

Two Noted Prelates On Catholic Program

DURHAM — His Excellency, The Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, D. D., Bishop of Manchester, New Hampshire, and His Excellency, The Most Reverend William Mulloy, D. D., Bishop of Covington, Kentucky head an impressive list of speakers for the many sessions planned for the Seventh Regional Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine scheduled for Durham, May 2, 3, 4, 1952. In addition to all invited members of the Catholic Hierarchy of Southeastern United States, the Congress will have many lay speakers of national prominence on the program. Bishop Brady and Bishop Mulloy both serve as Episcopal Officers of the National Center of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Washington, D. C.

The theme of the Congress "That They May Know That Thou Hast Sent Me" will prevail in all of the sessions of clergy, religious and members of the laity. It will remind everyone present of the extensive work connected with the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program. The CCD is the official agency of the Church charged with bringing religious knowledge to all who do not receive it in school. There are special activities in the CCD program for pre-school children, those in school and for adults. It is the aim of the CCD to select and train the laity to advance the work of religious instruction in all age brackets.

OF INTEREST TO ALL
The sessions of the Congress have been organized along the lines that will be of interest to clergy, religious, laity and the youth. The sessions of Friday, May 2, will be held at the Congress headquarters, Washington Duke Hotel, Durham, N. C. will highlight the General Program of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine and also the Role of the Laity in the Confraternity Program. A special session on Friday afternoon will be closed to the priests to hear the role of the priest in the CCD program. The sessions of Saturday will emphasize the Apostolate of Re-

Quik-Tatch Hookup... Easy Maneuvering...

PLUS FREEDOM FROM COSTLY FIELD DELAYS

—ALL YOURS WITH A JOHN DEERE INTEGRAL PLOW

Only a John Deere Integral Plow offers you such an outstanding combination of features—features that speed up your work... save time and effort on every job.

These Quik-Tatch plows are close-coupled, permitting outstanding maneuverability in every field condition. Control is simple; smooth, hydraulic power regulates the working depth... on the go.

Add the safety-trip standards which decrease materially the chance of damage resulting from striking buried obstructions. Consider, too, the quality of workmanship of all John Deere plows. These advantages—plus the good work of genuine John Deere bottoms—place the John Deere in a class by itself. Available in 1-, 2-, and 3-bottom sizes. See us for complete details.

AS INTEREST MOUNTS in the coming contest for the Presidency, many women voters are speculating on who will be the First Lady after the November election. The distaff position has become increasingly important since John Adams' wife, Abigail, became the first hostess of the land in 1800, when the present home of our Presidents was constructed. Pictured above are six of the women who are considered top contenders for the post of the nation's First Lady. (Central Press)
