

Rehearsals Begun For Senior Play

When I Was Green' Rehearsals were begun last night for this year's Senior Play, which is to be presented on Thursday night, March 20 in the Dunn High School Auditorium.

Try-outs for the parts in the play were supervised last week by Mrs. Roy Dixon, senior sponsor and director of the play.

"When I Was Green" entitles the three-act farce-comedy to be presented by the present senior class. It was written by Guernsey Le Pelley and published by the Roe-Peterson Company. There is a twenty-five dollar royalty for the play.

The entire story revolves around the Bleacher family and their ups and downs, especially when the teen-age children try to straighten out their father's troubles, such as income tax and the losing of his job.

There is an alternate cast for the play in case of any emergency, but the following cast has been named: "Dad" Bleacher, L. C. Draughon, head of the household;

"Mom" Bleacher, Anna Daniels, his sweet and tolerable wife;

Fatay Bleacher, Catherine Stephenson, a would-be sophisticate;

Gatesworth Bleacher, Harvey Eldridge, eternally enthusiastic, wants to weld the world with friendship;

"Bessy" Bleacher, Rita Fleishman, a rugged individualist;

Ann Bleacher, Gaye Lee, pretty, sensible;

Logan Ellsworth, Claude Pppe, Ann's boy friend;

Henderson Elliott, J. K. Adeox, big business man;

Ernestine Elliott, Mary Lou Frink, his wife;

Triana Elliott, Helen Faircloth, his shy daughter;

Roger Martinale, Tommy Waggoner, Anna's other suitor;

Wade, Edna Wood, Gatesworth's friend, a pretended gun-moll;

Blackmiller, Louis Surles, a pretended gangster, another of Gatesworth's friends;

Loretta, an important widow, Billie Temple.

Rehearsals will be held each night for the next three weeks in the high school auditorium and it is expected that no one be present except the cast, the director and the stage manager.

SAVE SOUTHERN DEMOCRACY AND SAVE AMERICA!

JOIN THIS CAMPAIGN TO DEFEAT FAIR DEAL SOCIALISM

There is no reason, either in the laws of North Carolina or in the Plan of Organization of the Democratic Party of North Carolina, why the Democratic Party of North Carolina cannot join with the Democratic Parties of other Southern states in refusing to support the Fair Deal nominees in 1952. Under our laws (see General Statutes 153-108) it is the duty of the political party which must nominate its candidates for President and Vice-President. Nothing in a North Carolina political party to accept the nominees of any national convention. The State Democratic Convention can authorize action to nominate Russell, Byrd, Eisenhower or any other candidate for President who might be selected by the Democratic Parties of the Southern states, or it could even nominate these candidates itself without consulting any other state. At the very least it could require candidates for Presidential elector to swear that they will not under any circumstances cast an electoral vote for Harry S. Truman or anyone else who is for his F. E. P. C. Fair Deal platform. Such an oath should be required before any person is given the nomination as Presidential elector.

The regular Democratic Party won the Presidential election of 1948 in every one of the 11 states of the former Confederate States of America. In four of those states the regular Democratic candidates for Presidential elector were pledged to Thurmond and Wright. THERE WAS NO STATES RIGHTS DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN ANY OF THE FOUR STATES THAT WERE CARRIED BY THURMOND AND WRIGHT. You can verify this by writing to the Secretaries of State of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina.

If the regular Democratic Parties of any four additional Southern states, or Texas and any other two, had nominated Presidential electors pledged to Thurmond and Wright, Truman would have lacked the required majority of 266 electoral votes and the election would have been thrown into the House of Representatives, where North Carolina's vote counts as much as New York's. Unless the Republicans had voted for Truman in the House or the Trumanites had voted for Dewey, sooner or later the House would have had to elect Thurmond. F. C. came much closer to being President than the Trumanites and the Republicans have wanted you to realize.

If you would like detailed instructions on what can be done in North Carolina, how to do it, and what you can do to help, clip the coupon and send one dollar (or more) to the Democratic Southern Committee, which will tell you how the real Southern Democrats can control the North Carolina State Democratic Convention this year. The remainder of your contribution will go to pay the cost of bringing this message to as many North Carolina Democrats as possible before the present meeting.
