

T.E.L. Class Of Benson Meets With Mrs. Whittenton

Mrs. J. W. Whittenton, Mrs. Lorraine Gilbert, and Miss Doris Barber were associate hostesses at the Whittenton home Monday evening to members of the T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school.

Mrs. J. F. Woodall gave a history of the hymn, "I Would Be True." The following Daily Creed and Prayer, recently adopted by the class, was repeated in unison:

Let me be a little kinder, let me be a little blinder,
To the faults of those about me.
Let me praise a little more,
Let me, when I am weary, just a little bit more cheery.
Let me serve a little better, those that I am striving for,
Let me be a little braver, when temptation bids me waver.
Let me strive a little harder to be all that I should be.
Let me be a little meeker with the brother that is weaker,
Let me think more of my neighbor and a little less of me.

And so, Dear God, I pray guidance along life's path today
To know thou wilt lead me securely on the way.
Dear God, I pray for guidance through worldly storm and strife
That I may walk serenely and find eternal life.
Protect me from all danger, put lurking fear to flight,
Walk close to me today, dear God, and guard me through the night.
AMEN

Mrs. Bessie Oliver was the featured speaker of the program and gave an inspirational Bible talk.

Present were Mrs. Jesse McLamb, Mrs. Cornelia Cagle, Mrs. Parlia Hudson, Mrs. J. F. Woodall, Mrs. Rom Morgan, Mrs. Hunter Poole, Mrs. Bessie Oliver, Mrs. Ethel Turinton, Mrs. David Peacock, and

Mrs. Ed Holmes Has Class Meeting

On Tuesday evening the Wesley Bible class of the Methodist Sunday School met with Mrs. Ed Holmes.

Mrs. Alfred Parker presided. Mrs. Ruth Massey conducted the devotional during which the group repeated in unison the twenty third psalm after which Mrs. Massey gave a reading on the psalm from Leaves of Gold.

During a business session it was reported that the visiting committee of the class composed of Mrs. Paul Johnson and Mrs. Donald Parrish had visited seventeen families during the past month.

Mrs. Walter R. Strickland volunteered to serve on the visiting committee for the ensuing month.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Paul Gardner, served pimento sandwiches, cookies, and hot coffee.

Present were Mrs. Mather Dorman, Mrs. W. R. Denning, Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Walter R. Strickland, Mrs. Paul Gardner, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Alfred Parker, Mrs. Ruth Massey, Miss Stella Creech, and Patsy Tart.

PIE FROM A PACKAGE

FOR A LUCIOUS DESSERT that's sure to set the family singing there's nothing like Cherry-Cocoanut Cream Pie. By using Jell-O Cocoanut Cream Fudding and Pie Filling, you can whip together a perfect concoction—guaranteed to soothe the sweet tooth of the most particular husband. The bright cherry trimmings make the pie a delicious addition to any fete. Remember—there's not need to waste time mixing and measuring. It's all there—ready and waiting at your neighborhood market.

receive adequate clothing from relatives or sponsors and gifts such as this enable us to carry on our work more satisfactorily. We appreciate the fine spirit which prompted the gift and want you to know that we are truly thankful for it."

The Methodist Orphanage takes care of about 300 children, several of whom receive nothing from outside sources. Clothing is always welcome as a gift from more fortunate individuals.

Once when a Benson lady took a quantity of clothing to the orphanage one of the matrons said, "I wish some would send us a carload of sweaters, we never have enough."

Dunn Lions Club Will Hear Tally

Joe Tally, mayor of Fayetteville, and candidate for Congress from this district will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Dunn Lions Club tonight, it was announced by President Waite Howard.

At tonight's meeting, Paul Hester chairman of the recent dance, will report on the outcome of that event.

Dunn Pastor At Annual Meeting

Rev. Bane T. Underwood, pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle, left here yesterday for a two week meeting at Emanuel College in Franklin Springs, Georgia.

Rev. Mr. Underwood is chairman of the Education Board of that college and he will preside over the meeting of that group.

presented the program.

The hostess served a sweet course.

Mrs. Roy Medlin Hostess To Circle

Mrs. Roy Medlin was hostess to Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. John Allen presided and was assisted in presenting a program by Mrs. Kyle Stephenson, Mrs. Nellie Allen, Mrs. E. Alphonso Parker, Mrs. Roy Medlin, and Mrs. Ivey Poole.

Refreshments were served.

Circle No. 3 of the Society, recently organized, held its initial meeting Tuesday evening with Mrs. James Harrell Johnson and Mrs. David Henry Parker as associate hostesses at the Johnson home.

Mrs. David Henry Parker presided over the meeting. Mrs. W. F. Smith presented the devotional exercise and Mrs. Ivey T. Poole

Eleven Miles Of Road Work Is Let

Eleven miles of Harnett roads were up for bidding Monday in Raleigh, according to the State Highway and Public Works Commission.

The eleven miles includes paving from Kipling to Christian Light Church; from Oak Grove School to the Wake County line; from Cokesberry to county road intersection east of Macedonia Church; and from J. D. Champion's place northeast to the Wake County line.

The money for the project will come from the bond issue approved several years ago for the improvement of rural roads.

Norris Honored By Dunn Firemen

Highlighted by the inimitable humor of speaker Lester Rose, the annual Ladies' Night Banquet of the Dunn Fire Department, held at Johnson's Restaurant Tuesday night, was termed an outstanding success by the approximately 70 persons who attended.

Mr. Rose is manager of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the members of the Fire Department and their wives, special guests were the members of the Auxiliary Fire Department and their ladies, Dr. and Mrs. George Cuthrell and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Andrews. Dr. Cuthrell is associate chaplain and Mr. Andrews secretary of the relief fund. His attendance has been a fact for almost three years.

Lieutenant John E. Norris was presented with a bar for perfect attendance during the year. This is the third time he has won the award since he joined the department. His attendance has been a fact for almost three years.

Arrangements for the banquet and the program had been under the direction of Howard M. Pease, secretary-treasurer. Chief Ralph Hanks presided.

L. Johnsons Of Benson Send Clothes To Orphans

A quantity of clothing consisting of sweaters, skirts, and slips was recently presented to the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh by Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Johnson of Benson.

In connection with the gifts of clothing Rev. Leon C. Larkin, superintendent of the orphanage said, "We are indeed grateful for this generous donation of needed clothing. Many of our children do not have such things."

Mrs. David Price.

The hostesses served caramel cake, nuts, and coffee.
