Henry Wallace Threatens To Sue President

SOUTH SALEM, N. Y. — Henry A. Wallace, former secretary of commerce under President Truman, said today that if Mr. Truman names him as the "Mr. X" of his diary "I shall charge him with deliberate character assassination... to make money" and "build political prestige."

Wallace made the charge in a statement following publication of a biography of Mr. Truman by William Hillman.

In the diary Mr. Truman said: "Mr. X is a pacifist 100 per cent. He wants us to disband our armed forces, give Russia our atomic secrets and trust a bunch of adventurers in the Kremlin political-bureau. I do not understand a 'dreamer' like that. The German-American Bund under Fritz Kuhn was not half so dangerous..."

Man Owing Over 2 Million Is Sought

ST. LOUIS — Robert L. Knetzer, who launched a "new used" car business in an Illinois alfalfa field and wound up owing $2,500,000 was sought by the FBI today after he gave the slip to two bailiffs.

Knetzer disappeared from a hotel here while on a "vacation" from a jail cell to try to raise $80,000 needed to free himself from a contempt of court sentence.

Knetzer came into public prominence shortly after the war when he opened a "new-used" car business near Jerseyville, Ill., when new cars were difficult to get. He sold the cars at list prices or below.

BIG DOWN PAYMENTS

He asked $1,000 down payment and the rest on delivery and for a while did deliver. But it appeared

Joseph Norris Wins Infantryman Badge

WITH THE 45TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN KOREA.—Pvt. Joseph M. Norris, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Norris, Route 4, Dunn, N. C., has won the Combat Infantryman Badge, symbol of the front line fighting man, while serving in Korea with the 45th Infantry Division.

The badge shows a tiny Revolutionary War flintlock rifle mounted against a blue rectangle which is surrounded by a wreath.

The Oklahoma National Guard Division left the U. S. early in 1951 and trained extensively on the Japanese island of Hokkaido before it was committed to Korea in December.

Private Norris, a rifleman in Company F of the 180th Infantry Regiment, entered the Army in January 1950 and joined the 45th Division in December 1951.

Erwin Teen Chatter

By GAIL BYRD

Hi ya, Kids! Sorry I didn't write any "Teen Chatter" last week but I'll try to get regular from now on. Let's get on with the latest news!

The Erwin Glee Club went to Raleigh Wednesday to sing. Mrs. Gray, the director of the Glee Club, was ill and could not take the trip. We hope you will soon be well again, Mrs. Gray.

Janice Byrd has been absent from school for almost a week. She has been sick with the flu. Hope you feel better real soon, Janice.

Roy Hall, Jr., and Jerry Faye Ryals are still going steady. They look simply adorable together; so keep the good work up, kids!

Miss Kellems Again Refuses To Pay Taxes

STONINGTON, Conn. — Vivien Kellems, veteran campaigner against "socialistic" federal tax laws, refused today to pay the new social security tax on self-employed persons and recruited four other small employers to join her tax strike.

Miss Kellems, who owns a cable grip factory here, sent a letter to Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder with her income tax return, pointing out that she had not included the $81 due for the new tax. She told Snyder that she carried "adequate insurance" and did not wish "further coverage."

SUGGESTS INDICTMENT

"It will clarify the whole matter if you will please indict me and let me submit this law to the Supreme Court, in the traditional American manner, in order to test its constitutionality," she told Snyder in the letter.

Miss Kellems made public similar letters to Snyder written by four others.

Because they are their own boss, the small business owners are required to pay their own social security taxes by means of the self-employment tax. They are supposed to deduct social security taxes from their employees' wages, too.

BELIEVED ILLEGAL

"The reason for not paying is because we believe this law to be unconstitutional," one wrote. "For those of us who still have confidence in our own ability to take care of personal security, such a socialistic thing should not be forced upon us."

Miss Kellems' feud with the Internal Revenue Bureau dates from 1948 when she refused to deduct income tax from the pay checks of her employees because "no one has paid me to be a tax collector."

Ike Supporters Steal The Show At State Event

CHARLOTTE — Followers of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower stole a night march of backers of Sen. E. Robert Tamm here yesterday.

Tamm supporters were hooping mad when they got a look at the inside of the huge Charlotte armory where the state Republican convention is being held.

Eisenhower backers had hung eight 30 by 45-inch pictures of Ike, smiling and dressed in civilian clothes. Big banners on both sides of the platform announced "We Like Ike."

There were no pictures and no banners for Tamm.

"What is this, an Eisenhower convention?" one pro-Tamm delegate demanded.

Ernest Morjan of Charlotte, chairman of convention arrangements, protested that he had invited both Tamm and Eisenhower to come to "hang all the pictures and posters they wanted."

SUNDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Willis and Henry visited relatives in White Mills Sunday.

a girl from Dunn? Gail Byrd receiving letters from "Brownie" almost every day? Betty Lou Jackson still running to the post office for a letter from Jackie Whitman.

Almost all the Senior girls being married or engaged?
