

Executive Meeting Of Erwin PTA Is Held Tuesday

The Executive Board members of the Erwin Parent-Teachers Association met in Mr. Stutts office Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Gordon Ennis presided over the meeting, during which time plans were made to raise enough money to pay off any debts the P. T. A. might owe.

Mr. Stutts told the group that Mr. Thornton of Benson would like to come and put on a fiddlers convention Friday March 21. The group was in favor of this and Mr. Stutts said that he would notify Mr. Thornton to come.

A nominating committee was appointed to present a slate of officers at the March meeting to hold office for the school year 1952-53.

The committee is composed of the Rev. I. Clyde Shepard, chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Woodworth and Mrs. L. W. Griffin.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Those present included: Mr. D. T. Stutts, Mrs. Gordon Ennis, Mrs. E. H. Bosf, Mrs. L. W. Griffin, Mrs. W. E. Adair, Mrs. D. C. Woodall, Mrs. E. E. Matthews and Mrs. Frank Ralph.

Mrs. Beard Hostess To Sewing Group Tuesday In Erwin

Mrs. H. Q. Beard was hostess to the members of the night sewing bee of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Stephens Episcopal Church last night at 7:30.

These ladies are very busy making articles for their bazaar in the fall, and the people of Erwin and surrounding communities should be able to meet all their gift problems when they visit the bazaar in November.

During the evening Mrs. Beard served delicious doughnuts and coffee to: Mrs. A. H. Harper, Mrs. George Earnshaw, Mrs. Louis Dearborn, Mrs. Byron Stevens, Mrs. E. M. Brandon, Mrs. Chester Taylor, Mrs. Frank Ralph and Mrs. Henry C. Lee of Dunn.

ATTEND OES MEET

Mrs. Margaret Swanson, Mrs. Leva Sewell and Mrs. Margaret Adams attended an Eastern Star meeting in Red Spring last night.

HERE SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and children of Smithfield visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee Sunday.

Presbyterian Group Meets Tuesday With Mrs. Whittington

Members of Circle number three of the Presbyterian Church held their regular meeting which was a supper at the home of Mrs. Stacy Whittington Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Each member brought "pot luck" and the supper was served buffet style.

The dining room table was covered with a handsome white linen cloth and centered with a bowl of yellow bells and jonquils which added a spring like atmosphere to the occasion.

The supper consisted of baked ham, fried chicken, potato salad, deviled eggs, assorted sandwiches, olives, pickles, rolls, devil food cake, pecan pie, ice cream, coffee and coca-colas.

Following supper the regular meeting was held.

Mrs. Clarence Julian presided and Mrs. E. H. Lasater had prayer. Mrs. S. J. Clark gave a very inspiring devotional entitled "These Things Are Mine."

Mrs. Lasater was in charge of the program which was on "Evangelism."

During the business period Mrs. Julian announced that "Spiritual Enrichment Week" would be observed April 6-13. Plans were also made to remember the circles shut-ins and for the fellowship supper.

The circle members then presented Mrs. Julian a gift for her splendid leadership as chairman for the past year.

AT HOME

Mrs. Margie Aiken spent the weekend at her parents home near Lillington.

WITH PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Harris spent the weekend with his parents in Rocky Mount.

Lillington Class Will Give Play

Lillington High School seniors are busy with final rehearsals for the annual class play, "Watch Out For Spooks" which will be presented on Friday night, March 14, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Theme of the sprightly three-act comedy is built around the arrival of five girls at a haunted cottage to spend a vacation. The role of "Shirley," the promoter and manager of the vacation junk, will be played by Dorothy McDonald. Other young girls, who expect fun and frolic and are met instead with some hair-raising experiences will be depicted by Sharon Turlington, Laura Edwards, Shirley Cameron and Henrietta O'Quinn.

Christine Smith will have the role of a Negro maid and two "mischief makers" will be Hill Murchison and Douglas Schafran. Other characters will include Billy Allan, "a wolf in sheep's clothing," Joe P. Smith, Jr., a "friendly neighbor," Ann Packard, a late guest, and Fannie Lou Giles, another late arrival.

Miss Belle Hookaday, senior class sponsor is the director of the play.

Mrs. Peede Fotes Her Bridge Club

Mrs. A. W. Peede who recently entertained the Entre Nous bridge club at her home, used beautiful arrangements of gladiolus, roses, snapdragons and jonquils to decorate the sun parlor where two tables were arranged for cards.

Players included Mrs. W. E. Moore, Mrs. J. B. Gourlay, Mrs. S. G. Howell, Mrs. C. S. Loving, Mrs. C. Reid Ross of Fayetteville; Mrs. John A. Womble, Mrs. Joe Caviness and Mrs. A. J. White.

Mrs. Moore received high score award and Mrs. Gourlay the bingo prize. Cakes were served during the games and at the conclusion of the progressions, strawberry shortcake, coffee and nuts.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Washington, D. C. announce the birth of a son, Bruce Allan, on March 8 in Washington. The child is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith of Raleigh, former Lillington residents.
