

+Stewart+
Today thru Friday

ROD CAMERON
Three Stooges - Sport

+DUNN+
TODAY ONLY

SHADOWS ON THE SKY
starring
Ralph MEEKER - Nancy DAVIS
James WHITMORE
Jean HAGFN
Comedy - Cartoon

+Harnett+
Today & Friday

Golden Girl
GAYNOR-ROBERTSON
PARTNERS
Color Cartoon

COATS School News
BY RUTH DENNING

Coats, along with the other schools of North Carolina, has been participating in the March of Dimes Drive. The different grades have strived to reach a maximum goal. The grades meeting with the greatest success in this campaign were in the elementary department. They collected $424.70. The primary grades reached $134.41 and the high school department collected $70.89. The grand total was $630.

The high school chapel program given January 31, and directed by Mrs. Gladys Phillips was presented in the form of movies. The two movies shown were "Everyday Courtesy" and "Are You A Good Citizen?" Both movies were brief but contained a great deal of helpful facts and suggestions. They helped to make us more conscious of factors, which through courtesy would make our everyday life a more pleasant one. We were also awakened to the duties and requirements that make a person a good citizen.

The members of the Coats Chapter of the F.A. had a party at the Coats Community Building, Thursday night, January 31. The boys and the girls they invited, enjoyed a wiper roast, and afterwards dancing.

Our basketball teams played Dunn, Wednesday night, January 30. The boys won an easy victory of 52-34. Tommy Pope was high scorer with twenty points, and he, along with McKee Turlington were the most outstanding players on defense.

The girls lost 27-46. Dorothy Stewart with nine points, and Josephine with eight points were high

Lillington Personals

IN HOSPITAL
Mrs. J. T. Rosser, Jr., and young daughter, Ann, of Fayetteville spent Tuesday and Wednesday here with Mrs. Rosser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hamilton.

VISITS SISTERS
Sgt. and Mrs. Douglas Morgan were week end visitors of Sergeant Morgan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Womble, Sergeant Morgan, who has been stationed with the U. S. Marine Corps in Santiago, Chile, for the past three years has just returned to the states and will be based at Camp Lejeune. His bride, who accompanied him to Lillington, is the former Miss Mary Lou Francisco of Madison, Indiana.

North Carolina abolished the poll-tax requirements as a prerequisite to voting in 1920.

Of the seven major rivers in North Carolina only one—the Cape Fear—flows directly into the Atlantic in the Tarheel State. Others empty into large sounds shielded from the ocean by the long string of islands known as the Outer Banks.

scorers while Ann Pleasant led in the defensive.

Our boys captured another victory on Tuesday night, February 5. They played Anderson Creek at Eswin. The boys held a lead throughout the game. Tommy Pope and Dennis Pope led in the defensive while Hoover Johnson was high scorer with sixteen points. The final score was 44-35.

The girls played a good game but lost 38-23. Josephine Johnson was high scorer with ten points and Sue Langdon led in the defensive.

C. E. Bass of Lillington underwent an operation for the removal of gall stones on Saturday at Lee County Hospital in Sanford. Mrs. Bass and their daughter, Miss Jaunita Bass who is attending Flora Macdonald College in Red Springs, visited him on Sunday and Monday.

T. D. O'Quinn, Jr., student at N. C. State College in Raleigh, spent the weekend at his home here.

Mrs. Enser W. Cole of Atlanta, Ga. joined Mr. Cole here on Monday and will be here for the remainder of the week. Mrs. Cole before her marriage in December was the former Mrs. Martha Jackson.

GO TO FARM BUREAU MEET
Alex Cameron of Johnsonville township and J. E. Womble of Lillington, the respective president and treasurer of the Harnett County Farm Bureau, were among those attending the State Farm Bureau convention in Raleigh this week. C. R. Ammons and T. D. O'Quinn, county agents also attended.

P. W. Matthews, Jr. who is spending a furlough here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Matthews, is stationed at McCord Air Force Base, Tacoma, Washington. This is his first visit to Lillington since Christmas a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hatley have received news from their son, Jimmy Hatley, that his new assignment in the Air Force has taken him to Geiger Field, Spokane, Washington.

Mrs. Thomas A. Hood and her three daughters, Agnes Gentry, Elizabeth Myatt, and Sara Scott Hood spent the day on Wednesday with Mrs. Hood's mother, Mrs. B. P. Gentry.

Mrs. George Fuller and her daughter, Allene, who have spent the past six weeks here with Mrs. Fuller's mother, Mrs. J. R. Baggett, will leave Friday to return to their home in Ridgefield, N. J. They will go as far as Baltimore, Md. with Dr. J. W. Baggett of Fayetteville who will be in Baltimore on the weekend.

S. H. Wilborn is reported improved after being ill at his home for the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. George Rives and young son, George Wilborn Rives of Mt. Airy, visited him on the week end. Mrs. Rives and baby remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Daniel, mother of Mrs. C. S. Loving, returned home on Wednesday from Charlotte where she recently underwent eye surgery at a Charlotte hospital. Mrs. Loving, who has been with her mother for five weeks in Charlotte returned to Lillington with Mrs. Daniel.

TO VISIT CLUB
Mrs. H. Pat Nixon of Sanford, State President of the North Carolina Business and Professional Women's Clubs, will pay an official visit to the Lillington club on Monday, February 18, when the club will hold a dinner meeting at the Lillington Community Center.

Miss Adelaide Shaw, Lillington club president, will introduce Mrs. Nixon who will make the feature address.

SENIORS TO GIVE PLAY
Rehearsals are underway by Lillington high school seniors for the annual class play which will be presented on March 14. The play, a three-act comedy with a mystery twist to its plot, is entitled, "Watch Out For Spooks." Miss Belle Hockaday is the director.

WEEKEND VISITORS
Miss Joanna Eitzard, biology teacher at the Angler School, and James and Arthur Gillespie, students at Wake Forest College, were weekend guests of their aunt, Mrs. B. P. Gentry.

Information Column
FOR VISITORS AND RESIDENTS
Where TO GO FOR SALES—SERVICE—REPAIRS

AUTO DEALERS
LOOK
GOOD USED CARS - TRUCKS
NAYLOR-DICKEY
DIAL 2227
Fayetteville Hwy. Dunn

Nash Sales & Service
New And Used NASH CARS
Dunn-Erwin Motor Co.
N. Fayetteville Av. Dunn

AUTO PARTS
Herring Motor Parts, Inc.
DEPENDABLE AUTO PARTS
56 Clinton Av. Dunn

AUTO REPAIRS
For Body and Fender Repairs
Henry's Body Shop
56 Clinton Av. Dunn, N. C.

START YOUR SAVINGS AT COMMERCIAL

CLEANERS
QUICK COURTEOUS SERVICE
Dry Cleaning Alterations
Paramount Cleaners
Next to Stewart Theatre

Dunn Family Laundry & Dry Cleaning
Pick-up & Delivery Service
261 N. Wilson Ave. Below Stewart Theatre

DRUGS
HOOD'S DRUG STORE
"The Friendly Store"
Drugs Sundries
112 E. Broad St.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES REPAIRS

ELECTRICAL REPAIR ON ALL HOME APPLIANCES
Wellons Mercantile

FURNITURE
Small Appliances
Johnson Furniture

PRINTERS
See Us For Printing
Membership Cards
1. E. Coker - Billboards
Church - Drivers' Licenses
Frumps Service Twyford Printing COMPANY
Hwy 301 South Dunn

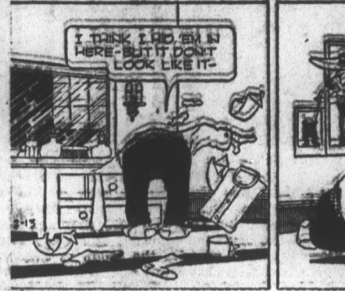

TRACTORS
WORLD'S Most Copied TRACTOR
...not the ONLY one that gives you ALL the revolutionary HERSHON SYSTEM features!
GENERAL UTILITY COMPANY, INC.
Dunn, N. C.

USE THESE COLUMNS. THEY'LL SAVE YOU TIME WORRY - AND MONEY.

BRINGING UP FATHER

SNUFFY SMITH

MICKY MOUSE

HOPALONG CASSIDY

BLONDIE-By Chic Young

NANCY-By Ernie Bushmiller

DICK TRACY

LI' ABNER-By Al Capp

