Our Future Citizens Profiles of the small fry at Mark's Kindergarten

MARGARET LONGHI

Here's a girl Mrs. Marks just couldn't get a good picture of when she wasn't looking, so this is the final result. She got caught when her back was turned! The only other time we could get her picture when she didn't see us was when she was as busy using her tongue as her crayon to color her picture (as you can see by the inset).

Margaret is a mighty cute vivacious blonde, short and plump, with a winning personality. Her nickname is "Duck", and she likes that, too. Margaret lives with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Lowder, and her real mother lives in Tennessee. She paid her mother a visit during Christmas, and had a wonderful time.

Margaret has a nice little cousin, Johnnie, and he keeps her and Mrs. Lowder pretty busy looking after him, but "Duck" says she enjoys tending to him, and from what her aunt tells us, Margaret helps her a great deal.

Somebody gave Margaret a pretty blue apron for Christmas and she brought it over to school to wear when she paints water color pictures. That way she can keep her pretty new dresses nice and clean.

Margaret takes dancing and she is doing fine in that. Your readers will get a chance to see her a lot this spring, because she will be in the Dance Revue and our Kindergarten program — then you can see her sparkling blue eyes and pretty face!

COATS School News

By RUTH DENNING

The Coats student body is proud to have with them two new Agriculture Practice Teachers. They are Mr. Earnest B. Taylor from Merry Hill, N. C., and Mr. Gilbert A. Lewis of Fairmont. The teachers, both of whom are students at State College, will teach and work with the F.F.A. boys until March 10. We are always glad to see the arrival of new teachers, for with them are brought newer ideas that better the qualities of our school life. We sincerely welcome the new teachers and we hope to make their time spent with us pleasant to them as well as helpful and beneficial to us.

We welcome three new high school students. They are Janie Blunt, a sophomore from Linden, Jimmy Stephenson, a freshman from Cleveland and Jesse Tart, a freshman from Deep River. We are glad to have them with us and hope that they like their new school.

The Rollateers presented a very interesting as well as entertaining program to the student body, Tuesday, January 8. The Roller Skating Stars are a classic among skating attractions. They introduced daring displays and top tricks, astounding their enthused audience. Their whirlwind exhibition displayed skill, as well as swiftness and action. The Roller Skating Stars are extraordinary skaters and put on an entertaining program, including technical discussion and demonstration on skating. Various students participated in the program. The entertainment was of great interest to the students, since skating is a favorite hobby of many of them.

The Senior Class, under the direction of Miss Edith Allen presented the school chapel program on Thursday, January 10. Short skits of the Senior Play were given. The skits aroused the enthusiasm and anticipation of the students for the play that was to be given that night.
