

BULLETINS

(Continued from page 1)

ers attacked scattered targets along Korea's MIG Alley today without sighting enemy MIG-15 jet interceptors.

NEWARK, N. J. (P) — A strike by 6,300 employees of the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co. ended today when company and union officials reached agreements on a new contract in night-long negotiations.

LONDON (P) — Britain has curtailed textile orders from other countries, including the United States, in order to curb a slump that has put thousands out of work, the government has announced.

ST. LOUIS (P) — The co-owner of an insurance agency turned the cashier he "had to trust" over to police yesterday. He cashier, Dorothy Rooney, admitted embezzling $4,677. "I trusted her," said Herman Richman. "I had to because I am blind."

DALLAS, Tex. (P) — Tornado-stricken Arkansas has been granted National Production Authority priority assistance to obtain materials for reconstruction and repair of its damaged homes and buildings.

NEW YORK (P) — Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle's airport commission, named by President Truman to investigate air traffic in the New York area following three plane crashes in Elizabeth, N. J., killing 199 persons, has been asked to close LaGuardia and Idlewild International Airports.

WASHINGTON (P) — Vice Adm. Thomas L. Sprague, Pacific Fleet air commander, will retire next Tuesday at the age of 57 because he believes that is the way in which he can best serve the Army, official sources said today.

WINNEMUCA, Nev. (P) — Thirteen persons were treated for minor injuries today after a landslide derailed the locomotive and three cars of the Western Pacific's California Zephyr.

NEW YORK (P) — A Washington dispatch of the New York Times reported today that the Federal Reserve Board has decided to dissolve the $7,000,000,000 Giannini banking empire.

MADISON, Wis. (P) — The political air in Wisconsin was charged with suspicion today as the three Republican candidates stepped up their campaigning with only five days left before the primary next Tuesday.

CHICAGO (P) — Sixteen persons—seven of them children—were injured today when flames raced through a three-story rooming house. Most of the 35 occupants slid down ropes fashioned from twisted bedsheets.

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Robert A. Taft's friends are confident the man from Ohio has nothing to fear from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's homecoming to campaign. The word in Washington is that the general is likely to return. Taft's friends indicated his return would be most welcome than otherwise. They believe the senator would not hit the general on the issue of the day.

WASHINGTON (P) — A key House member recommended today that Congress draft FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to take over Newbold Morris' job as head of the government's drive against corruption. Rep. Francis E. Walter (Pa.), a ranking Democrat on the House Judiciary Committee, made the proposal. He told a reporter he would wage a "strong fight" for its approval at a closed committee meeting today.

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. William Benson (D-Conn) said today he can prove in court the truth of his charges against Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy and dared the Wisconsin Republican to bring his $2,000,000 suit to trial before the November election.

VATICAN CITY (P) — Pope Pius XII urged all Catholics today to join a "sacred crusade" of prayer for world peace that will assure freedom of worship and other fundamental liberties to all people. His appeal was made in an apostolic letter deploring the oppression of the Roman Catholic Church in Communist Romania.

WASHINGTON (P) — The House Appropriations Committee cut over $200,000,000 today from an army civil functions appropriation bill which contained $693,000,000 when it came to Congress.

NEW YORK (P) — Ruth Ford Webb, a tall, dark and curvy torch singer, said today she agreed to be Tommy Manville's ninth wife for peace and companionship and not for his money.

BERLIN (P) — Sources close to the Soviet Control Commission reported today that more than 70 persons were killed at an airport just outside Moscow yesterday in the crash of a passenger plane and a loaded troop transport plane.

HUGOTON, Kan. (P) — Forty-five airplane passengers who escaped unhurt from a burning Braniff DC-4 after an emergency landing praised the skill of their pilot today for a perfect landing which saved their lives. Pilot Jack Stanford of Dallas shrugged off their admiration for his skill.

GREENSBORO (P) — The government will auction a blue mink stole and a three and one-third carat diamond here tomorrow to be applied against tax liens totaling $1,776,731.95 against a Greensboro couple. Tax collectors put the mink stole on display at a furrier's here. It will be auctioned with the huge diamond, a diamond bracelet and one gold bracelet in the latest sales to satisfy liens against Theodore and Charlotte Samet, owners of Southland and Kenlyn Hosiery Mills for the years 1941 through 1945.

OKLAHOMA (P) — A strike of AFL truck drivers "actually shut down" atomic plant construction here, the Atomic Energy Commission said today.

BRIDGE, Tenn. (P) — Professor David N. Rowe of the University of Tennessee said today he regards Owen Lattimore as the principal agent of Stalinism among American specialists.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

WILMINGTON (P) — Gladia rounds competing in the opening rounds of the Azalea Open Golf tournament today teed off under the watchful eye of their queen for the next four days. Beautiful young Cathy Downs, Queen Azalea arrived from Hollywood yesterday to take over her reign over the annual celebration. Approximately 1,000 persons met her at the airport.

WILMINGTON (P) — The State Conservation and Development Board considered recommendations today from its commercial fisheries committee to make all ocean fishing piers commercial fisheries.

GREENSBORO (P) — Eighteen-year-old "Joe Sisk" threw the sheriff's office into an uproar last night. The close-cropped blonde admitted "he" was a girl when told to enter the men's cell block. "Joe" gave her name as Barbara Jean Sisk of Marion.

LUMBERTON (P) — A special venire from neighboring Hoke County was called today from which to select a jury to try three men under an old state law prohibiting membership in secret political societies.

THOMASVILLE (P) — A court order today prohibited mass picketing by striking furniture workers in the two-week old violence-torn walkout at Thomasville Chair Co. Superior Judge Will Pless issued a temporary injunction last night limiting picketing. The injunction was asked by attorneys for the company.

ASHEBORO (P) — An autopsy has failed to show foul play in the death of Maggie Hunt Glenn, 40, of Randleman, burned fatally in a bed fire at a motor court near here Tuesday.

GREENSBORO (P) — Herbert F. Sewell Jr., Republican candidate for governor, opens his campaign tonight with an address here on "Advantages of a two-Party system."

WAKE FOREST (P) — Robert G. Deaton will assume duties as vice president and comptroller of Wake Forest College in Winston-Salem May 1 and will play a major part in the moving of the Baptist institution there, it was announced today.

ASHEVILLE (P) — A general session at Municipal Auditorium here tonight will open the 25th annual convention of the North Carolina Education Association.

MANTO (P) — Two prisoners working on a Roseboro Island road gang escaped yesterday prisons officials said today.

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (P) — The estate of an 85-year-old reclusive Mrs. Laura E. Fisher, found dead in her littered home here March 19 grew to $144,000 in cash and negotiables today with discovery of an additional $130,000 in cash.

WILMINGTON (P) — The Eastern North Carolina Press Association will hold its semi-annual meeting here tomorrow.

GREENSBORO (P) — Mrs. James E. Labeta of Thomasville was elected regent of the State Daughters of the American Revolution last night.

Nebraskans

(Continued from page one) man came to the Messenger home, eight miles south of here. Messenger, 27, answered the door, and was fatally wounded by a shotgun blast.

Three more shots were fired through the partially opened door, and Mrs. Messenger, 24, and her son were wounded. Mrs. Messenger, although wounded, ran to the telephone and got a call through to the Merriman operator. The call and her screams for help also were heard by several neighbors on the party line.

SHOT AT TELEPHONE
The gunman, meanwhile, had circled the house and fired a shotgun blast through the kitchen window, hitting Mrs. Messenger as she telephoned.
The gunman then apparently jumped into his car and sped away. A short distance away, McDonald, unaware of the shooting, stopped his car and was wounded in the neck by a shotgun charge. Then Gardner, believing the car to be that of a neighbor, stopped it. He walked over to the car and was shot by a pistol, believed to be of .38 caliber.

Bridges

(Continued from page one) represented in this or other matters.
Grundwald has refused to answer questions by the subcommittee and contempt of Congress action against him is pending before the House.
Bridges began testifying by reading a four-page statement in which he said time and again that his only interest in the Klein case was in his official capacity as a representative of the state.

Negro Is Held In Car Wreck

Sheriff W. E. Salminen said today that Grant Gresham, Negro, of Raleigh, R. I., has posted $500 bond for appearance in Harnett County Recorder's Court April 8. He was charged with careless and reckless driving, hit and run driving, and leaving the scene of an accident where there was property damage.

Gresham was one of four Negroes who fled from the scene of the accident Sunday after the pickup truck in which the four were riding hit the gas tank at Matthews Oil Station, a mile north of Lillington. Gresham was arrested by a Highway Patrolman in Wake County. No charges of larceny were filed as the truck belonged to one of the men in the truck, and was not stolen or originally believed.

Building Firm

(Continued from page one) service on small jobs.
MANY SERVICES
"We'll build or repair anything," they said.
Among services offered are: remodeling, repairing, roofing, siding, floor work, concrete masonry, etc.
"Most people find trouble in the largest building supply firm in Eastern Carolina."
Mr. Godwin married the former Miss Thurene Lockerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lockerman of Dunn, Route 3. They have two children, Brent, age two and a half, and Mary Sue, who is only three weeks old.

DEWEY IS VETERAN

Dewey Godwin is the son of Mrs. R. M. Godwin and the late Mr. Godwin of Dunn, Route 4. He attended the Old Chocora School and ever since has been in the building business.

Mr. Godwin since 1941 has served as a private contractor here and has built scores of buildings and residences throughout this section.
He married the former Miss Rosabel Jernigan, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Jernigan of Dunn, Route 3 and the late Mr. Jernigan.
Mr. and Mrs. Godwin have one daughter, Miss Fay Godwin.
Both of the owners are active in affairs of the town and community.

FREE PLANS AND ESTIMATES
Tommy's experience with building materials and Dewey's experience as a contractor are joined to provide an excellent combination to provide the finest of service.
They joined today in expressing appreciation to their many friends and customers for making donation of their new company possible and extended to the public a cordial invitation to visit them.
Free estimates and plans on any project will be cheerfully submitted without any charge or obligation.

Democrats

(Continued from page one) erson-Jackson Day dinner.
Democrats here are expecting a "given" on their side, aimed at the Republicans, with no clue to his 1952 plans.
White House press secretary Joseph Short had a cryptic "no comment" for a copyrighted report published by the St. Louis Post Dispatch, that Mr. Truman is trying to persuade Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois to become the administration's candidate for president.
Stevenson himself put a damper on the report last night when he said "I cannot seek and will not seek the Democratic nomination for president." He did not elaborate.

Republicans, meanwhile, headed into a new squabble over whether the April 15 New Jersey primary can be regarded as a test of strength between Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.
Eisenhower tried to withdraw from the primary on grounds that Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll violated a promise of neutrality and threw the state GOP organization behind Eisenhower.

$681,000 STOLEN WHILE GUARDS DRINK COFFEE

Armed guards at a federal warehouse in Denver, Colo., fell asleep during a party on Wednesday night and the $681,000 worth of gold bullion and silver coins and coins were missing by dawn. The driver of the armored car and two guards were being held on charges of having coffee in a nearby drug store. (International)

Two Hurt

(Continued from page 1) off the road on the right, rolled over, and stopped on the left side of the road. The accident occurred about 5:15 in the afternoon on Highway 87, four miles north of Manchester.
Mrs. McLaurin suffered injuries to her left arm and head, while W. L. McLaurin, 33, a passenger in the car, had cuts and bruises. Both were removed to the hospital by ambulance.

Patrolman E. B. Leonard said today that the investigation is continuing. The scene of the accident is 800 ft. north of the Gresham intersection where there is a sharp curve and a small hill after a long stretch of smooth road. Patrolman Leonard said, however, that the sharp curve and the incline are plainly marked.

Church Youths To Meet Here

Members of the Christian Youth Fellowship of the Hood Memorial Christian Church will be hosts to the young people of the Mill Creek and Coastal Plains District tomorrow and Saturday, it was announced today by Mr. W. W. Carroll, sponsor of the local group.
125 to 150 young people are expected to register for the meeting. Sessions will begin at 4:30 Friday afternoon and will close after the evening meal Saturday night.
INABINET IN CHARGE
Mr. Thomas P. Inabinet of Wilson, Religious Education Director for the state, will be here to conduct the meeting. Mr. Inabinet is conducting similar meetings for the other districts throughout the state.
Featured speaker for the event will be Mr. Herbert Reynolds, a returned missionary from India. Mr. Reynolds will remain over Sunday and will speak at the Sunday morning services.
Rooms are being furnished by local church members for those remaining overnight, and Mr. Carroll reminded today that anyone having an extra bedroom contact Miss Martha Ann Butler.

Registration is 50c and the charge for the three meals served at the church will be $2.50.
Only Few Cases Heard In Court
Robert McKelthan of Dunn Route 3, charged with carrying a concealed weapon and public drunkenness, was given 60 days, suspended for 12 months on payment of $50 fine and costs and the pistol was confiscated.
Wilson Holliday, charged with breaking and entering with intent to commit rape, was bonded over to Superior Court without bond. He allegedly broke into the sleeping apartment of the home of Henry Barnes and attempted to rape his wife.
Jessie B. McNeill, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was acquitted and Maggie Kine, the prosecuting witness, was taxed with the costs.
The case against Otis Robert, charged with assault and disorderly conduct, was also dismissed when Louise Roberts, the prosecuting witness, refused to testify and she was taxed with the costs.
John Surles, charged with assaulting Madyne Suggs by striking her with his fists, was given six months, suspended upon payment of costs and the condition that he not assault his wife again in five years.
Max Holliday Barber was fined $5 for speeding.
Calvin Coolidge Pope was also fined $5 for speeding, and Donald Ray Lee was fined $10 for speeding.
Three cases of public drunkenness were heard.

Markets

(Continued from page one)
COTTON
NEW YORK (P) — May 40.84; July 39.96.
NEW ORLEANS (P) — May 40.83; July 39.92.
SIZEMORE
Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Sizemore of Mount Airy announce the birth of a son Bill Jr. on March 1 in Winston-Salem. The Sizemores are former residents of Dunn.
of the Farm Bureau.
Chairman Harold D. Cooley (D-NC) of the Agriculture Committee told a reporter that the position of the two farm groups will "make it more difficult" to sell city congressmen on the need for continuing the "vital program."

Congress

(Continued from page one) The testimony revealed that Whitton took sharp issue with "economy" cuts in the agriculture budget proposed by Allan B. Kline, head

Harnett Safety Unit Planning Campaign

Officers and directors of the Harnett County Safety Council, at a meeting held last night in the county courthouse, completed the county-wide organization, named an executive committee, adopted two major projects and agreed to affiliate with the National Safety Council.

Dr. Glenn L. Hooper, chairman, presided over the meeting of the council, formed recently to combat the county's increasing death rate on the highways.

Need for the safety council was further stressed and brought home very forcefully to the officers when they received the news, just as their meeting broke up that three more persons had just been killed in a highway accident near Angier.

The group adopted as the council's first projects highway safety at the schools and agreed that the big job of the council is educating the public along the lines of safety. Named to the executive committee were: officers and directors of

SAME OLE GARVEE
SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (P) — The arm that bought Ned Garver 20 victories with the last-place St. Louis Browns last year appears to be rounding into shape.

The Ney, O. righthander allowed only three hits in his five-inning sting yesterday as the Browns beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4 to 2.

SOX HAVE BIG NINTH

MESA, Ariz. (P) — The Chicago White Sox, who scored an 8 to 5 victory over Cleveland at Tucson yesterday with a five-run rally in the ninth inning, meet the Chicago Cubs today in an exhibition game.

16 Killed In Plane Wrecks

BY UNITED PRESS
Three plane crashes in the Southwest claimed the lives of 16 persons today but 45 passengers aboard a Braniff Airlines DC-4 were saved when their plane made an emergency landing with a burning engine.

Eight men were killed when an Air Force B-29 crashed and burst into flames near Davis-Montan Air Force Base at Tucson, Ariz. A B-47 jet bomber crashed and burned during take off from Kirtland Air Force Base at Albuquerque, N. M., killing all four of its crew members.

Four more persons, three of them Americans, were killed when a private plane crashed into a mountain in Mexico, 65 miles south of El Paso, Texas.

But 45 persons escaped with a total of only one sprained ankle when their DC-4 made an emergency landing at Hugoton, Kan.

The plane was en route from Colorado Springs, Colo., to Oklahoma City, Okla., when an engine caught fire.

Capt. Jack Stanford brought the big plane down safely.

Airline officials in Chicago said the plane was "a total loss."

The passengers were taken by bus from Hugoton to Amarillo, Tex., where they were to be flown to their destinations.

WE ARE PROUD TO HAVE BEEN CHOSEN TO FURNISH THE Display Cases AND FIXTURES FOR THE GRAND, NEW GULFPRIDE Service Station

NO JOB IS TOO BIG...

...NO JOB TOO SMALL

LANGDON'S Wood Work

200 Lucknow Sq. Dunn

highway patrol chief, the county license examiner.
In addition to these, three persons from each community will be named to the executive committee.
Dr. Hooper last night stressed the big and the seemingly-discouraging task facing the council.
"But if our work saves only one life, then it will be worthwhile," he told them. Glenn Proffitt of Lillington is vice chairman and Sidney G. Thomas of Broadway is secretary.

Everybody Knows That Gardner's Dairy Products Are The Best.

WE ARE PROUD TO HAVE BEEN CHOSEN TO FURNISH THE Display Cases AND FIXTURES FOR THE GRAND, NEW GULFPRIDE Service Station

NO JOB IS TOO BIG...
...NO JOB TOO SMALL
LANGDON'S
Wood Work
200 Lucknow Sq. Dunn