Guardsmen Hold Ladies Nite Banquet

By Pfc. John W. Temple, Jr.
Battery "B", Dunn's own National Guard Unit, held a barbecue and chicken supper Wednesday night for the ladies and friends of the Guardsmen. The party was held at the Dunn Armory, which is the meeting place of the local unit.

W.O.J. Nelson Lee acted as Master of Ceremonies and introduced Captain George F. Blalock, Commander of the Battery, as the chief speaker of the evening.

Entertainment was furnished by local talent, Katherine Stevenson sang "Little White Cloud That Cried" and "Unforgettable." Faye Godwin played the accordion, rendering "Hindustan", "Down Yonder", "Beer Barrel Polka" and "Chicken Reel." Louise Brown, talented local pianist, played several "Dixie" selections.

Also present for the gala occasion were Maj. Roy Brown, U. S. Army, retired, and the Guardsites, a basketball team composed of local girls that play along with the Battery "B" team.

Approximately 150 Guardsmen and their guests turned out for the annual affair, which is one of many that the local unit holds for the personnel of the Battery.

Dunn should be justly proud of the local unit in that it was judged "Superior" both at Camp McClellan, during the summer encampment, and at home, during the annual General Inspection by the top Army Brass. Battery "B" has been outstanding in all phases of the National Guard and has received letters complimenting them on their work by the Commander of the 90th Division himself and from other high ranking officials of the Army.

Captain Blalock announced that there are still some openings in the local unit and those interested in the Guard should contact Mr.

Mrs. O. K. Keene is still confined to her home with an injured leg. Her friends hope she will soon be able to be out again.

Mr. Kenneth Keene, a student at Louisburg College spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Keene.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stewart spent the weekend with Mrs. Robert H. Day of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Day is a sister of Mrs. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hamilton and Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Johnson of Fayetteville were dinner guests at the W. E. Roberts as joint hostesses. Mrs. W. E. Roberts, Mrs. E. T. Malone, Mrs. O. Parrish, Mrs. M. O. Phillips, Mrs. Dewey Yarley, Miss "Mabel" Bain, Mrs. Reta Whittington, Mrs. Susan Black, and the hostesses, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Roberts.

The pre-school class will be held in the Coats School on the 14th of February beginning at eight forty-five A. M. for registering the children so as to have them ready to see Dr. Hunter at 9:30. Parents are urged to have their children there on time and make every effort to let the child be accompanied by the mother. Birth certificates should be brought for complete registration of the children. It is very necessary that every child who is six years old by October 1st, 1932, be registered and get the necessary checkups and vaccinations.

Nelson Lee, WOJG, Battery "B", 149th Field Artillery, N. C. N. G., at the Dunn Armory, Dunn, N. C.

VANCOUVER, B. C. - A 14-year-old artist-admitted today that an abstract painting which a Toronto art gallery official had praised was only a piece of cardboard on which commercial painters had cleaned their brushes.

Bob Neale sent the cardboard to the gallery for exhibition under the title "Melancholy in the Swamp."

He got back a letter from an art gallery official expressing interest in the work.
