

Mrs. Waggoner Hostess To Twentieth Century

Mrs. Paul Waggoner was hostess to the Twentieth Century Book Club on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Patsy Cromartie, bride-elect, was honored guest for the evening.

The Waggoner home was attractive for the occasion with arrangements of jonquils, pansies, hyacinths, iris, and camellias.

When the guests had arrived the hostess served a delicious party plate consisting of cherry salad, sliced chicken sandwiches, pickles, devils food cake squares, and coffee.

Mrs. Billy Hodges, president, presided over a short business session after which she turned the meeting over to Mrs. A. B. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson introduced Mrs. Fred Byerly as speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Byerly's topic was "An Introduction to the Study of the New Testament." The club will make a study of the New Testament as a Spring project.

Mrs. Byerly gave the history of how the testament was written, showing the striking contrast between the old and new. She gave the reasons for its being written and also a detailed account of the Gospel of St. Luke, which has been called by many the most beautiful book of all languages. She said that it has achieved this renown because the author was so lovable.

She discussed the qualities of St. Luke as an artist and as a man, which have given this book such universal appeal. Mrs. Byerly quoted frequently from his work to illustrate her points.

After the program, Miss Cromartie was remembered with a gift of crystal by the hostess. In addition to the honored guest those members present were Mrs. C. L. Corbett, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Mrs. E. L. Cromartie, Jr., Mrs. S. N. Butt, Mrs. W. J. Thomson, Mrs. Pat Lynch, Mrs. Henry Tyler, Mrs. C. L. Tart, Mrs. Billy Hodges, Mrs. A. B. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Byerly, Mrs. Earl Westbrook and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leak of Dunn spent the weekend in Lilesville visiting relatives.

Miss Cromartie Feted At Bridal Party Luncheon

Mrs. Harry Fleishman and Miss Rita Fleishman entertained in honor of Miss Patsy Cromartie at a bridal party luncheon on Saturday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the General Lee Room of Johnson's Restaurant.

Miss Cromartie was presented a lovely corsage of Cavaller roses and a silver cream and sugar by the hostesses.

Pink snapdragons and pink candles composed a beautiful centerpiece on the dining room table.

The menu for the luncheon consisted of fruit cup, turkey croquets, creamed asparagus, Harvard beets, pickled peaches, tossed salad, ice supreme, and coffee.

Those attending the party were Miss Cromartie, Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr., Mrs. L. L. Coats, Miss Meredith Cromartie, Miss Libby Ray Cromartie, Miss Shirley Jane Johnson, Miss Polly Pope, Miss Betty Cathy, Miss Nancy Abernathy, Mrs. Charles Smith, Miss Pat Snipes, Miss Mary Ann Westbrook, and the two hostesses.

MRS. J. L. HORNE before her marriage on March 20 was Miss Delane Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stewart of East Erwin. Mr. Horne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Horne of Erwin. The picture of Mrs. Horne in Friday's Daily Record was incorrectly identified as Mrs. L. Fate Barnes, another recent bride.

FATHER McCARTHY ADDRESSES

OLDE TOWNE ARTS CLUB MEETING

Father Francis McCarthy, pastor of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, was the guest speaker Friday afternoon when Mrs. Victor Anderson and Mrs. John Ciccone were hostesses to members of the Olde Towne Arts Club at Johnson's Restaurant.

At two o'clock a delicious four course luncheon was served, which consisted of minted grapefruit, tossed salad, fried chicken, new potatoes, butter beans, spiced crabapples, rolls, muffins, iced tea, and lemon tarts. An arrangement of mixed spring flowers with jonquils and pink carnations predominating in the bouquet, centered the table.

Yellow candles in tall silver candlesticks flanked the centerpiece. The guests found their places at the one table by floral placecards. Father McCarthy was introduced by Mrs. Ciccone. In his most inspiring talk, Father McCarthy pointed out the need for spiritual awakening, and said that the art of good living could only be achieved through the proper relationship of the individual to self, to God, and to his fellowman.

He said that the present distress in the world is caused because men, as individuals and as groups, do not achieve this proper relationship. He pointed out the challenge offered today, and said that women's groups in the United States could do a great deal to bring about this spiritual awakening.

Following Father McCarthy's talk, Mrs. Willie Moff, club president, presided over a short business meeting. Mrs. C. B. Aycock reported that Emily Post's book of etiquette had been ordered and would be presented to the Dunn library.

Members attending the meeting were Mrs. Emmett Aldredge, Mrs. Howard M. Lee, Mrs. Billy Pope, Mrs. Curtis Ennis, Mrs. C. B. Aycock, Mrs. J. N. Stephenson, Mrs. Willie Moff, Mrs. L. P. Stephens, Mrs. Thurman Ennis, Mrs. Hoover Adams, Mrs. Nathan Cannady, Mrs. William Newsome, and the two hostesses, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Ciccone.

Retreat Is Held At River Cabin By Sr. Fellowship

A retreat of the old and new officers and commission chairmen of the Senior High Fellowship of the Dunn Presbyterian Church was held on Friday and Saturday at a camp on the South River near Monticue. The purpose of the retreat was to discuss plans of the year.

The group of young people left by car Friday afternoon from the church. During the time they were at the camp they discussed the duties of the different commissions, committees studied the manual for the Fellowship, and outlined plans for this year.

New officers and the retiring officers are as follows: Guyton Smith, president; Louise Johnson, secretary; Kathryn Buit, retiring secretary; Daley Goff, treasurer; Joe Andrews, retiring treasurer; and Marilyn Jackson, program chairman.

The commission chairmen were also named. They are Ruby Surles, Commission of Christian Faith; Betty Sue Russell, Commission on Christian Witnessing; Jeanine Goff, Commission on Fellowship; Joe Andrews, Commission of Outreach; Bobby Day Godwin, Commission on Citizenship.

Those attending the retreat were Rev. R. E. Gammon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilburn, advisor for the group, and their daughter, Eston, Barbara Parker, Katherine White, Libby Raynor, Sara Francis Thomas, Betty Sue Russell, Marilyn Jackson, Jeanine Goff, Guyton Smith, Jr., Bobby Day Godwin, and Joe Andrews.

MISS PATSY CROMARTIE HONORED AT COFFEE HOUR LAST THURSDAY

Miss Patsy Cromartie, popular Dunn bride-elect, was honored Thursday afternoon at a come-and-sit tea. The party was given by Mrs. Ralph Snipes and daughter, Miss Patricia Snipes, and Mrs. W. E. Ryals and her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Hutaff at the Snipes' home.

The Snipes' home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers in the living room and den. Glads, camellias, jonquils, red roses, azaleas, and a beautiful blue cinnaria plant made up the arrangements. A white and green color scheme was carried out in the dining room. The table was very impressive with an arrangement of white carnations, glads, stock, and greenery in a silver bowl. The buffet held a beautiful arrangement of the same flowers. Silver candelabra were used with white candles. The bride's mother, Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr., poured Russian tea from the silver service. Mrs. L. L. Coats, mother of the groom, served individual bridal cakes from the other end of the table. Mrs. Robert Draughon and Mrs. Bill Warren assisted in serving chicken salad sandwiches, canapes, toasted pecans, and cheese biscuits with the Russian tea.

The hostesses presented Miss Cromartie with a beautiful corsage of carnations showered with hyacinths. Mrs. Snipes and Miss Snipes gave her a dinner plate in her chosen pattern, and Mrs. Ryals and Mrs. Hutaff gave a gift of silver in her silver pattern.

Mrs. Stacy Lee Johnson, the former Miss Gaye Lee whose marriage in December has just been announced, was honored with a corsage of carnations, and a gift of silver from each of the hostesses. Guests included the honoree, Miss Patsy Cromartie, her mother, Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr., Mrs. L. L. Coats, mother of the bridegroom, Miss Libby Rae Cromartie, sister of the bride, Miss Nancy Abernathy, Mrs. J. Shep Bryan, Mrs. Thad Pope, Mrs. Stacy Johnson, Mrs. Charles Hutaff, Mrs. William C. Critchler-Edwards Vows Are Spoken At Home Of Bride

Miss Fronia Ann Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edwards of Grimesland, was married to Raymond Thomas Critchler Saturday in a home ceremony. Mr. Critchler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Critchler of Angler.

The vows of the double-ring ceremony were spoken before the Rev. C. G. Nickins, pastor of the Methodist Church of Grimesland. Wedding music was played by Miss Peggy Dixon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle suit with navy pin-point dots. Her blouse was of white crepe trimmed in navy, and her other accessories were also navy. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Miss Lou Gladson of Raleigh was maid of honor. She wore a suit of light blue shantung with navy accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Howard Kyles of Raleigh was best man for Mr. Critchler, and Charles Oakins, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

Immediately following the wedding, the couple left for a western honeymoon, after which they will be at home in Raleigh. The bride is a graduate of Hoyle's Business College in Raleigh, and is now with the National Cash Register Co. there. Mr. Critchler, also a Hoyle's Business College graduate, works with the Mutual Distributing Co. in Raleigh.
