

Coats Happenings

On Monday evening, February 18, Mrs. Kathryn Fleming attended the Music Festival at Campbell's College. The Westminster Choir furnished the entertainment for the evening. The selections for the evening consisted of classical music, American Folk Songs, Spirituals and Indian Melodies.

On February 8th Dary Delain Miller arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theron Miller. Every one wishes the best for both the parents and baby.

T-Sgt. James H. Lee, brother of Mr. Victor Lee was a recent visitor of friends and relatives in Coats and community. Sgt. Lee has been stationed in Savannah, Ga., since his tour of duty in Alaska. He is to be stationed in England for a period of duty.

Winchell

(Continued From Page Two)
"In contest sponsored for 4-H club members by a large free enterprise company, I won a young female pig, who will have little pigs in the spring. This shows how even a boy like I may get ahead in this country. I made enough money off of a pig I raised last summer to buy myself a radio and still have some money left over."

"I wish that all children in Iron Curtain countries would have this kind of freedom as I do."
"GENE MANAHAN,"
The Voice of America, by an arrangement worked out with this columnist, will broadcast the best messages from the youth of America to the youth behind the Iron Curtain. Messages should be about 150 words long. Local school principals are working out plans with state school officials to pick the best messages from each town, city and state.

R. A. CHESTNUTT CO.
Fayetteville Highway
PHONE 3591
DUNN, N. C.

+Stewart+
LAST DAY

MARTIN LEWIS
HAL WALLIS
SAILOR BEWARE
A Paramount Picture
Also — Late News

+DUNN+
LAST DAY

M-G-M presents
GABLE LONE STAR
AVA GARDNER
BRODERICK CRAWFORD
Also — News — Sport

+Harnett+
LAST DAY
Robert Paige
in
"Red Stallion"
Comedy — Cartoon

SMALL TALK

Let's see... I have to see this funny gadget...

Mrs. W. H. Turlington and Mrs. Ann Stout of Fayetteville, visited Mr. W. H. Turlington, Jr., who is a son of Mrs. Turlington, in Norfolk during the week.

Mrs. W. L. McLeod of Norwood and Mrs. J. T. Bland of Bule's Creek spent Tuesday as the guest of Mrs. Kathryn Fleming.

Friends of Mrs. Kittie Willis will be glad to learn that she is recuperating nicely after an operation at Good Hope Hospital. She has been at home in Coats since Wednesday.

Mrs. Ann Stout and Mr. Odell Humphreys of Fayetteville spent Sunday with Mrs. W. H. Turlington, Mrs. Stout's mother.

Mrs. J. K. Denning who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. D. Glover has recovered sufficiently to return to her own home.

Mr. Reggie Parrish has been ill in Dunn Hospital for some time is improving.

Friends of Mrs. Billie Keen were glad to see her out again after being confined to her home for several days with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Mittie Byrd, sister of Mrs. Eumanese Ennis is very ill at the home of Mrs. Ennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Guy, Syble and Ann Beasley heard Guy Lombardo and his orchestra in Raleigh Tuesday night.

Mr. M. O. Phillips and his shop boys have begun work on the cement walks for the school. They will be ready for use in a few days. They will extend from the south entrance gate to the south entrance of the building thence to the cafeteria entrance. This will add much to the comfort of walkers in rainy weather.

Mr. B. F. Parrish has been spending some time with his daughter Mrs. Henry Turlington but has for the last few days been with his daughter, Mrs. Delma Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. James Honeycutt and daughter, Becky, visited Mr. Honeycutt's parents in Fayetteville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Ogburn of Willow Springs visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turlington, Sunday. Mrs. Ogburn is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turlington.

Mr. M. O. Phillips and family heard Guy Lombardo in Raleigh, Tuesday night.

Miss Peggy Stewart and Willie Carroll Honeycutt were chosen sponsors for Coats for the Lion's Club dance, at the Army

CENTER VIEW DRIVE-IN COOL

Tuesday - Wednesday
MAYNARD KILBRIDE
MA PA KETTLE
BACK ON THE FARM
Cartoon & Musical

Thursday - Friday
SANDS OF IWOJIMA
Cartoon

2 Shows Nightly
BOX OFFICE OPENS 6:30
Shows Start At 7 And 9
Remember - Children under 13 in cars FREE

Denton places the ring on the finger of his bride, Mrs. Bertha Dillen, 71, as the couple is wed in Atlanta to culminate a romance that had been interrupted more than 50 years ago. The newlyweds became engaged in Indiana in 1898, but when Bertha's people told her she was too young to marry, Denton joined the Army and went off to war. After being widowed Mrs. Dillen traced Denton through Army records and came south from Indiana to marry him.

at Dunn, Friday night.

Mrs. Ezra Denning underwent an operation at the Good Hope Hospital Wednesday. She is doing very nicely.

Miss Eva Bateman, attended the meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society at Sanford, Saturday. This is an Honorary Society for teachers.

The First Grade pupils of Mrs. Percy Parrish's room gave a very delightful program at the Primary Chapel hour Tuesday. This was the first appearance of this group of first grade children in a public performance this year. They showed from their ability to appear at ease on the stage before an audience that they have had some very valuable training in many phases of learning this year. After their devotional and the singing of a number of songs they gave several appropriate readings. Then a group gave a dramatization of Little Red Riding Hood. This was done in a very creditable manner.

The regular monthly meeting of the Fidelity Class of the Coats Baptist Church met at the teacherage with Mrs. Mildred Creech, Misses Eva Bateman, Lucille Allen and Clyde Bryan as joint hostesses, on Tuesday evening, February 19th at 7:30.

After the business session was concluded the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. Nan Williams. The theme for the evening was "The Heart". Mrs. Williams read several selections on the subject. Mrs. Clyde Grimes read a poem, "The Great Heart" after which Mrs. Nichols led the prayer. At the conclusion of the program the hostesses served Coca Cola, cake and nuts.

Those present were Mrs. Milton Bryant, Mrs. Grace Harmon, Mrs. W. E. Nichols, Mrs. Carlos Stewart, Mrs. Ora Parrish, Mrs. Hal Smith, Mrs. Nan Williams, Miss Mattie Bain, Mrs. Zola Roberts, Mrs. Clyde Grimes, Mrs. Carl Hough, Mrs. Lucy Kelly, Mrs. Rosa Stewart and the hostesses.

The Grammar Grade Chapel program for the week was presented by Mrs. Nell Williams's combination fourth and fifth grades. Joan Godwin read a Bible selection after which the group sang The Lord's Prayer. They were accompanied by a phonograph record from which they had learned this prayer. The manner in which these pupils sang this selection would do credit to many trained choirs. After they sang a number of songs they gave a playlet, "A Birthday Party." The pupils showed fine training in naturalness, happiness in their work and interest in what ever they attempted to do. This program was thoroughly enjoyed by both the grammar grades and the Primary grades who were their invited guests.

Mrs. Gordon Williams spent last week at Matheson Clinic at Pittsboro, N. C., taking treatment for asthma.

The chicken supper that the Women of the Presbyterian church put on Saturday night was very successful. A large crowd attended. The proceeds are to go toward buying new equipment for their church kitchen.

Miss Mary Hemingway of Henderson spent the weekend here.

Mr. Charlie Thornton has returned to his home after spending several days at the Dunn Hospital and is able to be up again.

Godwin News

The Godwin Baptist Church held its regular quarterly social last week with a Valentine party at the club house. Decorations carried out the Valentine motif. The table in one corner of the room was covered with red hearts very attractively from which colored punch was served. Mr. P. R. Pope directed the games. There were about fifty present. Punch, peanuts and cup cakes were served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Starling and daughter, Mrs. Lee of Fayetteville visited Mrs. Ell Holland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Clark of Jonesboro were visitors in the home of Mrs. J. T. Williams Sunday. Mrs. Clark is the daughter of the former Miss Mary Williams and a granddaughter of Mrs. J. T. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Washburn and daughter, Brenda of Shelby, spent the weekend with Gordon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Washburn. Mrs. Washburn and Brenda remained here for a week's visit with relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Starling of Rocky Mount and Mrs. Mary Hawley of Dunn visited Mrs. D. H. Matthews Monday afternoon. Mrs. Starling and Mrs. Hawley are sisters of Mrs. Matthews.

Circle No. 1 of the Women of the Presbyterian Church met Thursday night, February 14th with Mrs. Willard Smith, Mrs. Frank Pitts chairman, presided. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Circle No. 2 of the Women of the Presbyterian Church met on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. D. M. Williams. Mrs. J. E. Graham, chairman, presided. Mrs. D. M. Williams leads the devotional. During the social hour the hostess served cream cheese sandwiches, Valentine hearts, nuts and coffee.

Circle No. 3 of the Women of the Presbyterian Church met on Wednesday night, February 13th at the home of Mrs. Annie Godwin. Mrs. Harvey Jackson, circle chairman presided. Mrs. T. C. Godwin, conducted the Bible Study. Mrs. E. C. Hemingway presented the program. The hostess served lemon ice box pie and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rowland of High Point, N. C., spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Rowland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Graham.

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Barnett of Lumberton, N. C., visited Mrs. G. R. Washburn Tuesday afternoon. The Barnetts are former residents of Shelby.

The chicken supper that the Women of the Presbyterian church put on Saturday night was very successful. A large crowd attended. The proceeds are to go toward buying new equipment for their church kitchen.

Miss Mary Hemingway of Henderson spent the weekend here.

Mr. Charlie Thornton has returned to his home after spending several days at the Dunn Hospital and is able to be up again.

LIL' ABNER—By Al Capp

SNUFFY SMITH

BRINGING UP FATHER

DICK TRACY

HOPALONG CASSIDY

BLONDIE—By Chic Young

NANCY—By Ernie Bushmiller

MICKY MOUSE

Let's see... I have to see this funny gadget... and then sit right still... It's easy to gain if you drink good Ballantine's Dairy milk.