MISS LINDA GODWIN IS MARRIED SATURDAY TO MR. WALTER FLOYD FURR IN CHURCH RITES

In a formal ceremony on Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the Divine Street Methodist Church, Miss Linda Godwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olive Watson Godwin, Sr. of Dunn, was married to Mr. Walter Floyd Furr of Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Floyd Furr of Gastonia, formerly of Concord and Dunn. The Rev. Joyce V. Early, pastor of the church, heard the marriage vows of the double ring ceremony.

A nuptial background was created with white lilies, snapdragons, fern, palms and tall seven-branched candelabra. The choir loft was banked with palms, and candles in gothic design, gave the only light in the church. The altar was banked with fern and the open Bible on the pulpit was used as a center for a sunburst arrangement of white lilies and gladioli. White and shrimp bows marked reserved pews.

Mrs. Mack Jernigan, organist, and Mrs. Lester Lloyd Coats, Jr., vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle over slipper satin with Swiss embroidered renaissance lace, hand appliqued with oaks and seed pearls on the bodice, skirt and sleeves. The long shirred sleeves came to points over her hands and buttoned with tiny buttons. The bouffant tulle skirt was fashioned with a long cathedral train. Her mantilla-type veil, draped closely to the head, was cathedral length in queen's lace pattern from France. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet composed of three white orchids showered with orange blossoms.

Miss Margaret John Godwin was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Connie Hester of Clarkton, Betty Lou Gladstone of Norfolk, Va., Betty Talley of Greenville, N. C., and Mrs. O. B. Strickland of Dunn.

They wore identical gowns of shrimp nylon net over taffeta, fashioned with strapless bodices, net capes, mitts, and hats. Their shoes were in matching shades and they carried arm bouquets of talisman roses and gerber daisies.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Nora Ellen Faulkner of Kingston, Miss Bruce Dickey, Mrs. Bruce Byrd, Mrs. O. W. Godwin, Jr., Mrs. Derwood Godwin, Mrs. Landon Barefoot, Miss Peggy Alpine and Miss Hilda Simpson, all of Dunn. They were attired in pastel gowns and wore orchid corsages.

The bridegroom's father served as his best man and ushers were Mr. O. W. Godwin Jr., Mr. Derwood Godwin, Mr. Ben Gibson, Jr. of Union, S. C., and Dr. Bill Cummings of Henderson, N. C.

Mrs. Godwin was attired for her daughter's wedding in a blue gown of Chantilly lace while the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of champagne nylon with matching accessories. They wore identical corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Godwin attended Dunn High School, Toccoa Falls School in Georgia, Campbell College and Eastern Carolina College. Mr. Furr attended Concord High School and is a graduate of Davidson College and a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents and her grandmother entertained at a reception at the spacious colonial home of the grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Godwin. In the foyer, guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Mack Jernigan, Mrs. C. I. Thompson presented them to the receiving line, which was made up of the bride and groom, their parents, and the girls in the wedding party.

The guests were then invited into the dining room where the bride's table was covered with an exquisite Brussels lace cloth and was centered with a large unusual white arrangement consisting of snapdragons, sweet peas and lilies interspersed with plumed fern, eysophyllia, and tiny tulle rose buds. Talisman roses were used effectively in the arrangements in order to continue the color scheme used in the church, and in the bridal parties' bouquets and gowns. At opposite corners of the table were silver candelabra holding white tapers and white bridal bouquets with streamers knotted with tiny sprays of eysophyllia. Rose buds were used at the base of the silver candelabra holding the bride's mints. Lovely white arrangements were used on the service tables.

The mantle was pretty with two large white satin hearts outlined covered with white tulle ruffles, at the base of which was a large white floral arrangement. Talisman roses were used here also to carry out the color scheme.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. Wilma O'Brien, and Mrs. Beulah Graham. Serving nuts, bridal mints, and white bridal cakes decorated with shrimp rose buds, were the honorary bridesmaids.

The hall was unusually attractive with the old fashioned staircase twined with green smilax and highlighted at points with large white bows. On either side stood two tall baskets of glads and lilies. The drop table was decorated with white gladioli, green fern and five branched candelabra holding burn-tapers.

The living room mantle was done identical to the dining room mantle with the white hearts, floral arrangement and candles, all reflected by a large mirror. White and green arrangements were used at other advantage points in the living room.

Assisting in receiving throughout the house were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Godwin, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Derwood H. Godwin, brother and sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. E. J. Godwin, Mr. and Mrs. Almond D. Jackson; Dr. Glenn A. Lazenby, Jr., of Statesville, brother-in-law of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel

Luncheon Party Given Saturday For Linda Godwin

Mrs. Derwood Godwin and Mrs. O. W. Godwin, Jr., entertained at a luncheon on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in honor of Miss Linda Godwin, who on Saturday night was wed to Mr. Floyd Furr. The bridesmaids, honorary bridesmaids, and both of their mothers were also honored.

The bride was presented a corsage of baby chrysanthemums and each guest received a corsage of artificial bridal flowers.

The menu for the luncheon was fruit cup, chicken croquets, lime congealed salad, parsley potatoes, English peas, rolls, and ice box cake.

The hostesses remembered Miss Godwin with a cup and saucer in her chosen china.

Those present for the party were Miss Godwin, Mrs. A. F. Furr, Mrs. O. W. Godwin, Sr., Miss Connie Hester of Clarkton, Miss Betty Lou Gladstone of Norfolk, Va., Miss Betty Talley of Greenville, Mrs. O. B. Strickland, Mrs. Derwood Godwin, Miss Ellen Faulkner, of Kingston, Miss Bruce Dickey, Mrs. O. W. Godwin, Jr., Miss Hilda Simpson, Mrs. Landon Barefoot and Mrs. C. I. Thompson.

Godwin of Warsaw.

The bride's bouquet which was thrown in the traditional manner from the stairs was caught by Miss Betty Lou Gladstone.

For travel the bride changed to a toast linen suit and matching shoes with white bag, scarf, gloves and hat. Her corsage was composed of the three orchids from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to unannounced points south, the couple will be at home on South Washington Avenue in their lovely newly built home.
