

Miss Patsy Cromartie Feted At Luncheon Party

Miss Patsy Cromartie was entertained at a luncheon Thursday afternoon at the General Lee Room of Johnson's Restaurant. Hostesses for the social event were Mrs. Jim Cromartie, Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Sr., and Mrs. Earl Jones. Lovely arrangements of yellow roses, snapdragons, and jonquils flanked by yellow tapers in single silver candleholders were used. On the organ was an attractive bouquet of mixed spring flowers. The bride's place was marked with a yellow orchid and a miniature bride. The menu for the luncheon consisted of fruit cup, tossed salad, turkey croquets, baby lima beans, parsley potatoes, hot biscuits, hors d'oeuvres, iced tea, lime ice and wedding cakes. The three hostesses remembered the honoree with the following gifts: a silver tea pot, silver vase, and silver hot roll tray. The guests from Dunn, in addition to the honored guest and the hostesses, were Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. M. M. Driver, Mrs. J. W. Driver, Mrs. William Pearsall, S. Mrs. L. L. Coats, Mrs. R. L. Cromartie, Jr., Mrs. Wesley Coats, Mrs. Ernest Coats, Mrs. A. B. Woodmen Circle Honors Mrs. Core And Mrs. Weeks
"And a good time was had by all" seemed to be the consensus of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle-Grove 18-members at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night. Mrs. Maxine Weeks was hostess to the group at her home on West Divine Street Ext. The party honored two members whose birthdays occurred this month: Mrs. Melia Core and Mrs. Nora Weeks. The highlight of the party was an old fashioned spelling bee. The two honored guests, captained the two teams and Mrs. Melia Core's team was the victors. Another game played was a hand shaking game with paper bags as a handicap tied over the hands. The finding of names of fowls, animals or insects in the words "Happy Birthday Melia and Nora" proved to be a real trial of ingenuity. Refreshments of gingerbread cup cakes topped with whipped cream and coffee were served to the following members: Mrs. Melia Core, Mrs. Nora Weeks, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Mrs. Lona Strickland, Mrs. Alice Langston, Mrs. Ora Godwin, Mrs. Grace Jackson, Mrs. Liel Weeks and Miss Mamye Weeks. After the refreshments were served the hostess presented Mrs. Core and Mrs. Weeks, each with a gift of double strand pearls.

Card of Thanks

Merry Matrons Are Feted At Home Of Mrs. G. Williams
The Merry Matrons Canasta Club members and two guests of the club were graciously entertained Thursday evening when they met at the home of Mrs. George Williams on S. Magnolia Ave. The Williams' home was beautifully arranged for the occasion. In the living room a side table held a lovely arrangement of red magnolia blooms and white spires. A console table held plates in a milk glass bowl and on the mantle pink asparagus and white candy tuft were used in a dainty bouquet. Butterscotch candy, salted nuts and coles were passed to the group during play and after scores were compiled delicious fruit cocktail tarts topped with whipped cream and a cherry were served with coffee. Miniature Easter bunnies and biddies carried out the Easter season theme on each plate. Mrs. Betty Bass and Mrs. Locke Campbell were the recipients of high scores, they received novelty Etcher holders and wooden serving trays. Mrs. Bill Twyford and Mrs. Doc Cannady were the compilers of second high scores. Attractive place mats in novelty holders were presented to them. The two guests for the enjoyable evening of play were Mrs. David Adams and Mrs. Leoman Dupes. Members playing were Mrs. Lee Sandlin, Mrs. Ollen Jernigan, Mrs. Taylor Stephens, Mrs. Doc Cannady, Mrs. Bill Twyford, Mrs. John Welborn, Mrs. Betty Bass, Mrs. Locke Campbell, Mrs. Troy Godwin, and Mrs. George Williams.
