WASHINGTON (B) — The returns from the Wisconsin presidential primary will be in one week from today.

If Sen. Robert A. Taft does well in Wisconsin his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination will receive a most useful boost. A reverse in Wisconsin would hurt the Taft campaign badly.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is not entered in Wisconsin. Gov. Earl Warren of California is represented by a slate of convention delegate candidates who also are friendly to lite. They are so friendly that the Warren vote reasonably may be interpreted a week from today as very substantially an expression of Eisenhower sentiment, also.

STARSEN TO AID IKE

Harold E. Stassen also has a slate of delegate-candidates, but last night he announced he would give half of any elected to Eisenhower on the first ballot at the Republicon national convention. The move was regarded in general as a bid for support from voters favoring Eisenhower. Stassen is not likely to get any support from fringe supporters of Taft especially now.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur has disavowal the slate of delegates entered in his behalf but without his name being on the ballot. That disavowal should be more advantague.
