Profiles of the small fry at Mark's Kindergarten

ALICE PURDIE

Now Alice, your picture finally did get in the paper, didn't it. Alice's mother told Mr. Marks the other day that she was afraid Alice would wear her shoes out meeting the Daily Record delivery boy, if her picture hadn't get in the paper.

Alice, as you see, is a pretty blonde, and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Purdie. She lives at 603 W. Pearsall Street. She has a big brother named Edward, and a mighty pretty sister named Susan, and both of them came to school over here several years ago. They still like to come back to see Mrs. Marks once in a while, and talk over old times.

Alice has a white persian cat for a pet, and last year her cat had some baby kittens, but those kittens sure had bad luck. One of them even got under Mrs. Purdie's car and got run over. Alice says that she told the kitten not to get in the road, but it just did anyway. It was bad for the kitty, but we believe it was a good safety lesson for Alice.

Alice has a nice disposition, and is a lot of help to Mrs. Marks. Sometimes she talks mighty loud, and has to be told to lower her voice, but she is getting a lot better about that. She is always nice about trying, when Mrs. Marks reminds her of it — she just gets so busy playing and having fun that she forgets but that's no more than can be expected of five-year-olds, is it, Alice? All the children like to play with Alice, and she "mothers" some of the smaller ones. She is a mighty nice little girl.
