NEWEST NEWLYWEDS in Filmland, Willard Parker and Virginia Field happily read the congratulatory messages of friends. Their marriage was culmination of a long romance.

GOLDEN-HAIRED Deborah Kerr, star of British and Hollywood motion pictures, is seen at a Movieland first night with her husband, Anthony Bartley. Debbie stars in Quo Vadis.

SPORTING A BIG HAT and a bigger smile, Ginny Simms, popular singer, is having a gay time as she attends a party at the Beverly Hills hotel. Out of circulation for a long time—during her marriage to a prominent west coast socialite—Ginny has resumed her career.

A FRIEND INDEED is Mona Freeman (top), shown assisting Jan Sterling as she prepares for her role in a fashion show at Universal-International studios. Mona also was in the show. Both beauties are preparing to co-star in the forthcoming film, Hear No Evil.

AN ADEPT PUPIL, Rock Hudson gets a lesson in the proper method of winding wool from Lynn Bari between takes on the set of Oh, Money! Money!—their co-starring film.

AWAITING THE BIRTH of her second child, beautiful Barbara Britton is seen attending a new film showing with her husband, Dr. Eugene Czukur, a prominent nerve specialist. Mother of a handsome four-year-old son, Barbara expects to welcome the newcomer in December. A former dramatics teacher, she was wooed from profession by offers of stardom.

NOT TOO FAR removed from the honeymoon stage, handsome Lex Barker and his beautiful wife, Arlene Dahl, enjoy a dance set at Ciro's. Lex is well known for Tarzan roles.
