LIGHT And BRIGHT

NEW YORK (AP) — Young Mike Broderick couldn't sit down today because a clever neighbor was afraid of robbers.
 Broderick, 16, saw a light in the window of William Buhl's bayside home last night and decided to visit him. In crossing Buhl's lawn Broderick stepped on electrical contacts that set off an alarm.
 Buhl began firing his 22 caliber rifle before the youth could identify himself and a bullet nicked Broderick as he retreated. Police said Buhl was not booked and the two neighbors are still friends.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Judge John D. Martin of the U. S. Court of Appeals paid a $21 fine yesterday for running a red light.
 "It is rather a novel experience to be on the other side of the bar of justice," the judge said.

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP) — An unemployed salesman regretted today that he tried to get a job on the Hempstead police force.
 Thomas McGruder, 27, was fingerprinted when he applied for the position. The FBI said the prints revealed he was wanted in Flagstaff, Ariz., on charges of passing worthless checks.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — William Eddington observed his 103rd birthday today by promising to cut his coffee consumption from 40 to 20 cups a day.

MONTREAL, Que. (AP) — Police sought today an elderly woman who likes her pigeons cooked.
 Sumers on Dominion Square reported the fast-working woman averages two or three meals a week by luring pigeons to her hand, snapping their necks and popping them into paper sacks.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Assistant movie director George Meek won a divorce from his 17-year-old wife, actress June McCall, yesterday by testifying she disillusioned him on her wedding day.
 Meek, 27, told Superior Judge Thurmond Clark she drank so heavily at their wedding reception that she "got very amorous toward all the men guests, and finally fell down and had to be carried to her room."

CHICAGO (AP) — Jack Shore's good news is bad news for some New York art experts.
 Shore, a Chicago art dealer, paid $100 for a painting shunned by other bidders at a Manhattan auction recently. The painting was identified yesterday as an original Ludovica Borgia worth $150,000.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (AP) — Policeman Robert Schaefer stopped motorist Charles Schultz yesterday to give him a ticket for driving the wrong way on a one-way street.
 "My car is on fire and I'm heading for the fire station," Schultz said.
 "Take off," Schaefer said and Schultz drove to the firehouse four blocks away.

DEATH NO TERROR
 GUILFORD, Vt. (AP) — A marble tombstone over the grave of Benjamin Carpenter has a lengthy inscription listing his many services to the state. The inscription concludes: "Left this world and 146 persons of lineal posterity, March 29, 1804, aged 78 years, 10 months and 12 days, with a strong mind and full faith of a more glorious state hereafter. Stature about six feet — weight 200. Death had no terror."

RIDGWAY PESSIMISTIC ON PEACE

GEN. MATTHEW B. RIDGWAY is pictured in Washington as he prepared to testify at a closed-door session of the Senate Armed Services Committee investigating recent outbreaks at the Kojima Island war-prisoner camp. He told the legislators that he is pessimistic on the chances for peace in Korea and warned that the Red buildup of strength has increased substantially while truce talks drag along. (International)
