

Teen-Age Club To Hold Event Tuesday Night

The local Teen Age Club is in for quite a treat next Saturday evening. Jim McMillan of Radio Station WCKB, who is publicity chairman for the club, has arranged for Mrs. Ann McLean of the United Arts Institution in Raleigh and her husband to be here that night to present a special program.

The evening's events will begin at 7 with a dinner at Johnson's Restaurant. Among those who are to be present for the dinner are Mayor and Mrs. Ralph Hanna, City Manager and Mrs. Oliver O. Manning, Mr. Empie Hall, the three officers of the Teen Age Club of which Lewis Strickland, Jr., is president, members of the faculty who are chaperones for the evening's dance, Mr. and Mrs. McLean, and Mr. McMillan.

The group will then go to the Dunn Armory where Mr. and Mrs. McLean will present their program. They will prove to the young people that "dancing is an artistic endeavor and definitely one of the more charming social graces."

The Armory will be specially decorated by a committee of teen agers for the evening. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. McMillan stated that the local Teen Age Club is run in an orderly manner by its officers and that its members are required to be on their best behavior at the weekly dances. In view of this, he thought that they deserved some recognition.
