Frank Campbell and D. R. Lee seem to be great pals lately. Wish they'd include me!

Everyone was happy to see some of the college guys and gals home for the weekend. Hope to see them again real soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Flowers, Jr., of Durham, spent the week-end here with their aunt, Mrs. Vinnie Smith.

Mrs. Durham, spent the week-end brighter by the day. And no wonder, with each day that does also goes a day of anxious wasting and wishing for April and Willie. Eh,

Give your job the best you have and it'll never get the best of you

A cold snap in the South caused large damage to crops. . Your erocer will tell you more about it later.

The eagle flies fastest when going away from its nest. No wonder we use it on some of our silver coins.

If you notice anyone around with extremely short nails, you'll know they have seen "Fixed Bavonets," which played at the Dunn Theatre this week. It was a suspense picture based on the event of Heartbreak Ridge in Korea, Surely if you did not get to see this picture, be sure and see it when it comes back. Oh, and be sure to take something to chew on!

Florning Glover, are you st "undecided"? Don't be that way!

Margaret Lee Navlor, do vou really wish you lived near 304 West Harnett street?

Mary Fave Williford seems to have an interest out on the open if hear hall be coming home next month. Mary Faye. Is it true? If so I know you are happy, Good luck!

Doc Corbett: "If you want to aleen at my house you'll have to make your own bed." Jimmy Sills: "Oh, that's all right. I won't wind." Doc: "O. E. Here's a hammer and saw."
