Tally Makes Attack On Carlyle's Poreign Policy Stand

WILMINGTON — "Peace can be won by keeping our superiority in top weapons, by the limited extension of aid to free countries working and arming with us and by the unlimited extension around the world of America's leadership, for freedom and justice." J. O. Tally, Jr., candidate for congress from the Seventh N. C. district, said here today.

Tally emphasized that the Communist threat to "our life and liberty" must be challanged whenever it raises its head.

It is highly possible, he continued, that the kind of leadership given the nation by the next congress may decide our destiny. Two years ahead may be the most crucial time in the life of the nation, he added.

"TRAGIC MISTAKE"
"The present congressman from the Seventh district," Tally said, "repeatedly has stated that he might, for his part, take our soldiers out of Korea and thereby abondon that country to Communism. To do that would be to eventually surrender Japan, the Philippines and the whole Pacific defense pines and the whole Pacific defense line. The present congressman has already tried to make a tragic mistake in our efforts to preserve that defense line."

Tally pointed out that months before the Korean war began it was obvious that this country's economy and productivity would have to be boosted if it were to resist Communist aggression. The President asked congress to pass a bill extending a modes amount of aid to Korea.

The music of Stephen Foster so well loved by all Americans, will run through the entire operetta, including such haunting melodies as "Jeannie With The Light Brown Hair," "Old Black Joe," "In My Old Kentucky Home," and many of the other favorites which have become immoralized in the memories of fine music lovers.
