

MRS. CICCONE ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB AND GUESTS LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Frank DeCarlo of Rochester, N. Y. was the honored guest last night when Mrs. John Ciccone entertained members of the Friendly Dozen bridge club and other guests at an evening of bridge. Mrs. DeCarlo is a sister-in-law of the hostess, and with her daughter, Debbie, is spending two weeks with the Ciccones.

Attractive arrangements of mixed spring flowers were used about the rooms where the tables were arranged for play. Red rosebuds in crystal vases added beauty to the rooms.

Between progressions, the hostess passed trays of ham and pimento cheese sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, cheese biscuits, brownies, and iced drinks.

When scores were tallied at the end of the evening, the award for club high and the traveling prize went to Mrs. G. C. Mitchell. Mrs. Ed Hood was second high, and Mrs. N. M. Johnson Jr. received the guest award.

Mrs. Ciccone remembered Mrs. DeCarlo with an attractive gift and also presented gifts to Miss Elvira Massengill, bride-elect, to Mrs. Ray Whitaker former resident of Dunn, and to Mrs. Oliver Holmes, a former member of the club, who is visiting her parents here before joining Lt. Holmes overseas.

Club members playing were Mrs. G. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Ed Hood, Mrs. Wayne Justesen, Mrs. Bob Dickey, Mrs. James Yates, Mrs. Vic Anderson, Mrs. Tommy Harrell, Mrs. Bill Warren and Mrs. Hubert Peay. The guests included Miss Elvira Massengill, Mrs. Oliver Holmes, Mrs. N. M. Johnson Jr., Mrs. J. B. Rouse Jr., Mrs. Waite Howard, Mrs. Hoover Adams, Mrs. Emmett Aldredge, Mrs. J. N. Stephenson, Mrs. Lily Pope, Mrs. Lewis Godwin, and Mrs. Ray Whitaker.
