

MRS. J. N. LEE IS HONORED AT LILLINGTON ON 84TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. J. N. Lee of Durham who is this house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Nell Kelly, was honored at an open house and tea given Sunday afternoon at the Kelly home between 2 and 5 p. m. complimentary to Mrs. Lee's eighty-fourth birthday.

The living room of the Kelly home was attractively decorated with juncos and sprays of pussy willows. Chief feature of the decorations was the four-tiered birthday cake which was cut and served with salted-nuts and cokes to around 25 guests who called during the afternoon to extend good wishes. The guest of honor also received an array of attractive gifts.

The five daughters and two sons of Mrs. Lee, their wives and husbands, the six grand children and two great grand children were all present to share the happy occasion.

Daughters of Mrs. Lee, who attended with their husbands, were: Mrs. Frank Melvin of Roseboro, Mrs. W. L. Cope of Durham, Mrs. Roy Pope of Durham, Mrs. Lee Chester of Pittsboro and Mrs. Neill Kelly of Lillington. The sons, who also had their wives with them, were L. A. Smith of Durham and John Lee of Raleigh.

The grandchildren included David Kelly, Lillington, Bill and David Cope of Durham, Mrs. Ikie Poe and Mr. Poe of Durham; Mrs. Alvin Baker and Mr. Baker of Durham; and Mrs. Walter Williams and Mr. Williams of Sanford.

Great grand-children also present were Patricia Poe, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ikie Poe of Durham and Walter Lee Williams, Jr., of Sanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Williams.

In addition to the members of the family, additional guests from

IT'S THAT OLD DRIVE THAT COUNTS — So says Sgt. J. B. Smith of the Lillington V. F. W. Post, who with hammer in hand, tells state department officers that the county seat post leads the nation in the percentage of new members gained this year. Left to right are Post Commander Billy Sexton, Past Department Commander Earl D. Knauff, Jacksonville; State Auxiliary President, Mrs. W. J. Moody, Greensboro; and State Auxiliary Chaplain, Mrs. J. R. Graham, High Point. State officials were on hand as Lillington members invited their wives to see the spacious new post home, built literally by many a hammer lick by many a member. Durham, where Mrs. Lee makes her home, also came to extend anniversary greetings.

Church Women At Lillington Name Officers

New officers of the Women of the Lillington Presbyterian Church were elected Tuesday night for two year terms.

Mrs. N. F. Lewis was chosen president succeeding Mrs. J. B. Moss. Other officers selected were Mrs. Roger Mann, vice-president; historian, Miss Cornelia McLaughlin; Chairman of Church Extension, Mrs. E. C. Gastineau; Chairman of World Missions, Miss Virginia Coggins; Chairman of Spiritual Growth, Mrs. J. N. Fuquay; and Chairman of Annuities and Relief, Miss Jean McKay.

Names of the new officers were presented by a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Neill Kelly, chairman and including Mrs. W. B. Hunter and Mrs. Roger Mann.

A number of other officers in the women of the church will continue in their present posts since terms are staggered to prevent a complete turn-over at one time. Since the Presbyterian Church year runs from
