

News Of The World In Pictures

PUZZLE: WHICH member of the Best family of Milwaukee, Wis., did NOT have his tonsils removed? David, 7, is the lucky one. The other six children who had their tonsils pulled out are (from left) Joseph, 13; Michael, 12; John, 11; Mary, 10; Edward, 6, and Eugene, 4.

HATS OFF to these creations of designer Mr. John, which show (top) his "first snowball" and (below) fragile mesh of jeweled veiling paired with beaded and jeweled appliques.

NEEDED LIFT for prisoners of war behind the Communist lines comes from the Red Cross office in Yokohama, Japan, where a lift truck loads food packages for shipment to Korea.

THREE MAILED YANKS creep on the firing line, awaiting signal to blast Communists in Korea.

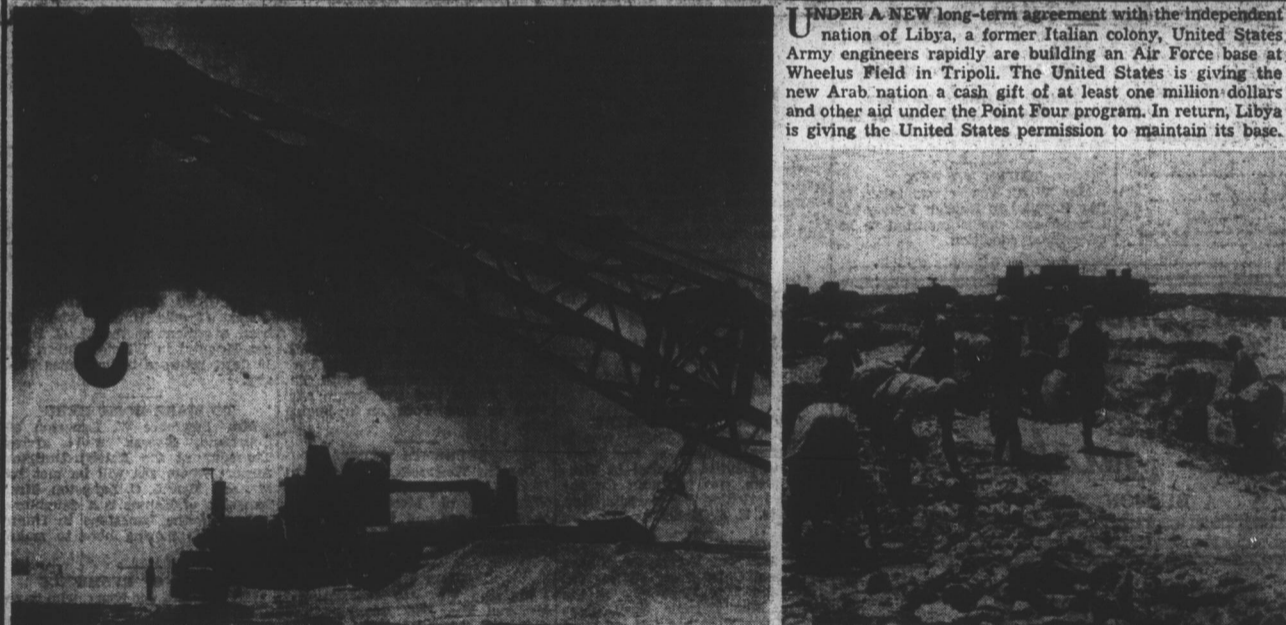

LIFE MEMBER of the Marine Corps League is Gen. Clifton B. Cates (right), former commandant of the Marine Corps, getting his card from Lt. Col. Arthur Hansen, national liaison officer for the league. Rep. Mike Mansfield (D), Montana, watches ceremony in Washington.

ARMY CONSTRUCTS MIDDLE EAST AIR BASE

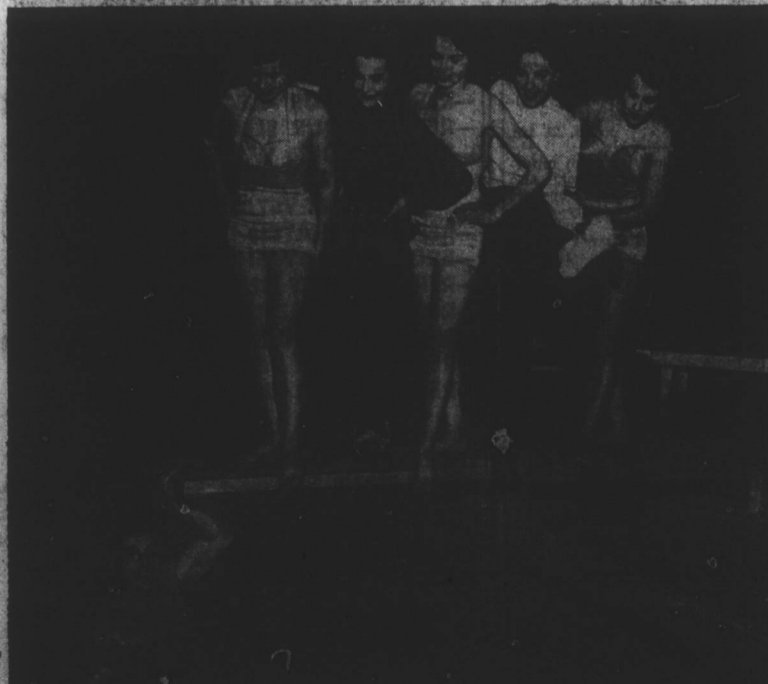

MILLION DOLLARS worth of talent from stage, screen, radio and television gathers at a New York night club for some relaxation. Stars are (from left) Tybone Power; Lilli Palmer; her husband, Rex Harrison; Mrs. Power (Linda Christian); and Jean Pierre Aumont.

Hot-mix asphalt plant uses the crushed stone stock-piled at the right in the Azizia quarry. Workers use their hands to lay base for roads to airfield.

UNDER A NEW long-term agreement with the independent nation of Libya, a former Italian colony, United States Army engineers rapidly are building an Air Force base at Wheelus Field in Tripoli. The United States is giving the new Arab nation a cash gift of at least one million dollars and other aid under the Point Four program. In return, Libya is giving the United States permission to maintain its base.

"HOW'S THE WATER?" these five models want to know as swimming star Buster Crabbe takes a plunge at the opening of a new indoor pool at a hotel in Kiamesha Lake, N. Y. Girls are (from left) Melody Lanzner, Lyn Coleman, Beth Tyler, Egan Kain and Carol Toby.

Army engineers supervise the pouring of concrete for an igloo-type building. Native limestone forms part of these airmen's barracks under construction. King Features Syndicate