

Coats Social Happenings

By CLYDE BRYAN

The Revival Services of the Coats Baptist Church will begin Sunday March 30th. Services will be at eleven o'clock on Sunday morning and Sunday night at 7:30. Beginning with Monday services will be at 10:00 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. The Rev. James R. Thompson of Greensboro, will be the visiting minister. Music will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Straughn of Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. Straughn were here last spring for the revival meeting. The people of Coats will be happy to have them back again. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Sunday was "Visitation Day" for the Coats Baptist Church. Every family in the town and community was visited or will be during the week. This is part of the United Efforts for a good revival in the town.

The Baptist Church Sunday School Council meeting was held at 6:30 p. m. on Wednesday evening, March 26th. All officers and teachers were urged to be present.

The Red Cross drive for Grove township got underway on Monday of the past week. It is a very worthy cause and we hope everyone gave as liberally as they were able to do.

The Beta Club members of the local school attended the Beta Club State Convention at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh on March 21st and 22nd. A banquet and dance were the entertainment features for Saturday evening.

The Future Homemakers of Coats High School attended the State Meeting which was held in Raleigh on Saturday March 22nd.

A number of the people of Coats will attend the Azalea Festival in Wilmington during the weekend.

Hayes Beasley who is with the Navy, stationed in Norfolk spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Beasley.

Evangeline Stewart, a student at Wake Forest, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart of Coats.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Moore attended the Medical Convention in Winston-Salem this week.

Miss Edith Allen spent the weekend at her home at Warrenton, N. C.

Mrs. Exie Smith of Raleigh spent the weekend in Coats.

Among those who shopped in Raleigh Saturday from Coats were: Mrs. Mildred Creech, Miss Lucille Allen, Miss Phyllis Timberlake, Miss Edith Allen, Miss Eva Bateman, Mr. James Valsame, and Mrs. Curtis Guy.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Ben Eller drove to Bethel Hill, N. C. on Thursday where Mrs. Eller taught a class in the Beulah Association of Stewardship Institute. Mrs. Eller is State Stewardship Chairman of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, of North Carolina.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Ben Eller spent Thursday night with their daughter, Mrs. Ralph L. Byrd of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Yarley had as their dinner guests on Friday Mr. and Mrs. Z. A. Thornton, Miss Novella Autry, and Miss Joylett Autry, all of Falcon.

Among the eleven delegates from Harnett County to attend the Statewide N. C. E. A. Annual Convention in Asheville Thursday, Friday, and Saturday were Mrs. Gladys Phillips, and Mrs. Nell Williams of the Coats School.

Friends of Mr. Reggie Parrish will be glad to learn that he is home from the Dunn Hospital where he has been a patient for several weeks.

Mrs. Fred Fleming has been confined to her home for the past week with pneumonia. She is getting on very nicely and will be able to be out in a few days.

The teachers from the Coats school who attended the Classroom-Teachers meeting in the Erwin School Library on Tuesday afternoon were Miss Bertha Westbrook, Miss Phyllis Buckner, Mrs. Percy Parrish, Miss Lucille Allen, Miss Esther Ricks and Miss Clyde Bryan.

After the general business session Miss Blanch Grantham of Dunn, gave a most interesting review of the book "The Art of Teaching." The social committee of the Erwin faculty served delicious refreshments.

Pfc. Robert G. Stewart, 175th Fighter and Interceptor Squadron, Rapid City A. F. B. Weaver, S. D. is home for a month's furlough with his family. He is the son of Mr. Bob Stewart of Coats.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Ennis are happy to have their son, Fred home for a month's furlough. Fred is stationed at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

Mrs. Kitty Willis entered Rest Hospital, Raleigh, on March 26th. She was to be operated on on Wednesday. Her friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Miss Eva Bateman had as her dinner guest on Friday, March 21st her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Hite and children, David, Jr., and Dian of Utica, Ohio.

Mrs. J. T. Bland of Bule's Creek has been spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Fleming, who has been ill with pneumonia.

Friends of Mrs. J. M. Malone will be sorry to learn that she has been ill in Rex Hospital for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coon had as their guests at their home in Lenoir, Mrs. Gladys Phillips and Kenneth Phillips, during the week end.

Mrs. C. G. Stewart spent the weekend with her sister Mrs. Robert H. Day of Winston-Salem.

The Fidelles Class of the Coats Baptist Sunday School held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. C. G. Stewart, on Tuesday evening, March 25th, with Mrs. Ora Parrish as co-hostess.

After the business session the acting program chairman introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Forest Maxwell, of Erwin. Mrs. Maxwell's topic was Higher Loyalty. The earnestness and appeal with which she spoke made her talk much enjoyed by all. After the program the hostesses served cake topped with fruit and whipped cream, salted nuts and coffee. Those present were: Mrs. Clyde Grimes, Miss Lucille Allen, Mrs. Luther Barefoot, Mrs. Owen Odum, Mrs. Malcolm Stewart, Mrs. Richard D. Wells, Mrs. J. Ben Eller, Mrs. Gene Stewart, Mrs. Mildred Creech, Mrs. Ross Stewart, Mrs. D. A. Yarley, Mrs. T. O. Beasley, Mrs. Milton Bryant, Mrs. Forest Maxwell, Mrs. Lucy Kelly, Mrs. W. E. Nichols, Miss Clyde Bryan, Mrs. Percy Parrish.

The Coats P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, March 26th, at seven thirty in the evening. After the business session, which included the election of officers for the coming year, which were as follows: President Mr. Vic Lee, Vice-President, Mr. Marvin Johnson, Secretary, Mrs. Nell Williams, Treasurer, Mrs. Talmond Penny, Miss Bessie Massengill. Elementary School Supervisor, showed a picture on Life in Mexico, and with a group of different age boys and girls illustrated the use of moving pictures as a teaching aid in the school. Refreshments were served at the social hour.

Mrs. Mildred Creech, Miss Lucille Allen and Miss Clyde Bryan attended "Open House" at Neta's, in Benson, on Friday evening, March 21st. The color scheme and artistically arranged merchandise in her shop would do justice to the better shops in many of our larger cities.

Kenneth Keene is spending Spring holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Keene.

Miss Phyllis Buckner's first grade entertained the Primary Department with a very enjoyable Chapel program Tuesday afternoon. After the devotional and a number of spring songs, the theme was "Record Review of First Grade Songs. These songs were dramatized by different pupils. The naturalness and joy with which the pupils did this showed the splendid work Miss Buckner has done with the use of a record player in music appreciation. The children were so much at ease and seemed to enjoy their performance as much as the audience did. The ease and accuracy with which the two masters of ceremonies who also acted as property managers, performed their duties was in a most creditable manner. Everything was done at the proper time and in the most perfect manner, with ease and self confidence. A number of parents of these children were present to see the performance, and I am sure were very proud of the accomplishment of these children.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Beasley, Hayes Beasley, and Mrs. Lucy Kelly visited Warrant Officer Godfrey Beasley and Mrs. Beasley at Fort Bragg, Sunday.

Mrs. Haywood Roberts, and Jack Brock of Erwin and Clifton Brock of Lillington, attended the funeral of their uncle Mr. H. V. Moulton, of Norfolk, Va., on Monday.
