ce again this year th ty Health Departm Once again this year the Harnett County Health Department is of-fering protection against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, smallpox, and typhold fever, and Dr. W. B. Hunter, Harnett County Health Of-ficer is again urging citizens to take advantage of this service. In order to make the administra-tion of the vaccimes more readily available clinics have been sche-duled for each of the schools and for other strategic locations through on the county. However, for those who miss the clinic nearest their home, the vaccines will be given each Saturday from March 29 through April 19, from 9:30 a.m. until noon at the Dunn and Lil-lington Health Centers. For diphtheria and whooping cough, Dr. Hunter points out, it is important that the children be im-multed as early as possible with the recommended age three months, Dinkheria deaths, he points of the advantage there were 19 such deaths might have been pre-vented by early vaccination. These deaths might have been pre-vented by early vaccination.

Close Contest Between Ike, Taft Indicated

CONCORD, N. H. (P) - A handful of insignificant re-turns trickled in even before dawn today as a possible 150,000 voters cast ballots in New Hampshire's president-ial primary, the nation's first test for potential White House candidates.

With 14 votes cast, Gen. Dwight D, Elsenhower led both the dele-gate contest and the legalized pop-ularity poll by narrow margins over Sen. Robert A. Taff. On the Demo-cratic ballot, President Truman and Sen. Ristes Kefauver split two "straw" votes and their delegates were tied.

were tied. Other than being official, the early votes carried no political sig-nificance. They were recorded at Millsfield and Waterville, two small communities in the northern section of the snow-covered Granite State.
