ALICE ANNA JOHNSON WEDS MR. BECKETT IN HYATTSVILLE

On Friday, February 29 Miss Alice Anna Johnson of Coats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, became the bride of William Wells Beckett, son of Reverend and Mrs. E. W. Beckett of the First Methodist Church, Hyattsville. The ceremony was performed in Hyattsville in the parsonage, 4113 Hamilton Street, in the presence of a few of the relatives and friends of the couple.

In the absence of her father, the bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, the Honorable W. J. Bryan Dorn, congressman from South Carolina. She was attended by a sister, Mrs. William Marshall Wright of Falls Church, Virginia. Mr. Sven Goran Stackig acted as best man for the groom. Mrs. Sven Goran Stackig, the former Beverly Beckett, sang a few appropriate numbers before and during the ceremony accompanied by her mother.

The bride wore a navy blue suit and a small mesh hat with lilies-of-the-valley interspersed on the crown. Her accessories were white and she wore a white orchid.

A wedding supper followed the ceremony served by Mrs. William H. Truesdell, Jr. of Washington, D. C., a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Edgar Beckett, the groom's mother.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall Wright of Falls Church, Va., Honorable and Mrs. W. J. Bryan Dorn of Greenwood, S. C., Mrs. G. M. Beckett of Washington, D. C., Miss Joan Johnson, Washington, D. C., Mr. John Wald, Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
