GREGORY-BASSETT VOWS SPOKEN AT BUNNLEVEL BAPTIST CHURCH

Miss Mary Ellen Gregory, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregory of Erwin, Route 1, was married to Second Lieutenant Glenn Bassett of Waco, Texas, on Friday May 9 at 5 p.m. at the Bunnlevel Baptist Church.

The Rev. A. C. McCall, pastor of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Caviness Brown, pianist and Mrs. Harold Smith of Charlotte, and Alenzo Gregory, soloists.

Mrs. Smith sang "I Love Thee" by Greig while Mr. Gregory's soloists were "Calm Is The Night" by Bohm and "Mallet's 'The Lord's Prayer'" which was rendered as a benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length bridal dress of white organza. The dress was simply fashioned with a fitted bodice, off-shoulder neckline and full skirt and worn with a long tulle train. Her finger veil fell from a wreath of white flowers, and she carried a purple-throated white orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Everett Stout of Wallace, aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor and Miss Janie Parker of Bunnlevel, was the maid of honor. Little Miss Jan Stout, niece of the bride was the flower girl, and Ken Gregory was the ring bearer.

All the attendants wore champagne chiffon and carried straw baskets filled with mixed summer flowers. The ring bearer was dressed in a white suit and the flower girl carried a basket filled with rose petals.

Six honorary bridesmaids dressed in pastel evening dresses and wearing matching carnations in their hats, also attended the bride. They were Mrs. Billy Ray Matthews and Mrs. C. T. Thomas, Jr. of Hillington, Mrs. Archibald McDowell, Miss Vivian Byrd, Miss Yvonne Byrd and Miss Delilah Strickland all of Bunnlevel, Woodrow Newton and Archibald McDowell of Bunnlevel served as ushers and Everett Stout of Wallace was the best man.

For the ceremony the church was beautifully decorated in green and white. Pines formed a background for the wedding service and baskets of white glads and white tapers in silver candelabra were used at the altar. The choir loft covered in white, was decorated with sprays of ivy.

The bride was graduated from Hillington High School and Mars Hill Junior College and now is a junior at Baylor University at Waco, Texas where she plans to continue her studies. Lieutenant Bassett, a native of California, was graduated from Baylor University and attended cadet school there receiving a commission as a second lieutenant in the Air Force. He is temporarily stationed at Waco.
