The Rev. I. Clyde Shepard, pastor of the bride, was the officiating minister.

For the wedding the church was beautifully decorated. Seven branched candelabra were used on each side of the altar with floral baskets of white gladioli and greenery forming a background, before which the vows were exchanged.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Dorothy Norris, pianist, and Miss Betty Wren Stancil and Miss Katherine Stephenson of Dunn, soloists, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Stephenson sang "Through The Years," and "My Hero," and Miss Stancil sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of light pink lace and net. The gown featured a brief bolero fashioned with long sleeves ending in a point over the hand. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with white carnations and astin streamers and ferns.

Miss Judith Holmes was maid of honor. She wore an aqua ballerina length gown which featured a brief black bolero and black picture hat. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses, snapdragons and ferns.

The groom had as his best man Mr. Weldon Bass of Durham. Ushers were Bobby Shepard and Stacy Wood.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ennis chose a lavender dress with white accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. The groom's mother wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories and her corsage was also of white carnations.

Mrs. Lucas is attending Erwin High School and is a member of the Junior Class.

Mr. Lucas graduated from Erwin High in 1950 and has since been with the U. S. Army. He is presently stationed in San Diego, Calif. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip to unannounced points.
