators will be professional football scouts assigned to lineup potential stars for the National Football League.

The South has won the previous two games, but the North, boasting a well-coordinated running and passing attack, was favored by one touchdown in tomorrow's tilt.
