

WEATHER

NORTH CAROLINA—Fair and warmer today, except cloudy with rain in coastal sections this morning. Fairly cloudy and not so cool tonight, except cooler in coastal sections. Wednesday: mostly cloudy and mild.

The Daily Record

VOLUME II

TELEPHONES: 3117 - 3118 - 3119

DUNN, N. C., TUESDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 25, 1952

FIVE CENTS PER COPY

NO. 47

Campbell Plans Gymnasium Building Soon

Campbell College's expansion program will be signally boosted May 3 when formal ground-breaking ceremonies will be observed, as students and friends look forward to the erection of a new gymnasium. It is expected that actual work on the building will begin by mid-summer, announces President Leslie H. Campbell.

Ground-breaking will be an added highlight of May Day Saturday: May 3, when Eugene ("Red") McDanel of Kinston and "Pat" Byrd of Manners will be crowned May king and queen by Don Percise of Goldsboro and Eva Townsend of Fairmont. Coronation festivities will be held on the campus circle at five o'clock that afternoon. For that occasion high-school seniors will be guests of Campbell College for Hospitality Day.

Campbell's expansion activities are designed to serve not only the students enrolled at the college but neighboring communities as well. Public Relations here. The new gymnasium will be available for tournaments and other athletic events in this area. Similarly Campbell's lighted outdoor playing field is available for night games by high-school teams throughout the county.

The project of paving roads and drives on and near the campus is already underway.

Renovation of the Home Ec cottage will be completed by next term, together with plans to enlarge the department in order to meet increasing needs of student body and community. Miss Catherine Campbell with her Master's degree from WUNC, after two years of teaching Home Economics at the University of Ohio, returns to her Alma Mater to head the department.

The college farm of 120 acres now boasts an increased herd of Hereford and Holstein cattle. For years the college students have been the principal of farmers in this county who can profit by its services.

As well as to the present enrollment, a new type of counseling service to high schools is provided (Continued On Page Two)

Bill Graham, Ike Confer In Paris

PARIS (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham visited Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today and said the general told him that the current revival of religious interest in the United States was necessary for the country. "We must have it," Eisenhower said, according to Graham. Graham said he and the general did not discuss politics and that the visit was "primarily private." "General Eisenhower was extremely interested in the revival of religious interest being displayed throughout America," he said. Graham quoted Eisenhower as saying that "own religion is 'Protestantism—no beyond that.'"

Allen's Wife Named Executor

Last will and testament of William Herman Allen, Bunlevel merchant, who died recently was probated on Monday in the office of the Clerk of Harnett Superior Court. Allen, in a brief will, left all his personal property, household and kitchen furniture in their residence at Bunlevel, and money on hand and in the bank to his wife, Mary E. Allen. He directed that other property should be divided among relatives as the general law directs. Mrs. Allen, named as executor, qualified on Monday and as the will stated, served without bond. The will was written April 15, 1949.

Williams Selected To Present Umstead

When gubernatorial candidate William B. (Bill) Umstead comes to Dunn Thursday night to address the Dunn Lions Club he will be introduced by one of his long-time personal friends, Captain I. F. Williams, distinguished Dunn attorney and soldier of World War I.

Dunn Guard Unit Wins Top Army Award

NEW JUDGE — Milton O. Lee of Lillington was sworn in Monday as Judge of Harnett Recorder's Court, succeeding the late Judge Floyd Taylor. Lee, who has been vice-recorder, was appointed by the county commissioners to serve until a judge is elected this fall. He took his oath before Acting Clerk of Court Elizabeth F. Matthews. And to make it official, the judge had to affix his signature to his oath. (Daily Record photo by T. M. Stewart.)

Lee Is Appointed Judge

Harnett Recorder's Court faced with a heavy docket today will have M. O. Lee on the bench, but will have no new titles.

Actress Anne Sterling Beaten And Humiliated

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Anne Sterling, savagely beaten during "an hour of hell and humiliation," was treated at Hollywood Leland Hospital today while sheriff's deputies investigated discrepancies in her story.

She was rushed to the hospital where she was getting along nicely and probably will be released today. Officers said they would question her again when she was released. BRUISED FROM FEET TO NECK. Doctors said the actress' body was "bruised from her feet to her neck" as if she had been beaten with a cane.

Democrats Launch Fight Against Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. John W. McCormack's surprise blast at Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was viewed in some political circles today as a tipoff to Democratic strategy against the general's growing strength as a GOP presidential candidate.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. (R-Mass), chairman of the Eisenhower-for-President campaign, said McCormack's statement yesterday looked like the opening of a "Democratic attack" on the general.

Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. (R-Mass), chairman of the Eisenhower-for-President campaign, said McCormack's statement yesterday looked like the opening of a "Democratic attack" on the general.

Several key Democrats said privately that they consider the McCormack statement an administration-backed maneuver.

Question Of Negro Cemetery Is Raised

City Manager Oliver O. Manning said today that the town must soon face the problem of providing a cemetery for Negro citizens of the town.

Big Ceremony Is Planned Here For April 28th

Dunn's National Guard Unit, Battery B of the 113th Field Artillery, today was announced as the best-trained unit in the entire Third Army and high-ranking national and state military dignitaries will come to Dunn on Monday, April 28th to present the award.

The announcement was made by Lt. Col. Clarence B. Shimer of Raleigh, G-3 training officer of the North Carolina military unit.

Colonel Shimer said it is the first time in history that the honor has come to North Carolina and declared, "It is the highest honor a National Guard unit could aspire to receive."

The Third Army includes National Guard units in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Tennessee.

Harnett Group To Go To Meet

Miss Rachel Clifford, president of the Harnett County Unit of the North Carolina Education Association, has announced that eleven delegates will attend the statewide meeting to be held in Asheville Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Delegates include, in addition to Miss Clifford, Superintendent of Schools Glenn Proffitt, Principal H. H. Hamilton of Lillington, Principal D. T. Stuts of Erwin; Principal A. E. Johnson of Dunn, Principal R. Hal Smith of Coats, Mrs. Gladys Phillips and Mrs. Nell Williams of Coats; Miss Cornelia McLaughlin of Lillington, president of the North Central District of N.C.E.A.; Miss Bessie Massengill, a county supervisor, and Mrs. B. C. Pridden, president of the classroom teachers of Harnett County.

Following a band concert Friday evening, Robert Aura Smith, editor of the New York Times will speak. D. Hilden Ramsey, editor of an Asheville paper, will also speak during the meeting. State officers are to be elected and will be installed Saturday morning during a business meeting.

MR. RAY 80 TODAY — Pictured here is Raymond E. Cromarrie, Sr., pioneer Dunn resident and business leader who today is celebrating his 80th birthday. Mr. Ray, as everybody in this section knows him, came to Dunn about 60 years ago and since that time has been a leader in affairs of this section. Asked today how he was celebrating, Mr. Ray laughed and replied, "I'm just behaving myself." He's supposed to be in retirement, but works hard every day. He is Dunn's oldest business man. (Daily Record photo by John Lewis.)

Jim Is Organizing A New Organization

Jim McMillan, the organizing organizer who ever organized an organization in this highly-organized town today was organizing a group of women to organize another organization.

The purpose of the organization will be to organize the voters and get them out to the ballot box on election day. McMillan feels that Dunn badly needs a League of Women Voters.

Since he happens to belong to the opposite sex, he is organizing a group of women to organize this organization to better organize the voters. His role is simply that of an organizer, if you please.

formation Clinic, Dunn's Little Theatre, a public speaking class, a Democrats-For - Eisenhower Club and helped organize the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Youth Strips Girl, Then Murders Her

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ramon Rodriguez, 18, said today that his 17-year-old girl friend fought "like a wildcat" trying to beat him off before he pummeled, strangled and stripped her in San Francisco's Mission Park.

Bandages covered the livid, feral scratches left on his face by the young girl's desperate attempts to resist him.

The youth was charged with suspicion of murder late last night some 15 1-2 hours after the body of "model student" Hilda Rose Pagan was found in bushes of the park within the shadow of the high school she attended.

for police yesterday afternoon. Officers had to string rope barricades to keep hundreds of the girl's fellow students and curious onlookers away from the spot where the boy said he killed her, as she resisted his advances.

Willie's Aid Tapshim In Robbery Of Bank

NEW YORK (AP)—A former convict nonchalantly tapped an index finger on the shoulders of Willie (The Actor) Sutton and Thomas (Scup) Kling in court today and named them as his partners in a $83,942 daylight bank robbery two years ago.

The confessed bandit was John DeVenuta. Seemingly unperturbed, he took the stand on the seventh day of the Sutton-Kling trial in Queens County Court and calmly recalled chapter and verse of the 1950 robbery.

RE-ENACTS CRIME

Rodriguez re-enacted the crime

MARKETS

EGGS AND POULTRY. RALEIGH — Today's egg and live poultry markets: Central North Carolina live poultry: Fryers and broilers steady, supplies adequate to plentiful demand fair to good. Heavy hens steady, supplies adequate to plentiful demand fair. Prices paid producers FOB farm: Fryers and broilers 22, heavy hens 20, turkey 22.

WENTWORTH —

SAVED WITHOUT BOND TODAY on a first-degree murder charge in the shooting slaying of his wife Beatrice last night, Deputy Sheriff Billy Dilling said Wall admitted killing Mrs. Beatrice Hill Wall, 34, with a .38-caliber shotgun blast through the heart at their home near Middletown.

Truman May Be Asked To Make WSB Changes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mobilization authorities said today that President Truman may be asked to change the Wage Stabilization Board's steel wage recommendations if they are found to violate wage ceilings.

A spokesman for Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson said the board's wage recommendations are being reviewed now by Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam.

REPORT IN 48 HOURS

He said Putnam is expected to submit a formal report to Wilson in the next 48 hours and that Putnam then can turn the question over to Mr. Truman.

Wilson said last night on his return from a conference with Mr. Truman that the board's recommended wage increases, amounting to 17 1-2 cents an hour in three installments spread over the next 18 months, "would be a serious threat" to the economic stabilization program.

MURRAY ACCUSES WILSON

Philip Murray, president of the CIO and of the steelworkers union, angrily accused Wilson of trying to "wreck the entire wage stabilization program."

Three industry members of the board charged that the working men's organization was "being disbanded" because of having no useful purpose.

George Armstrong, an industry member of the wage board, said he and his industry colleagues will not quit the board. But he said in a statement that they think the board "should be disbanded" by higher authority.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

THOMASVILLE (AP)—A top official of the United Furniture Workers of America, CIO, held conferences today with 100 members of nearly 1,200 striking employees of the Thomasville Chair Co.

RALEIGH (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court will review the convictions and death sentences of four North Carolina Negroes on Death Row here, Negro defense attorney H. O. Taylor said today.

WENTWORTH (AP)—Sawmill worker Jack Wall, 35, was held without bond today on a first-degree murder charge in the shooting slaying of his wife Beatrice last night. Deputy Sheriff Billy Dilling said Wall admitted killing Mrs. Beatrice Hill Wall, 34, with a .38-caliber shotgun blast through the heart at their home near Middletown.

CAMP LEJEUNE (AP)—More than 15,000 men of the 2nd Marine Division will stage a full dress parade here Thursday honoring Gen. Charles E. Sumner, Army chief of staff from 1928 to 1932. Sumner has been president of the Citadel at Charleston, S.C., since his retirement.

BULLETINS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Singing star Ginny Simms was granted a divorce when she testified her husband, engineer Hyatt R. Dehn, 40, was "constantly bickering and criticizing me." Dehn is the father of her two children. The singer is now engaged to Bob Calhoun, wealthy oilman.

BISHOP, Calif. (AP)—Fleet Larry Edgar of the government's Sierra Wave project studying air currents, and meteorologist Harold Kleinfelder, reported today they recently reached an altitude of 44,000 feet in a two-place glider.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The big federal prison