MRS. MOLLIE HAIGHWOOD, 85 PAID HONOR AT LILLINGTON.

Mrs. Mollie Haighwood, who observed her 85th birthday anniversary on Wednesday, was honored at an informal open house held that day by her daughter, Miss Mamie Haighwood, at their home in Lillington.

Around 45 guests were received in the afternoon and night.

Mrs. Haighwood, who is the oldest member of the Lillington Baptist Church and an active member of the T. E. L. Bible Class, was presented a dozen red roses and corsage of the same flower by the class.

Practically all the class members, co-workers in the W. M. U. circle in which Mrs. Haighwood is a regular attendant, and near neighbors called during the afternoon to extend good wishes and presented the honoree with gifts.

Mrs. Haighwood's birthday anniversary coincides with that of her son, Carl Haighwood, who came from Fayetteville for the occasion.

Later the same evening following the weekly rehearsal of the Baptist Choir in which Miss Mamie Haighwood sings, the choir members and several additional guests gathered at the Haighwood home to add their good wishes.

The living room was decorated with red roses, poinsettias, red candles and sprays of greenery. During the afternoon Mrs. Haighwood greeted her guests wearing a lavender dress. For the evening party she wore black crepe with a corsage of red roses.

In the dining room a color scheme of pink and green was followed. The table held the white birthday cake decorated with pink and green and an arrangement of pink carnations. A pink Christmas begonia decorated the buffet.

The cake which was sliced and served by Mrs. Andrew Jackson was served with green fruit and salted nuts. Mrs. Inez Harrington presided at the punch bowl and assisting in serving were Miss Adelaide Shaw, Mrs. E. R. Davis, Mrs. Willie Dean, and Mrs. Roger Weaver.

The laughs are long and loud as Fred MacMurray and Dorothy McGuire turn cowhand Howard Keel into a movie star and idol of America's youngsters in "Callaway," M-G-M's hilarious comedy-drama now showing at the Dunn Theatre.

Benson Bride Is Honored With An Afternoon Tea

Mrs. William P. MacDonald, Jr., who before her recent marriage was Miss Peggy Massengill, was honored Saturday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:30 o'clock when her mother, Mrs. Lynwood Johnson and Mrs. W. R. Denning entertained at an informal tea at the Denning home on the Dunn highway.

Midwinter flowers and greenery decorated the spacious home.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Robert Denning of Benson and Miss Louise Milley of Erwin assisted in receiving.

Mrs. W. R. Denning invited guests into the dining room where a color scheme of green and white prevailed. The tea table was covered with an exquisite lace cloth and centered with a low arrangement of white gladioli, carnations, and fern flanked by lighted white cathedral candles in silver holders. Mr. W. A. Massengill, grandmother of the bride, of Four Oaks poured tea assisted by Mrs. Hubert Massengill of Four Oaks. Party sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and minis were served by Misses Ann Johnson, Sue Bandy Lawhon, and Diane Overby.

Miss Joan Benton presided at the bride's book where fifty guests were registered.

Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Allen said the goodbyes.

Miss Massengill Is Married To William McDonald

The December marriage of Miss Peggy Ann Massengill, daughter of Mrs. David Lynwood Johnson of Benson and Norwood L. Massengill of Four Oaks and William Percy MacDonald, Jr., son of Mr. MacDonald of Vassalboro, Maine and the late Mrs. MacDonald has been announced by the bride's mother.

The bride, a member of the Junior class at Meredith College, is continuing her studies there where she is majoring in primary education in conjunction with her study of piano and voice.

The bridegroom is a staff sergeant stationed at Pope Air Force Base, Fort Bragg, N. C.

Mrs. William P. MacDonald, Jr., the former Miss Peggy Massengill whose marriage occurred in December, has returned to Meredith College where she will resume her studies as a member of the junior class.

Mr. and Mrs. David Parnell of Parkton spent the weekend here with Mrs. Parnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson.

Pvt. J. E. Benton, Jr., and De-Leon Barbour left Thursday for San Diego, Calif. to resume military training after spending the past ten days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Johnson and son, Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. William P. MacDonald, Jr., spent Sunday in Rocky Mount with Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. D. L. McLenore and visited other relatives.

Fred Johnson was a visitor to Roseboro Monday.

Mrs. Keith George of Fayetteville spent a few days here this week with her sister, Mrs. Will Woodall.

Mrs. C. W. Sanders, Mrs. Virginia Smith, and Miss Neta Turlington visited Mrs. Festus L. Turlington in Clinton Tuesday.
