RECIPE FOR A HAPPY BREAKFAST

IF YOU ARE ONE of the millions of women who lose their husbands behind a newspaper every morning at breakfast, try something new. The new Duff Corn Muffin Mix, spiked with a sharp grated cheese, or chopped bacon, or shredded ham, will make friend or hubby leap for joy. For a fruity flavor you can mix them with finely chopped citrus or prunes—or with blueberries, currants, pineapples, or dried coconut. The muffins are easy to mix, and best of all, they take only a few moments to bake for breakfast.

Erwin Woman's Club Meets At Park Center

The Erwin Woman's Club held its regular meeting Monday evening at 7:30 in the club house.

Mrs. Louis Dearborn presided over the meeting which was opened with "The Lords Prayer" and the club sang "Wonderful Words of Life".

Following a short business session Mrs. E. G. Purcell and Mrs. Waymon Byrd gave an interesting program on "Materials and colors for Spring".

Club members present were: Mrs. Purcell, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Dearborn, Miss Ruby Sewell, Mrs. Ludie Fowler, Mrs. Johnnie Whitman, Mrs. Erwin Brantley, Mrs. Wilbert Tyson, Mrs. Willis Gray, Mrs. Pink Leonard, Mrs. D. C. Parrish, Mrs. Dan Ennis and Mrs. Coy Norris.

Kayola Gibson, Jessie Bostic, Gelora McNeil, Conrad McLean, Fannie Tucker, Mary C. Washington, Mary E. Lee, Blanche Goodman, Bertha Brown, Almetar Warren.

Plans Complete For Flower Show

Plans are being drawn for an elaborate spring flower show to be given in the Lillington Community Center, on Tuesday, April 15. It was announced today by the chairman, Mrs. B. M. Washington.

There will be no admission charge, but a silver offering will be taken. Tentative plans call for the show to be open to the public from 3 p. m. to 10 p. m.

The show, open to all interested exhibitors in the community, will substitute for the usual meetings on that date of the Senior and Junior Woman's Clubs.

Mrs. Raiford Is Hostess To Erwin Presbyterian Group

Mrs. C. E. Raiford was hostess to members of Circle No. 1 of the Presbyterian church at a "covered dish" supper at her home Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The supper was served buffet style and was by candlelight. The table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed spring flowers, flanked by burning tapers in crystal holders.

The supper consisted of fried chicken, potato salad, deviled eggs, assorted sandwiches, pickles, hot rolls, devil food cake and coffee.

Following supper the regular Circle meeting was held.

Mrs. Tony Harper presided and Mrs. John McCall gave the day by day devotion.

Mrs. Alice Oldham read the Scripture which was a review of the Ten Commandments.

The program for the evening on "Evangelism" was very interestingly given by Mrs. J. C. Graham.

A short business session was held after which the meeting adjourned with the group saying the mispah benediction.

Those present included: Mrs. Tony Harper, Mrs. J. C. Graham, Mrs. J. M. Morgan, Mrs. E. W. Ballentine, Mrs. Felix McKay, Mrs. John McCall, Mrs. Andy Oldham, Mrs. R. M. Phillips, Mrs. S. H. Harrington and Mrs. Dallas Johnson.

Campbell College Continues Classes

Night classes in typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand conducted for the past year by Campbell College Commercial Department, under the direction of business department head, E. W. Jenkins, has proved so successful and beneficial to vocational students in the surrounding communities that the college decided to continue these classes through the spring and summer months.

Registration for the next classes can be made at anytime by writing or calling President Leslie H. Campbell, Blues Creek, N. C. The new classes will begin Wednesday night March 19th. Classes will be conducted three nights each week thereafter on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 7 to 8 p. m. The rates will be $10 per month for two courses and $7.50 for one course.

Revival Prayer Meetings Held

The cottage meetings currently being held by the members of the Dunn First Baptist Church have proved highly successful, according to the pastor, Rev. Ernest P. Russell.

Although the character of this type of meeting precludes a large attendance, Mr. Russell feels that the meetings have accomplished their purpose as a prelude to the revival to be conducted by Dr. J. A. Ellis of Raleigh, which opens Sunday.

The final meeting of Group One will be held at the branch Sunday School tonight with L. L. Coats as leader. Other group meetings tonight are: Group Two, home of Mrs. Herman Strickland, Leader H. Paul Strickland; Group Three, home of Mrs. J. Furman Turnage, Leader J. A. McLeod; Group Four, home of Mrs. Ralph Lanier, Leader Mrs. Billy Hodges; and Group Five, home of Mrs. Charles McGugan, Leader Mrs. C. D. Bain. All meetings are at 8 o'clock.

Tomorrow night at eight, the Adolphus Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Harvey Tyner. Groups will meet as follows: Group Two, home of Mrs. Luther Gardner, Leader George Britton; Group Three, home of Mrs. Marvin Raynor, Leader O. O. Manning; Group Four, home of Mrs. Arthur Northcutt, Leader M. M. Jernigan; Group Five, home of Mrs. B. T. Griffith, Leader Howard Godwin.

Rev. Mr. Russell urges all the members of the various groups who possibly can to turn out for the closing days of this series of cottage prayer meetings.
