

EDENTON CHOSEN
WILLIAMSTON — Edenton, Class D Virginia League and will join N. C. has pulled out of the league this summer, Coastal Plains President Ray Goodson announced today.
Edenton replaces Greenville in the Coastal Plains. The Greenville club folded because of an unsatisfactory financial condition and no way could be found to settle the existing debt in time for a prospective new owner to take over the franchise.

Cherry Pt. Boxers Go To Charleston For Golden Gloves

CHERRY POINT — Thirteen confident "Fighting Flyers" from the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, North Carolina, will travel to Charleston Golden Gloves Tournament scheduled to open for four days with action commencing on 23 January.

Master Sergeant Frank Veith, present mentor of the Flyer stable has been busy rounding his jads into shape for the past few weeks, and is confident that his veteran ring-masters will add to the laurels already established by their predecessors.

Making the trip to the South Carolina lowlands and representing the Leatherneck battlers as a team will be Jesse Garza, 112 lbs.; Ed Kendrick, 118 lbs.; Doug Ellwood, 126 lbs.; John Biancantiello, 135 lbs.; Tom Oears, 147 lbs.; Mike Zecca, 160 lbs.; Don Spencer, 175 lbs.; and Foster Bonner, newcomer to the squad and occupying the heavyweight berth.

Coch Veith will also carry five alternates in the persons of Tony Costanza, 112 lbs.; Lee Turner, 118 lbs.; George Picott, 126 lbs.; Joe Denezia, 135 lbs.; and Bob Waddle, 147 lbs. All alternates with the exception of Waddle, who has scored impressive wins under the Marine colors last year, are newcomers to the Cherry Point aggregation.

In recent years, the Marine leather slingers have enjoyed commendable performances in Golden Gloves and AAU Tournaments through out the east coast, and it will be of little surprise to Point fistic followers if the battlers return to their "Tar Heel" base decked with a fistful of trophies.

Lillington Girls Take Win; Boone Trail Boys Win Also

Boone Trail and Lillington High School basketball teams divided a twin-bill in the Lillington gym last night as the home girls won the first game by a 56-47 score, and the visiting boys came back to lick the home team by a 60 to 41 final.

The Lillington girls got back into the race for the leadership for Harnett Conference Pennant last night as their guards outscrapped the visiting guards and high-scoring Doris Brown of the winners was more offense than the Trailers could muster. The home team managed to work the ball in closer and make a better percentage of their shots, in fact a running check of the last three quarters of the ball game showed that the winners hit 49 percent of their action tries while B. T. was hitting 37. A check on free throws that the winners hit 4 of 12 while the visitors made 4 of 13 in three periods.

Doris Brown of the winners was the game's high scorer with 29 points. Louise Kelly, who failed to make a point in the last quarter, was second high for the winners with 17. Others scoring for Lillington were Barbara Hickman 4, Fay Matthews 4, and Ann Packard 2. The three guards shared the work for the winners.

Joyce Stewart led the scoring for Boone Trail with 21 points. Virginia Harrington and Jean Stewart split the remaining points with 13 each. Eight of Joyce's points came in the final period when she hit four of six attempts.

BOONE TRAIL 11 13 8 15 47

Cosch Jack Cashlon's boys, who have been showing steady improvement all season, trailed in the early moments of the game, but with new center Bobby Knight hitting two shots from up under, B. T. took the lead early in the first stanza and held it throughout the game. The Trailers doubled the score on the home team in the first and final periods, but they allowed Lillington to outscore them in the third quarter by a 15-14 count.

Numerous pass-interceptions and good rebound work made the big difference in the ball game as the two teams hit with little difference in accuracy. B. T. hit on 37 percent of its shots while Lillington was hitting on 35 percentage. The Boone Trail boys aquired 68 shorts whiel the home team could get only 51. Lillington hit on only 5 of 21 free throws, missing 10 of 10 in the final period, and the winners hit 10 of 24.

Jerry Fouts and Wallace Cash led the scoring for the winners with 17 and 16 points. Others scoring were Bobby Knight 10, Leaman Knight 9, Cecil Cummings 6, and Don Stephens and Ross Buchanan 1 each. Wallace Cash and Leaman Knight led the defense.

Leo McDonald was high scorer for the home team with 13 points. Others scoring were Joe Smith 8, Jasper Temple 2, Rudy Brown 6, Jack Long 5, Cy Stewart 4, Ted Eason 2, and Clayton Parker 1.

Angier Gets Wins

Angier High's girls upset Benhaven last night in the Angier gym by a 35-33 score. It was the second loss of the year for Benhaven (with 9 wins), and it was the fifth win for Angier (with 8 wins and a tie).

The Angier boys also won over the visitors. Their score was 69-62. Story of the game will follow tomorrow.

Sportscaster Mel Allen Wins Award

Mel Allen, "the voice of the N. Y. Yankees" and the man who made "How About That?" famous, was voted "the Best Sportscaster of 1951" by the radio editors of the United States in the 16th annual Motion Picture Daily Poll.
Allen, who reported the top sports events of the past year on radio and television—Baseball: The All Star Game and the World Series; Football: Number one reporter of the NBC-Westinghouse NCAA Intercollegiate program, East-West and Rose Bowl Games; Racing: Triple Crown — Kentucky Derby, Preakness, and Belmont; — appears every Wednesday evening immediately after the fights, on his own coast-to-coast CBS-TV sports show.

Kannapolis Boy Wins Bout At Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Light heavyweight Eddie Green of Kannapolis, N. C., had to go the route for a victory at the Arena here last night.

The 169-pound Green took a unanimous decision over sailor Charley Mercer of Glynnco Navy Base, Brunswick, Ga., who also weighted in at 169.

Although both fighters used a moving style offense, which usually makes for a fast fight, referee Tom Reid had trouble at times breaking them from clinches. Green's in-fighting style paid off only after the final bell. There were no knock-downs.

Memphis Chosen For National High School All-Star Grid Game

OKLAHOMA CITY — The Wigwam Wise Men of America, sponsors of the national high school All-America football game each year, today announced that the fourth annual event will be held Aug. 27 at Crump Stadium in Memphis, Tenn.

Mose Simms, the club's football chairman, said the 22 members each of the East and West teams will be announced Feb. 8. Also, coaches probably will be selected by that time, he said.

The players are being selected this year by 601 sports writers and radio- and television sportscasters across the nation. More than 2,600 names of high school seniors have been submitted. The East team members come from East of the Mississippi, and their opponents from West of the river.
Simms said Memphis was chosen as the site for this year's game because of its central location.

Player Of The Week

The stars for last week in the Harnett Conference basketball games were from Erwin and Boone Trail schools, and fitting as it may be, the two schools won both of their doubleheaders last week.
James Faircloth, Erwin center, played an outstanding game against Angier as he led his team on defense and offense while scoring 15 points and boosting Erwin ahead of Angier in the conference standings. Faircloth scored 14 points in the win over Benson later in the week, and he grabbed plenty of rebounds.

Correan Gunter, guard, and Jean Stewart, forward, of Boone Trail split honors for B. T. as they took wins over Coats and Bules Creek last week. Correan led the defense, as she has often this year and last, in both ball games. Jean handled the ball well as a playmaker and scored 18 points against Coats and 26 in the Bules Creek game.

As always, other players were barely noted out of the weekly honor in the choosing, but perhaps those players will nose out someone themselves later.

Don't forget the twin-bill tomorrow night at the armory when the LaFayette teams come here.

The same six girls will probably start; they are Jane Westbrook, Rilda Hamilton, and Kack Butt at the guards; and Martha Butler, Betsy Lee, and Kack White at the forward posts.

Both of the coaches of the girls' teams usually start four sophomores in their lineups, so you can watch these teams for the next two years. The Benhaven girls get the favored roll for tonight.

Coach Waggoner's boys have a 1-0 record at the present with a win over Lillington in their only conference encounter. The Greenwave will have the favorite roll in their contest with the second-division, Benhaven boys who hold only 3 wins as compared to 7 losses.

MAY BE A CHANGE
The starting lineups for the local team will find only one likely change, and that one is just a possibility. Big Jimmy Sills may break into the lineup for the local boys tonight for the first time. If Jim doesn't start, the lineup will probably be — E. B. Dixon and
