Miss Cameron Is Wed To Mr. Kelly Saturday

Miss Elois Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Cameron of Jonesboro Heights, Sanford, became the bride of Charles Kelly, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly of Olivia Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. The marriage took place at the Barbecue Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. T. E. Nelson of Olivia, pastor of the church, conducted the double ring ceremony. Miss N-wita Page, pianist, and Miss Cornelia Thomas, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with pink hat, blouse and gloves. She wore a corsage of purple orchids. Her mother wore a blue dress with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Leonard Rogers, aunt of the bridegroom, wore a suit of blue with a matching hat and her corsage was also of pink rosebuds.

The ushers were Earl Thomas of Olivia and Lynn Rogers of Jonesboro Heights.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bridal couple received their guests in the vestibule of the church, and then left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and other northern points of interest.

Mrs. Kelly is an honor graduate of the Benhaven school at Olivia, and now holds a secretarial position with Cole Pontiac Co. in Sanford. Mr. Kelly is engaged in farming and he and Mrs. Kelly will reside at Olivia.
